

GERMANY DONE DEFENDERS' DAY

News That White Flag Party Had Left for Front Made Deep Impression in France

Last Doubts of Germany's Sincerity in Asking Terms Removed—War Near End

Plans Completed for Big Army and Navy Day Celebration Saturday

Admiral Woods Accepts Invitation to Attend—Other Notables Coming

PARIS, Nov. 7.—News that a German white flag had left for the front, made a deep impression in France, where the prompt action of the German government took the public by surprise. The last lingering doubts as to Germany's sincerity in asking for the allied terms for an armistice, will be held in certain quarters, seem to be removed.

On the contrary the impression now held is that Germany is really worse off than generally believed.

In the meantime the allied troops are giving the enfeebled enemy no rest. The Germans have been deterred by their last remnant ally, the weather, the rain fell in sheets yesterday—and the retreat verges perilously near a rout. British forces are within a few miles of Maubeuge, the fall of which is imminent. The French army is converging on Hirson. The enemy is falling back on the Meuse before the French Fourth and Fifth armies, who are driving in his rear guard and capturing many machine guns. The German white flag party may hear of the fall of the German emperor's former headquarters at Charleville and Metz before they conclude their business with Marshal Foch.

Near Meuse, the American army working in close touch with General Gouraud's forces, is demolishing bit by bit, the powerful pillar of the German defense on the western front. The destruction of this bastion would involve the whole enemy retreating in disaster. There is now no resting place for the hosts this side of the Rhine. Indeed, it is not too much to say that the Germans are doomed to defeat without hope of recovery.

GERMAN COMMENT ON ARMISTICE

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(British wireless service.)—In reporting the conditions of the armistice laid down by the Italians to the Austrians, the German wireless service of Nov. 4 added this comment:

"It is assumed that the conditions are not to be understood in such a way that enemy armies might use the freedom of movement for an attack on Germany."

This assumption, it may be said, is contrary to the truth. The intention of the allies is to use their freedom of movement in Austria to further at the earliest possible moment, a converging attack on Germany through Bavaria. The towns of South Germany, such as Munich, Dresden and Leipzig, will be immediately exposed to aerial attack and Berlin, is no great distance away from the frontier.

German Truce Envoys Enter French Lines to Get Marshal's Terms

Unofficial Report That Germany Has Signed Terms Lacks Confirmation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Navy cable censors reported today that an unofficial message had come through from abroad announcing that the Germans had signed the armistice terms delivered by Marshal Foch. No authority was given for the statement and while it added to the air of expectancy everywhere, officials said nothing except an official despatch could be believed.

Neither the American government nor any of the allies' embassies or war missions had been advised even that Marshal Foch actually had presented the armistice terms. It was assumed, however, that the German envoys had been conducted through the French lines some time during the day.

FIRST BAY STATE ROAD MAN TO FALL

WILLIAM GALLAGHER

Private Gallagher died October 7 from wounds received in battle, according to a telegram received by his uncle, Philip Hanley of 18 Crosby street, yesterday. The telegram comes from the war department officials at Washington.

The dead soldier entered the national service on April 29 this year. He went to Camp Devens as a member of one of Division three's quotas. He went overseas several months ago. He formerly lived at 16 Crosby street with his uncle and had been employed as a conductor.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT MEN WANT MORE PAY

More than 50 employees of the health department, engaged in collecting ashes and swill in this city, went on strike this morning after being refused an increase from $3.50 and $2.75 to $5 a day.

In a communication from the Health Department Employees' union, signed by Patrick J. McDermott, secretary, to Mayor Perry D. Thompson, the members of the union asked that some reply be forthcoming from his Honor not later than today. This letter was received only this morning by the mayor, although dated Nov. 1. He immediately sent a reply in which he said that the appropriation accorded to the health department this year did not warrant the granting of the increase asked.

At the time of going to press the strikers had taken no further action, although there were persistent rumors that a delegation was to wait on his Honor some time during the day.

The strike ties up the collection force of the health department entirely and there are only half a dozen employees now on duty at the barn, including blacksmiths, barnmen and helpers around the stables.

Mayor Thompson requests that people refrain from putting out ashes and other debris on the streets, because while the strike is on this will not be collected and will only be a source of dirt and inconvenience.

There is little doubt but what a strike of long duration on the part of the health department employees will seriously menace the health of the city and the debate comes at a most opportune time in view of the possibility of an influenza epidemic in this city.

Upon receipt of the mayor's letter refusing the increase this morning, the members of the union held a meeting and voted on the matter of striking. The result was a vote of 35 in favor of striking and 19 opposed. The motion was carried and the employees went on strike.

The communication received by Mayor Thompson from the employees asking for an increase was as follows:

Lowell, Mass., Nov. 4, 1918.

Hon. Perry D. Thompson,

Mayor of Lowell.

Dear Sir:—At a meeting of the health department union held yesterday, I, as secretary, was authorized to notify your honor of a unanimous vote taken to demand a raise of pay which will amount to five dollars ($5) per day, and request to hear from your honor not later than Thursday, Nov. 7.

I am your obedient servant.

PATRICK J. McDERMOTT.

In replying, the mayor said in part: "My disposition with regard to paying wages to the men employed by our city is now as it has ever been, and that is to pay the men employed in all departments of the city such wages as may be commensurate with the capabilities of the appropriation in that department."

"Unfortunately at the present time the appropriations are very meagre and for that reason rarely if ever is it permitted to encroach upon a specific appropriation by an increase in salaries or wages at the end of the financial year."

"The department of health, moreover, is now in such financial condition that it is now quite impossible to grant your request for the reason that it will require the best economies on the part of all connected with the health department to enable us to live within the appropriation accorded."

The mayor said that he had received a verbal request from a delegation of the employees several weeks ago, but he explained the situation to them at that time much as in his letter of today. No more was heard of the matter until the written request was received today.

YANKEE VICTORY

Pershing's Forces Reach Sedan, Famous in Franco-Prussian War of 1870

Yanks Cut Lines to Metz—Capture 6000 Huns—Allied Victories Elsewhere

(By The Associated Press)

Sedan, famous in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870, has been entered by the American First army. Today the Americans entered the section of the town on the west bank of the Meuse, marking an advance of more than 24 miles since the offensive began on Sept. 26.

Important Allied Gains

Meanwhile the British, French and American troops elsewhere on the front between the Scheldt and the Meuse are pushing the Germans from the small section of France they still occupy. Important gains are chronicled for the British in the north and the French in the center of the advancing allied lines, which moved forward six miles Wednesday.

Foch's Order to Hun Envoys

Marshal Foch informed Germany that her armistice delegation must enter the French line on the road between Chimay, Belgium, and Guise, which runs between Vervins and Avesnes. The lines are within ten miles of the Belgian frontier.

Germans Evacuate Ghent

The British have smashed further through the enemy lines, defeating them at Maubeuge and are now flanking the German positions in Belgium while the German commander at Ghent is evacuating the city.

East and southeast of the Meuse the British have made great strides towards the Franco-Belgian border.

French Cavalry in Action

The French armies from north of the Oise to southeast of Metziers maintain contact with the retreating enemy all along the front. The natural obstacles west of the last frontier have virtually all been cleared and the terrain before the French is admirable for maneuvering. On the extreme right where the French lines join the American, French cavalry are riding toward the Meuse between Metziers and Sedan.

Big Victory for Yanks

In reaching the Meuse at Sedan, General Pershing's men had achieved an advance of four miles since late Wednesday night. Germany's main line communication from Metz westward goes through Sedan and it is no longer of use to the enemy.

In rapid advance northward since last Friday, the Americans have captured 6000 prisoners. Sedan is seven miles from the French frontier and the fall of the town, which is mostly at the east bank of the Meuse, would mean the definite turning of the Meuse line northward into Belgium and would force the Germans back almost to the Rhine if hostilities should resume. East of the Meuse the Americans press forward toward Montmedy.

Formidable Task for Huns

Germany's troops west of the Meuse, because of the great progress of the French and Americans, must retreat, if they can, through Belgium. The task of moving this large force of soldiers through the narrow Liege gap, is a formidable one.

Germany's hold on the Aisne from Rethel eastward to above Vouziers, which has remained firm while the rest of the enemy front crumbled, was broken yesterday. French troops have thrown bridges across the river and are in close pursuit of the foe, who is abandoning vast quantities of munitions and material of war as he flees toward the ever-narrowing gap that leads through Belgium to comparative safety.

Vervins Captured; Rethel Evacuated

Vervins has been captured. Rethel has been evacuated by the Germans while the French are rapidly approaching the vital railroad center of Hirson from the west. British forces are moving up toward Maubeuge from the southwest and the Americans in the Meuse sector have now reached Sedan, where on Sept. 1, 1917, the decisive battle of the Franco-Prussian war was fought and Napoleon III was taken prisoner by the Germans.

Sledge-Hammer Blows

The approach of German emissaries to meet Marshal Foch today for discussion of an armistice brought no abatement in the pressure against the enemy. Everywhere along the front the converging forces of the allies increased the weight of their sledge-hammer blows in a battle which promises to be decisive.

Allies Relieve Austrians

Patente troops have crossed the Austro-Hungarian lines at several points to take the places of the troops of the dual monarchy so that the latter can be transported to their homes in groups.

Ghent Closely Invested

So far as known, Ghent has not yet fallen, but the place is closely invested by the allies and news that it has been captured, may be received at any time.

SMITH HAS A GOOD LEAD OVER WHITMAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—With 43 districts missing and the soldier vote uncounted, Alfred E. Smith, democrat, had a majority of 12,235 today over Gov. Charles S. Whitman, republican, in the gubernatorial contest. The totals were: Smith, 957,955; Whitman, 975,720.

The soldier vote, estimated at 15,000, was conceded by the republicans to favor Smith, one estimate being 85 per cent. for Smith, 25 per cent. for Whitman and the balance for the socialist candidate.

The missing districts were up-state.

MORMAL FOREST CLEANED OUT BY BRITISH FORCES

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—(Reuter's)—Mormal forest has been thoroughly cleaned out by British troops, but some few Germans are still in Berlaumont, where they are in danger of being cut off.

British forces are east of Forquiere and are advancing toward Ponthieu-Sambre. New Zealand troops are moving along the road to Navey and are near Hargnies.

Up till last evening the Third British army had counted 123 German officers and 5579 men taken prisoner since Monday morning. Since that time, prisoners have been coming back through the lines. The fourth army had taken 4500 by last night while the first army had captured several thousand.

HUNS RAISE WHITE FLAGS AT GHEENT—OHIO TROOPS IN BATTLE

ON THE BATTLE FRONT IN BELGIUM, Tuesday, Nov. 5.—(Night)—By the Associated Press.—A wireless despatch was received this afternoon at the headquarters of General Deauvains from the Germans saying they had decided to abandon Ghent and asking the Belgians not to fire on the suburbs of the town, where white flags were raised.

American troops from Ohio, under command of General Farnsworth, played a great part in the relief of the city by an attack on the Eecke salient, 18 miles southwest of Ghent, which was taken by storm yesterday. Their losses were comparatively light.

BRITISH FORCES ARE CONTINUING ADVANCE

LONDON, Nov. 7.—British forces are continuing their progress along the Franco-Belgian battle line. North-east of Valenciennes, according to Field Marshal Haig's report today, they have reached the outskirts of Quevrain and Croisvin, close to the Belgian border.

Further south the town of Angre has been taken. Southeast of the Mormal forest, the British have captured Monceau-St. Vaast and Dompreux, three miles northwest of the railway junction of Avesnes.

BREAK BETWEEN GERMANY AND SOVIET GOVERNMENT

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 7.—The diplomatic break between Germany and the Russian soviet government, which developed yesterday, was foreshadowed by the Berlin newspapers a few days ago when they charged that the Russian embassy in Berlin was the central point for the distribution of seditious literature. They pointed out that more than 400 couriers had been employed by M. Joffe, the Russian ambassador during the short period he had been in Berlin.

Ambassador Joffe categorically denied the charges, but the "accidental" discovery of a package of inflammatory hand bills in the luggage of a bolshevik courier, was held to demonstrate the falsity of his statement and was promptly followed by the breach in diplomatic relations.

GREAT VICTORY FOR AMERICAN TROOPS

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE SEDAN FRONT, Nov. 7.—(1.45 p.m.—By the Associated Press).—American troops today entered that part of Sedan that lies on the west bank of the Meuse.

The bridge over the Meuse at Sedan over which the retreating enemy had been destroyed and the river valley flooded.

The principal German lateral lines of communication between the fortress of Metz and northern France and Belgium are now either cut or unavailable for the enemy's use.

Since November 1, the Americans have taken 6800 prisoners. They have freed all French territory within the zone of the army's action west of the Meuse, to a total of 700 square kilometers, and have liberated 2000 civilians.

Internal conditions in Germany apparently are far from satisfactory. In addition to the outbreak in Kiel, the German naval base, which is reported to have placed the German navy and a large part of Schleswig in the hands of the revolutionists, outbreaks are reported in Hamburg. The chancellor also has issued an appeal to the people to maintain calm while the armistice negotiations are in progress.

Princes Max Makes Appeal

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.—Chancellor Maximilian, says an official despatch from Berlin, has issued an appeal to the German people, saying that "in order to make an end of the bloodshed" a deputation has left for the front, and that "the negotiations will be seriously endangered by disturbances and lack of discipline."

WALSH BOUND TO WIN

Weeks Didn't Have Chance
Against Greatest Vote Getter in History, Says McCall

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Senator Weeks was defeated by the "most remarkable vote-getter in our history," declared Governor Samuel W. McCall, in a statement issued yesterday. "The difficulties at the moment were insuperable," he thought, and although Tom Lawson entered the contest against the wishes of the governor, there were not "wild horses enough in Christendom to pull him out."

While many republicans expressed the belief yesterday that Lawson's candidacy was one of the chief factors in the defeat of Weeks, Governor McCall believes that Walsh's victory over the junior senator would have been even more positive with Lawson out of it.

The governor's statement follows: "Some weeks ago when the president decided one of the most momentous problems ever put up to mortal man, I commended him twice in public interviews. I thought it unfortunate and issue should have been made against him."

"The sublime march of events since that time led us on election day in sight of the goal for which the whole world was yearning, and sentiment in that short time acquired almost the force of a revolution. In a week the tide would have been more sweeping, in striking contrast with the apathy in the democratic primaries in September. That explains the general result in Massachusetts."

Weeks Didn't Have Chance

"As to the senatorship—Mr. Walsh is one of the most remarkable vote-getters in our history. Believing that a personal contest between Mr. Weeks and myself for the nomination would leave the nomination of no value to Mr. Weeks. If he should win especially with an antagonist like Walsh, I withdrew and gave him the advantage of an unopposed nomination. In the safe wisdom that follows the event it may fairly be said that with such a powerful candidate against him, confronted by a direct statement from the president himself, and in a tidal wave, although he made a thorough and stubborn fight, his election was not in the range of possibility."

"The difficulties at the moment were unsufferable. I think under the circumstances he did pretty well."

"As to Mr. Lawson, if he had followed my wishes he surely would not have run. One does not relish being pictured as a crushed and even murdered man. As brilliant a man as I ever knew, wonderfully tender in his family and to his friends, Mr. Lawson is wholly implacable when in pursuit of what he believes to be a wrong, and there are not wild horses enough in Christendom to pull him out."

"We have only to remember how he stirred up two continents by his frayed finance, his insurance campaign and his fight for the right to race for the 'America' cup. But his support would not naturally include many lovers of Mr. Weeks, and if he had not been a candidate I suspect Walsh's plurality would have reached a much greater figure."

LEVINSKY KNOCKED OUT
BY DEMPSEY

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight, knocked out Battling Levinsky of New York here last night in the third round of what was to have been a six-round bout.

Dempsey, who was the aggressor, throughout, stopped Levinsky with a right hook to the jaw. The blow sent the New Yorker down for the count and he had to be assisted to his corner by his seconds. It was the first time that Levinsky was ever knocked out.

In the first two rounds Dempsey followed his opponent all over the ring, trying to land hard blows. His blows seemed to shake Levinsky from head to foot. In the second round Dempsey nearly had the New Yorker out from a series of hard body rushes which made him close in and hold on until the bell came to his rescue.

OTTO HOCKMEYER, chairman of the local drive, again stated today that the "Hands off" rule in the coming campaign will be strictly observed. This means, the chairman said, that no one is to be approached by any team worker unless he or she has first secured the card for that individual from the campaign headquarters. Any worker wishing to secure any particular subscription will be given a card for that person unless one has "beat him to it." In that case as aforesaid, the order is "Hands off."

In this great country-wide campaign for a fund of $170,500,000 with an over-subscription of 50 per cent., which is to be spent for our boys "over there," so that when they come in from the front line trenches wrecked in mind and spent in body, they may find a welcome and a home in this inferno of bloody war, the quotas for the seven organizations which have in this campaign been welded into one, are as follows:

Young Men's Christian association $100,000,000
Young Women's Christian association 15,000,000
National Catholic war council (K. of C.) 30,000,000
Jewish welfare board 8,500,000
American Library Ass'n. 3,500,000
War Camp Community Service 15,000,000

DEMERS TO QUIT NAVY AFTER 21 YEARS

Chief Gunner Eugene Demers, U.S.N., who is aboard the U.S.S. Delaware and who has a wife and child living in White street, is home on a brief furlough. When the war broke out Mr. Demers was stationed at the Charleston navy yard as an instructor, but shortly afterward he was assigned to the U.S.S. Delaware as chief gunner and since that time he has been away on long cruises, but is not allowed to tell to what places.

Chief Gunner Demers has now been

connected with the navy 19 years and 6 months, enlisting as an ordinary seaman. He has gradually worked himself up to the post he is now holding, that of chief gunner, and during his career he has had some exciting experiences, one of which he will never forget. This was during the Boxer revolution in China, where he was slashed in the face by one of the rebels. Mr. Demers has made up his mind to retire on a pension if the war is over when his 21 years of service expire. He came to Lowell a few days ago when he was called to the bedside of his wife, who was seriously ill from influenza. He expects to return to his naval duties within a few days.

DEMANDS HALF FARE FOR BOSTON PUPILS

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—"Half fares on the Boston Elevated for all Boston children going to and from school," is a demand to be made on the trustees, of the road by the executive committee of the United Improvement association, which is empowered, in case of refusal by the trustees, to present to the next legislature a bill compelling the road to grant the reduction.

The association, at its meeting at the City club, last evening so instructed its committee, after a general discussion, in which the demand was justified on the ground that policemen ride free and that school children in every town and city in the state, save Boston, have long enjoyed the half fare.

Owing to an opinion among members that there is to be a severe coal shortage, delegates were requested to investigate the supplies on hand in their districts and to report at the December meeting.

The special committee on housing was authorized to act as delegates at the conference of the National Housing association at the Copley-Plaza November 26 and 27.

It was voted that the public works department be urged to do light repair work and make other street preparations for the winter.

Owing to the absence on war work of George W. Coleman, president of the association, Walter R. Meins of Roxbury, ex-councilman and ex-representative, has been acting president since the remainder of the term.

Parker D. Morris, who as vice president, resigned his membership in the association on account of pressure of private business.

ITALIAN SHIP COMES WITH ALL FLAGS UP

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—An Italian steamship came jubilantly into an Atlantic port last evening flying all the flags the law allows to celebrate the surrender of Austria. Her passengers, including a score of American travelers, many of Uncle Sam's bluejackets from the Mediterranean American gun destroyer Mullala and folk of other nationalities, got word by wireless of the Austrian collapse when the merchantman was three days from port and all hands held an international festival of thanksgiving. A note of sadness pervaded the company because of the death from Spanish influenza of the ship's surgeon, Dr. Antonio Onato, who gave his life in attending the thirty-five patients aboard, including passengers, who were stricken while the vessel was detained at Gibraltar.

Dr. Onato himself finally was taken down with the disease. He believed he had recovered sufficiently to resume his duties. The skipper and other officers urged him to rest, but he said he regarded it as much his duty to attend to his patients as it would be if he were ministering to soldiers on the field of battle. He fell dead after dancing in the ship's saloon just before she sailed for Gibraltar. He was born in Genoa thirty-nine years ago. His body was sent to his wife and mother in Genoa. He had been six years in the service of the line. Among the five aboard the vessel who died were two assistant engineers and three steerage passengers. The ship arrived at an American port with a clean bill of health.

Some of the passengers who rejoined in Austrian defeat were Giulio Rossi, bass of the Metropolitan Opera house; Mario Marchese, conductor; Arturo Loynaz del Catillo, Cuban consul at Genoa, and his wife, who is

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work of a buy. Each glass prepared, and saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Four 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired.

Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, soothes the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

the daughter of Gustavo Navarrete, Cuban consul-general at Genoa, who has been away from Cuba, her native land, more than twenty years and has spent years in Germany, France, Italy and England, has a little girl of 3, Victoria, who understands French and English and speaks Spanish and Italian.

JONES FREED ON MURDER CHARGE

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 7.—Charles H. Jones, 36, formerly a Lynn, Mass., shoe cutter, who was arrested here charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Gertrude Stoddard Jones, formerly a wealthy Boston woman, on Oct. 11, was acquitted here yesterday on his preliminary hearing. It was shown positively that the woman committed suicide, by shooting herself through the head. The first husband of Mrs. Jones, Mr. Stoddard, committed suicide in Boston several years ago, it appeared in the testimony.

CEMETERY BOARD MAKES NEW RATES

The cemetery commission approved the following schedule of rates to obtain at all the local public cemeteries from now on at its regular meeting held late yesterday afternoon:

The charge for single adult graves is changed from $2 to $5. Graves over 20 inches are $1 extra. The old rate for graves for children under 12 years was $3. The new rate is $3 for a grave for a child under 5 years. Those over five are to be considered adults.

The charge for lining graves is advanced from $7 to $9. For the service of slate vaults the rate is from $6 to $8. Tomb charges are changed from $2 the first month to $5 with a rebate of $2 if the body is taken out during the first month. A charge of $2 extra for digging graves to be used on Sundays and holidays was also advocated. This would have a tendency to discourage the holding of funerals on Sundays or holidays. For the filling of graves the advance is from $1 to $2. For filling urns and beds the charge goes up from $2 to $3 and $5 according to the size. For watering of beds and urns filled by owners or others the charge of 50 cents to $1 was advocated. For top dressing the charge is kept at $1; also for regading the charge was kept at $12. For the use of the chapel the charge will be from $3 to $5.

It was also noted that $2 extra be charged for funerals which take place in the winter after 4 p. m.

It was explained that the increase in rates was made necessary if labor troubles are to be lived up to.

Other business transacted at the meeting included the approval of monthly bills and all were approved except one from the Hanson Co., which was referred to the purchasing agent.

NEW ZEALAND TO BE REPRESENTED AT THE PEACE CONFERENCE

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Nov. 7.—(via Montreal).—The definite understanding here is that New Zealand will be represented at the peace conference. The ministers are momentarily expecting an urgent call in this connection.

COURT WAS BRIEF

Gabby Carl Holstrom Gets Off Very Easy

This morning's session of the police court was very brisk, there being but six offenders brought before Judge Enright. Carl Holstrom, who was arrested a few days ago on a charge of having made unparliamentary remarks, and also of being drunk, and whose case was continued, was called on continuance this morning. The court informed Holstrom that he was very fortunate that those who heard his remarks did not wish to testify against him. He imposed a fine of $10 for drunkenness. Catherine Martin and George Sauvageau, charged with drunkenness, were each given a suspended sentence to the state farm. Frank Fadden was assessed $5.

Morris Marmer was brought in on a complaint charging him with receiving stolen property and at the request of his counsel his case was continued until next Thursday. Anthony Kozlov, charged with a violation of the city jitney ordinance, failed to put in an appearance and he was ordered defaulted.

REPORT COL. LOGAN HAS BEEN REPLACED

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Colonel Edward L. Logan of Boston has been relieved of command of the 101st Infantry Regiment because of ill health, and succeeded by Colonel Horace P. Hobbs, formerly attached to the department of the northeast in this city, according to report current here last evening. No verification of the reported change has been received by members of Colonel Logan's family. The report came overseas from Fort Ford, International news correspondent.

Know of No Ill Health

Through all of the hard fighting in which the 101st took part at Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel and other famous battlefields, Colonel Logan was in active command of the 101st Regiment. He was gassed once, but other than that has not suffered in health since going overseas, so far as the members of his family know.

Word was received indirectly from the South Boston commander last Monday by Mrs. Lawrence J. Logan of 500 East Broadway, South Boston, the colonel's mother. She received a letter from her son, Lieutenant Francis Logan, a member of the staff of General Cole, in which she learned that "Colonel Ed" was in "the best of health."

Do Not Credit Report

Because of such reports Mrs. Logan and other members of the family are

OLD AGE STARTS
WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs.

This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 20 years GOLD MEDAL HAZELTON OIL has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL HAZELTON OIL is included in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 3 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL HAZELTON OIL Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL HAZELTON OIL Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original importers—GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.—Adv.

Logan last night, "that my brother has been relieved either temporarily for the purpose of getting a needed rest or has been promoted. However, I have not heard anything that would give any definite information."

Colonel Logan has been in command of the 101st, which is made up of the old Ninth and Fifth Regiments, for many years, succeeding Colonel John J. Sullivan, retired as brigadier-general, as colonel of the Ninth. His father, Brigadier-General Lawrence J. Logan, was colonel of the Ninth Regiment, and led that body during the Spanish American trouble.

Colonel Hobbs, reported successor of Colonel Logan, is a Pennsylvania man, and was graduated from the army school of the line, 1903-1902. He was assigned to the 17th Infantry as first lieutenant, and was made captain and assigned to the 23d Infantry in 1905. Later he was sent back to the 17th, and still later attached to the adjutant's office in the department of the northeast in this city. He went overseas with General Edwards, and has been inspector on the staff of the 26th Division commander.

"Speculation among the colonel's friends seems to be," said Theodore

FRENCH HONOR
AMERICAN DEAD

NANCY, Sunday, Nov. 3. (By the Associated Press)—The memory of the three first American soldiers to fall in France under the American flag was honored today, the anniversary of their deaths, by the government of Lorraine, where they fell.

The towns in the department of Meurthe-Moselle erected a monument in the village of Bathelmont, but the heavy bombardment the village is still undergoing leaves it still evacuated. The military authorities were unwilling to allow any procession or gathering at the monument, so it was a small party, consisting of Leon Mirman, prefect of the department; William G. Sharp, the American ambassador; M. Lebrun, minister of blockades; Gen. Leroy Blinze, representing Gen. Pershing, and the mayor of Nancy, who inaugurated the shaft by placing flowers on it this morning.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE
If you haven't seen Jano Salisbury as "Sis Hopkins," the original role of Rose Melville, at the Lowell Opera House, you should avail yourself of the opportunities that remain. Miss Salisbury has been seen to particular advantage in powerful dramatic impersonations, but never before in anything just like this one. You will like her and the character. "Sis Hopkins" is a rural comedy drama of the house and the family, and is really a comedy for stock, and which has been contracted for by every high-class stock company in the country. It is a comedy about a country, untravelling good, particularly Julian Noel, Joseph Creighton, Miss Girard Huntington, Miss Cleaver and George Buchanan.

Next week the effort will be that big Boston and New York success, "Cheating Cheaters."

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

"Handkerchief, No. 15" is likewise a funny comedy, with unusual lines and situations. It is played by Fremont Benton & Co. Other acts on the bill are: Ed Norton, singer of modern songs; White's circus; Simmons & Duval in singing and chatter; and Raymond Wilbert, hoop roller. The Keith pictorial news is also shown at every performance.

THE STRAND

An entire change of program will be given the patrons of The Strand today, with William Farnum, America's most popular player, appearing in one of the latest Fox releases, a picture of Zane Grey's famous novel, "Riders of the Purple Sage," a great American drama of the man who was not afraid. Virginia Pearson in "Queen of Hearts" baffles, mysterious detective romance, will be the other big film feature. Besides these there will be a new Mutual screen telegram and one of those amusing Mutt and Jeff Christie comedies. Octavia, the double-voiced wonder, will be heard in a new repertoire of songs and Raymond Wilbert, hoop roller. The Keith pictorial news is also shown at every performance.

Readers of the popular Zane Grey novels are divided in their verdict as to which is his greatest, but undoubtedly the first to catch the general public and the longest to retain its vogue is "Riders of the Purple Sage," a great American drama of the man who was not afraid. is presented in the most tremendous drama of sudden death, deep mystery and clever discovery ever shown on the screen—the greatest detective story of a generation! Around a simple, clearly defined plot has been woven a perplexing web of baffling clues and enticing problems that keep the spectator interested and guessing until the final unexpected solution and happy conclusion. See the whole bill and be pleased.

LICENSE COMMISSION

The license commission held its regular meeting last evening and transacted routine business. A finding or not guilty was announced in the case of John J. Gilley, a liquor dealer at 123 Fayette street, who was charged with violating the seventh section of his license, it being claimed that on a recent holiday one of the employees of Mr. Gilley called at the saloon with a couple of friends and that one of the friends helped himself to a couple of glasses of beer. Gilley was represented by Hon. James E. O'Donnell.

Ten fitney drivers between Lowell and Lawrence were to be given a hearing by the commission last evening on charges of overloading their machines, but owing to the fact that one of the drivers was not present, the matter was continued for a week. These fitney drivers were before the commission a short time ago to answer similar charges and after a hearing was held they were found guilty and ordered to suspend business for three days.

News From Camp Devens

GREAT ATHLETIC MEET AT AYER CANTONMENT—SOLDIER VOTING SYSTEM NOT SUCCESSFUL

CAMP DEVENS, Nov. 1.—Five minutes after the last event in the division field meet had been run off yesterday afternoon Maj. Gen. McCain leaned over the railing of the stand from which he and a gathering of distinguished visitors had watched the sports, and presented two huge silver cups to officers of the 212th Engineers and the 74th Infantry, the winners of the meet. As each cup was accepted two military bands crashed triumphantly into music, several thousand campaign hats went high in the air and a yell that sent cold shivers running up and down the spine went up.

It was a yell the American doughboy knows well—the yell of victory.

Yesterday's meet was the biggest single event of its kind that has ever been staged at this camp. The meet lasted all day and included not only regular athletic events, but special military contests. Standing on all sides of a rectangle a quarter of a mile long by 200 yards wide, fully 25,000 soldiers and several thousand visitors watched the events, and never at any intercollegiate meet ever held was greater spirit displayed.

On the special stand erected for Gen. McCain, his staff officers and their wives, the enthusiasm was almost as great as it was among the soldiers themselves. It was a chilly day, but the General, Mrs. McCain and their daughter, Mrs. Emory Smith, sat there all afternoon watching the meet. With them sat Brig. Gen. and Mrs. E. C. Ladd of Boston, their daughter, Mrs. MacMillan, and just before 3 o'clock Rear Admiral Spencer S. Wood arrived with

Scored 42 Points

For the entire meet the 212th Engineers were the victors, scoring 42 points. But there was a side contest on between the four Infantry regiments in the division, and this was won by the 74th Infantry with 22 points in the contest between the Infantry regiments the 35th Infantry and the 73rd Infantry were tied for second place with 24 points each and the 42nd Infantry was third, with 22 points.

The standing for the entire meet was as follows: 212th Engineers, first, 42 points; 74th Infantry, second, 27 points; 56th Infantry, third, 14 points; 42nd Infantry, fourth, 12 points; Trains, fifth, 10 points; 73rd Infantry, sixth, 9 points; Machine Gun Battalions, seventh, 5 points; Field Signal Battalion, eighth, 5 points.

Brig. Gen. J. E. Woodward, commander of the 24th Infantry Brigade was in charge of the meet and he had as assistants Lieut. Col. S. G. Talbot, 73d Infantry, and Major Boye, of the 12th Headquarters Trains and Military Police. Lieut. A. W. Marsh, 42d Infantry, was adjutant, and Maj. A. B. Hitchcock of the 73d Infantry was the senior judge.

Every regimental band in the division was out and music was in the air continuously. As Gen. McCain left the field he expressed his pleasure at the showing made by the men:

"It would take a huskier outfit than can be found in these parts to lick the winners of yesterday's events. For the winners in a contest in the best division ever formed are quite some able people. That, in effect, is what the general said.

There were many soldiers out of camp, too. Late Tuesday night orders were received from Washington to permit all soldiers who had not had a chance to do so to go home and vote providing they could manage it in 24 hours.

Only genuine DeMiracle has a money-back guarantee in each package. At toilet counters in 60c, $1 and $2 sizes, or by mail from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price. FREE book mailed in plain sealed envelope on request. DeMiracle, 123th St. and Park Ave., New York.

hours. There was not time to get out an official order on the subject, so the word was hastily sent around to all adjutants. The result was that thousands of soldiers went away on passes very suddenly. They were all back last night.

Massachusetts officers here were surprised at the order and it is taken to mean that the system for soldier voting in this state is a complete failure. Official word from Washington regarding the outcome of the Liberty loan in the camps of the country was also received yesterday by Maj. Barratt O'Hara, assistant camp judge advocate, who put Camp Devens over the top in the Liberty loan and gave her the greatest per capita subscription of any camp in the country. The soldiers of America subscribed for $76,013,200 worth of Liberty bonds. Of this $2,400,500 was subscribed by the soldiers of the American Expeditionary Forces in France and $253,100 by the American Expeditionary Force in Siberia. The remainder was given in this country. The order of the first six camps in the country is as follows:

Camp Lee, $1,614,950; Camp Devens, $1,457,350; Camp Hancock, Georgia, $1,101,300; Camp Grant, Illinois, $962,000; Camp Custer, $923,500; Camp Humphreys, $817,150.

Lieut. R. R. Greininger, chemical warfare service, assistant to Capt. Lyon, division gas officer, yesterday was made a first lieutenant.

Morale Is Winning the War!

AN American is capturing a Hun—not because he is any heavier or stronger or older or bigger, but just because he has the fighting spirit which his enemy is losing.

That's morale.

"Where are those Germans? Let's get at 'em!" yelled an American before Chateau-Thierry. He was going under fire for the first time. He was wild to get there!

"We are constantly on the alert and are afraid the Americans are going to attack," wrote a German to his wife. He was captured before he could mail the letter.

"The men are so embittered," wrote another Hun, "that they have no interest in anything, and they only want the war to end, no matter how. We are only slaves of the Government." Now he is a prisoner, too.

Every despatch from France brings new proof of American fighting spirit—stories of individual valor. Morale makes Americans glad to fight for freedom. The lack of it makes Germans hate to fight for Prussia.

Our soldier knows he is a free-born fighter. He is no slave of any Government. He is part of a nation waging war. He wants to fight. He needn't be driven into battle. He yells: "Let's go!"

That's morale! Let's let them keep it! Let's keep them keen and fit and confident!

General Pershing finds that 900 men who have a hut to spend their evenings in are more effective than 1000

men without it. Napoleon called morale three times as important as other factors in war.

The strain comes with the first swift change from civil to military life, when these organizations give your man a place to meet his family, books to read and study, the hospitality of American homes, when whole cities are readjusted to the new conditions created by having a cantonment nearby.

It comes later, too, when a man has been off in some lonely camp for weeks, when the war itself seems miles away, when letters are irregular and home seems somewhere in another world, when a man has lived out in a gun-pit or a dug-out, has slept in filthy straw, when the bodies of his friends lie just beyond him, out in No Man's Land.

That's when the men and women of your organizations overseas can show our fighters that they aren't forgotten, that home is following them up to the guns. Sports, entertainment, education, religion, warmth, and cheer and friendship—these are the forces that are working to keep morale up to a victory pitch.

On you, this week, depends this question of morale. These are the seven recognized activities through which the Government enables you to stand behind your fighters. Their value depends on just how much you, as an individual, will give to help them hasten victory. Give as you never gave before! Give for morale!

Why you should give twice as much as you ever gave before!

The need is for a sum 70% greater than any gift ever asked for since the world began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000.

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their:

3,600 Recreation Buildings	2,500 Libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
1,000 Miles of Movie Film	85 Hostess Houses
100 Leading Stage Stars	15,000 Big-brother "Secretaries"
2,000 Athletic Directors	Millions of dollars of home comforts

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comforts of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theatre, a cheerful home, a store, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul!

You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs. Now give to maintain the Morale that is winning the war!

The Observant Lady

If one had time to ferret out the large number of cases where men and women, especially in these days, are striving to make this world a more cheerful and pleasant place to live in, they would need a long sheet of paper to jot them all down. A certain business man in our city is in charge of a lot of girl clerks, which has been commented recently with the arrival of young women from out of town, to such an extent that one might suppose that whatever interest he might have previously taken in regard to those under him, would diminish to practically a state of indifference. However, this is not the case, for he evidently is not the man who talks at big things. Every now and then his wife sends an invitation to a girl working in this office, to come and enjoy a home cooked supper and spend a pleasant evening with her. The next week some other girl will receive a similar invitation, and so on, and for these strangers in the city it is a rare treat. It is not at all unlikely that the man submitted the plan first to his wife, and that she entered into it with hearty good-will. I have seen those same clerks willingly respond to requests to work overtime in busy periods and so this spirit prevails and grows from day to day.

To Celebrate End of War

That the Worcester people are optimistic is shown by the fact that in The Evening Gazette is published the information that the Worcester fire alarm will whistle and ring the news of the German surrender, no matter what hour the glad tidings shall arrive. The word may come at noon or at 3 o'clock in the morning, but no matter when, Worcester folk will know about it. They will have the chance to celebrate a victory, the like of which history has never known. Churches, factories, locomotive engineers, and everyone else having control of a bell or a whistle will be asked to join in the joyous sound when they hear the signal. I don't think we people in Lowell had looked ahead to such an extent as being in readiness for Fourth of July noises; nevertheless, it tends to wake within us, joyous anticipations.

War Work Campaign

The celebration on Saturday, of the war work campaign of the Army and Navy day leaders who have planned a long parade with many interesting features, will certainly be a great success if the enthusiasm and interest displayed by those who are in charge of the day's events are to be considered as favorable indications. The Lowell women participating in the affair have every reason to feel proud of their boys in service. I am sure that we shall all be filled with renewed courage to stand behind our men "over there," to speed the war to a victorious end, when we witness this gathering of people, who, by setting apart this day for illustrating their purpose of seeing the horrible skirmish through to a final day of reckoning, will manifest to the people that they want to help in this drive, so that when the Lowell fire bells and factory whistles sound forth the glad tidings, every man and woman will feel that he or she has done at least a small part in bringing this thing to pass.

War Service Sing

"The Long Long Trail," "K-k-katy," "Come on America," or any of the war songs now receiving such popularity, were never rendered better in any gathering than they were last Saturday at the opening night of the industrial war service centre. During the half hour "sing" it was apparent that there were some very clear, sweet voices in this girl's chorus and one can easily predict that concerts and entertainments at the club house in the tunnels building, this winter will be well supported by music lovers.

Red Cross Rooms

The women of the local Red Cross chapter have put forth another effort in making arrangements to have the rooms open Saturday nights and Sunday mornings, this step being taken so as to enable employed women and girls to call here and leave the Christmas packages which are to be sent across the water to the soldiers. There are letters urging that sweaters and still more sweaters be made by the people connected with this chapter and the yarn is on hand ready for volunteer workers.

CHELMSFORD RED CROSS

Mrs. M. W. Boulter, secretary of the Chelmsford Red Cross unit has made her report on the work of the organization for the months of August, September and October, which follows: Fifty-six pairs of boys' and men's flannellette drawers, 28 sets boys' wash suits, 15 pillows, 20 bayettes, 30 kil bags, 22 pajama suits, 235 pairs knitted socks, 107 army sweaters, 22 navy sweaters, two afghans and 70 property bags. There has been an average of 36 members at these meetings and in addition a large amount of the work has been done in the homes of the members.

Health authorities in the present epidemic are urging everybody to do two things—gargle throat twice a day, and wash hands frequently, especially before eating.

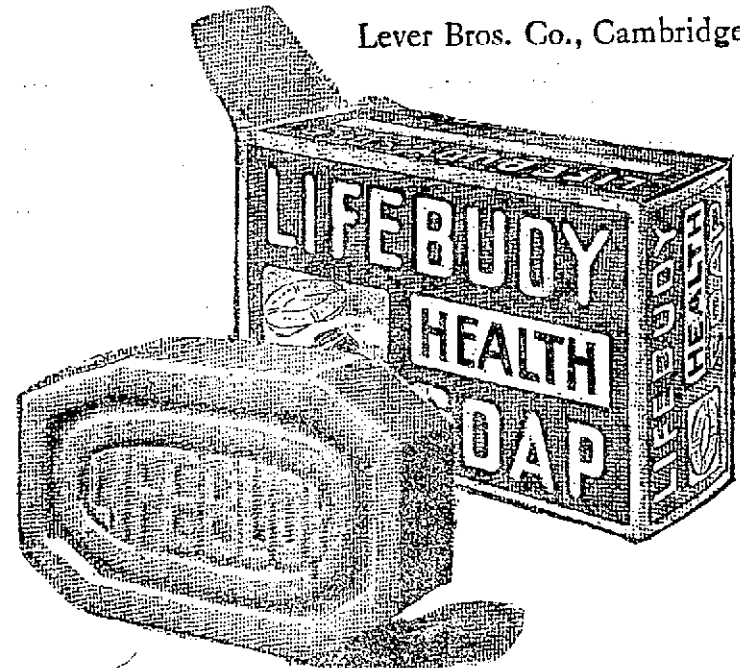

They say that the disease is spread by the breath and secretions of the body, especially of the nose and throat. Hands are constantly exposed, and it is surprising how often they are put up to the mouth and other parts of the face. For this reason:—

Before you eat,
After the day's work,
Whenever you come in from the street,
Wash with Lifebuoy—the
Health Soap

When you wash with Lifebuoy Health Soap, its rich, creamy lather cleanses the skin thoroughly. At the same time, the healthful antiseptic which it contains is carried right into the pores of the skin, leaving it refreshed, antiseptically clean.

Get a cake of Lifebuoy at any grocery, drug or department store.

WAR WORK CAMPAIGN PROCLAMATION

(Special to The Sun.)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, November 7.—A proclamation urging the people of Massachusetts to devote every energy next week to the collection of funds for the united war work campaign was issued last night by Governor McCall. The governor said:

"In order that the attention of our people may at this time be more particularly directed to the needs of our men in the service, I hereby set aside the week beginning November 10th as a week to be devoted to the collection of funds for the work of the various organizations authorized by the war department to care for our soldiers and sailors.

"The united war work campaign is one of the most important activities that we now have before us. The war clouds are breaking and the welcomed rays of peace are likely soon to be shining upon us. The needs of the soldiers and sailors will continue to be great, however, for some time after hostilities shall have ceased. We must not slacken our efforts in their behalf now that victory, which they have contributed so mightily to win, at last smiles upon us.

"The government does not provide many comforts for our men in the service, and only through these organizations can such things be secured for them.

"I earnestly urge upon all our citizens during this week to apply their energies to the collection of funds for what is now a thank offering, and upon all a prompt and generous response to the request, to the end that the amounts sought for may be speedily obtained and thus assure the comfort of our brave men upon the battle line, wherever they may be."

One of Our 22 Packing Plants in U.S.A.

Unlike Topsy— Swift & Company Has Not "Jest Grown"

Swift & Company, in fifty years of well ordered growth, has become one of the great national services because it has learned to do something for the American people which they needed to have done for them, in the way in which they preferred to have it done.

It has met each successive demand, in the changing conditions of national life, by getting good meat to increasing millions effectively, efficiently, economically, and expeditiously.

The Swift & Company packing plants, refrigerator cars, car routes, branch houses, organization, and personnel of today are the practical solutions, born of practical experience, to the food problems of a half a century.

Because of all of these elements working in correlation and unison, Swift & Company is able to supply more and better meat to more people than would have been possible otherwise, at a net profit per pound of meat so low (a fraction of a cent) that the consumer price is practically unaffected.

Strip away any portion of this vast, smooth-running human machine, and you make a large part of the meat supply uncertain, lose the benefit of half a century of fruitful experience, and scatter the intelligent energies of men who have devoted a life work toward meeting the needs of a nation in one vital field.

The booklet of preceding chapters in this story of the packing industry will be mailed on request to

LOWELL MAN OF 93 WAS TOO MUCH FOR THUGS

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—David Movitz is 93 years young, not to give battle to two thugs, save most of his $400 roll and turn one of his assistants, Joseph Keller of Brooklyn, over to the police. Although he was tired by a long walk through Boston streets, lured into a "doctor's" office, stripped of his clothing and put to bed, Movitz kept a sharp eye out for his money, and in the "show-down" was too much of a match for the men who tried to rob him.

Lured Into City

The old man, who came to this country 40 years ago after serving many years in the Russian army, now lives at 100 Harvard street, Lowell. He conducts a lodging house, and Keller once was one of his roomers. He hurried to Boston yesterday, arriving at North station about 1 o'clock, when told that his son, whom he had not seen in a long time, was seriously ill in a local hospital. Keller broke the sad news to him and was at the station to meet him.

Then Keller piloted the old man through many streets until they arrived at Harrison avenue near Massachusetts avenue. There the march stopped when a man, stepping out of a building, was greeted by Keller.

Bad, Says Doctor, Bad

"Hello, doctor," exclaimed Keller, addressing the newcomer. "This is Mr. Movitz, who has come to visit his son." "I'm sorry," replied the supposed doctor. "His condition—not very good—really bad. Can't be seen until 3 o'clock."

The "doctor" sympathized with the old man, remarked that Movitz looked tired, exhausted and in urgent need of rest. He would call a taxi, conduct the worried father to his office and let him rest there until the hour would arrive when he might see his son. Movitz agreed he was fatigued and in an automobile went with Keller and the "doctor" to a room at 116 Huntington avenue, which the police say was rented by the supposed medical man only a few hours before. Movitz was prevailed upon to submit to an examination. His clothes were taken off and he was directed to a cot.

Leaps for the Bag

Doctor Praises Eczema Remedy

The cure of skin diseases (eczema) and diseases of the scalp is known to be difficult even with the best efforts of intelligent and discriminating physicians. However, there is one remedy that is entirely dependable in this distressing and troublesome disease, that is D.D.D. Prescription, manufactured by the D. D. D. Company of Chicago, Ill. I take such pleasure in recommending it to the entire confidence of all sufferers with any form of skin disease, as a medicine they can rely upon with perfect confidence.

M. L. RANDOLPH, M.D., Gachurst, Texas.

Dec. 11, 1917. Come in and we will tell you something about what D.D.D. Prescription has accomplished in your own neighborhood. Your money back unless the first bottle relieves you. 35c, 60c and $1.00.

DOWS, THE DRUGGIST

around his neck next to his skin, and in this bag was $400. That was placed on a table near the cot on which Movitz was resting. He kept it in sight always, was a bit suspicious when the "doctor" tried several times to cover his head with the bed coverings, and was ready to jump when he saw Keller take the bag.

The struggle which followed roused occupants of neighboring rooms. These were assured by Keller and the "doctor" that "the old man is insane; we're trying to calm him."

The proprietor of the building, however, sensed something wrong and telephoned to the police. The fight continued and increased in fury. The money fell out and the "doctor" snatched it up and escaped.

$400 Left Behind

But Keller could not get away. Movitz held him in a grip of iron, and even though Keller bit a chunk of flesh out of the old man's wrist, he could not break the hold before Sergeant Murphy of the Black Bay police station came and arrested him.

The old man's victory was made more complete before he left the room by finding $400 of his money still secure in the little bag, which the "doctor" had left behind.

Penitentiary for John Thibault

John Thibault of Salem, the young man, who was arrested in this city a few weeks ago on a charge of larceny and impersonating an army officer, was arraigned before the federal court in Boston yesterday and after being found guilty of obtaining money under false pretenses from relatives of soldiers and impersonating an army officer, was sentenced to the penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for a term of six years.

BOOTLEGGERS ARRESTED

Antonis Konstantas of Nashua, N. H., was arrested by Officers Conney and O'Neil of the vice squad last evening on a charge of bootlegging. It is claimed that Antonis, who was driving an automobile, gave five half-pints of whiskey to soldiers and that 11 empty beer bottles were found in his car. Thomas McGrath of Boston was also arrested on a charge of furnishing a half-pint of liquor to a soldier. Both men were taken to Ayer today.

COMMUNITY SING

The park commission will conduct a "Thanksgiving" community sing at the state armory in Westford street, on Sunday evening, Nov. 17. If the plans discussed at the regular meeting of the body last night are brought to completion.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Drusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 14 E. Marcellus avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

ONE REASON

People never shopped earlier for Christmas than after Thanksgiving. This practically forced everybody to do all their holiday buying in one month. All is changed this year. Holiday stocks are ready now. They are at their best in size, in variety, in values. When the stores are crowded and thousands see these attractive displays of gift things they are going to buy and buy early and save money and get what they want and have it on time. Are you going to wait until stocks are possibly depleted or replenished with merchandise at higher prices?

TO WIPE OUT ALL ENEMY OWNERSHIP HERE

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Asserting that if perpetual peace is to follow this war, "Germany must be made to understand that her plan has failed in the industrial field as well as in the military," A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian, called on the bankers of America, in an address at the Metropolitan club here yesterday, to aid him in "Americanizing the great German-controlled industries in this country until every iota of enemy ownership has been wiped out."

Mr. Palmer declared that he was now holding about $500,000,000 worth of enemy property that he expected soon to have more than $1,000,000,000, and that he hoped to be empowered to claim of American citizens against the German government, due to its illegal use of this money "to pay the just war."

Stating that, "in the next few weeks will sell approximately $200,000,000 worth of enemy-owned concerns in this country at public auction," Mr. Palmer appealed to bankers to help him "crush the strangle-hold which Germany, through its bankers and agents, has had upon most of the essential industries of this country."

Mr. Palmer described the German bank as "a spider's web that spreads over the financial world" and declared that German bankers, in this country alone, had aided in building up industry for industry, "totalling possibly $2,000,000,000 in money value and billions more in potential political value."

"Without attempting to prophesy what may be done with the proceeds, for this must remain to be settled by the treaty of peace, it is safe to say that the business which the Germans built up in America will be lost to them forever," said Mr. Palmer.

Foch Is Ready

plea of the German government for an armistice looking toward peace may be granted.

Unofficial despatches said the German delegates reached the western front and crossed into the allied lines last night and were to be received by Marshal Foch at daylight this morning.

Purely Military Issue

Upon receiving the armistice terms formulated by the supreme council of the allied and United States governments, it is believed by officials here that the German emissaries will transmit the conditions immediately by telegraph or present them in person to the German high command in the field. This belief is predicated on the assumption that as in the case of Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria the armistice question will be dealt with as a purely military issue.

Decision in Few Days

The decision of the German general staff as to acceptance or rejection of the terms is not expected for several days by diplomatic observers here. Because of the nature of the terms—considered as not less drastic than those laid down for Austria—it is thought that some time may be required by the German military heads for discussion before a decision is reached.

Berlin Is Deceived

BASEL, Sunday, Nov. 7.—An official statement from Berlin, in announcing that the terms of the armistice for Germany had not arrived at Berlin up to yesterday, says:

"Whatever it may be, the message is awaited in Germany with a calmness in conformity with our dignity. Truly there exists the right to ask how the delaying tactics of our adversaries can be reconciled with the speeches of the content's leaders, who recently reiterated that it would be a crime to prolong the bloodshed one hour longer than was absolutely indispensable."

Fighting Over In Few Days

LONDON, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—Reports that German delegates have started from Berlin to meet Marshal Foch are considered here as an assurance that fighting will be over in a few days. This causes satisfaction everywhere, but there is no celebrating here and London is as quiet and dark as it has been at any time during the past four years.

Wilson's Note Reaches Berlin

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.—(By A. P.) President Wilson's note to the German government reached Berlin yesterday. Official announcement of this was made at the German capital.

To Accept Foch's Terms

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—The Montreal Star, last evening published the following dispatch from London: "Semi-official reports declare that Germany has decided to accept Foch's terms."

Demand End of War

AMSTERDAM, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—German socialists have notified the government through Friedrich Ebert, the vice president of their party and president of the main committee of the reichstag, that their representatives will resign their ministerial posts if the war is not brought to an immediate end.

Foch to Receive Envoys

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Daily Express says it understands that Marshal Foch may receive the German armistice delegates this morning.

British Naval Representative

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The British naval representative at the armistice negotiations is Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, first sea lord of the admiralty, it is officially announced.

SELECTING PLACE FOR

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Diplomats here are interested in the choice of location for the peace negotiations. Some think the Carnegie peace palace at The Hague should be chosen for sentimental reasons. They point out that The Hague is convenient for the British, Belgians and Germans and can be easily reached by land from Paris. Captain Gillette of the American legation at The Hague came through by land last week, and had a safe and easy journey.

Other statesmen prefer a place in French or Italian Switzerland, such as Lausanne, Geneva or Lucerne. They are easy of access from France, Italy, Austria or Germany. Still others propose Brussels as being gratifying to the Belgians, who have suffered so greatly. The Temps thinks that Rheims would be suitable, were it not too much to ask elderly ministers to camp in Y.M.C.A. huts. It suggests Versailles, as, above all, best associated with history of France, the place where was signed the treaty that ended the war of the American revolution, and which was really the cradle of the German empire.

No matter where the conference is held, the American signal corps will, according to present plans, string wires to good cable points so that Washington may be in easy and rapid communication with the meeting.

A strike of dockworkers at Hamburg, involving 10,000 men, is reported by the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Amsterdam.

Deserters in Berlin Riots

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 7.—Continuous demonstrations are taking place in Berlin, according to the Social Demokraten. Twenty thousand deserters from the army are marching through the streets of the capital.

Kiel Governed By Soldiers

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The entire German navy and a great part of Schleswig is in the hands of the revolutionists, according to reports received in Copenhagen from Kiel and transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph Co.

Kiel is governed by the mariners, soldiers and workers council. All the workshops have been occupied by Red troops. The street car lines and railways are under the control of the workers' council. There have been no disturbances.

After a conference between Secretary of State Hausmann and Deputy Noske and the workers and soldiers' council, the following proclamation was issued:

"Comrades: For the first time political power is in the hands of the soldiers. Great work lies before us. But in order that its realization can take place the organization of our government was necessary. We have formed a council of workers and soldiers and it will be responsible for the preservation of order."

Mutiny In Kiel

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Members of the crew of the battleship Kaiser at Kiel have mutinied and hoisted the red flag. Officers attempting to defend the German flag were overpowered and two of them, including the commander, were killed. A number of others were wounded, according to the Cologne Gazette.

Three companies of infantry were sent immediately to Kiel to restore order. They immediately joined the revolution and a fourth company was dispatched. During last night, Russians sent to Kiel from Wandenberg were countered outside of Kiel by sailors armed with machine guns and forced to turn back.

Two Battleships Seized

The soldiers' council has decided that all officers must remain at their present posts, but must obey the council, which controls all food supplies. Machine guns are mounted in various parts of the city. Cuxhaven and Wilhelmshaven are quiet.

An Amsterdam despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. says that two battleships, the Kaiser and the Schleswig-Holstein, were seized by the mutineers and that 20 officers, including two captains were killed.

It is reported that the garrison at Kiel refused to march to the harbor and that the sailors threatened to blow up the battleships if attacked. They are defending the ships and refused to return to their duties until a treaty of peace is signed. Admiral Soultou, governor of the port, having asked the mutineers what they wanted, has approved all their demands, including even their refusal to salute officers, it is said.

AMSTERDAM, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—German newspapers announce that State Secretary Hausmann and Gustav Noske, socialist member of the reichstag, have been sent to Kiel by the government. Hugo Haase, leader of the socialist minority in the reichstag, and Georg Ledebour, leader of the social democratic party, are also there to complete the formation of a local committee.

Demands Granted

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The military governor of Kiel, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Copenhagen has accepted the following demands of the workers and soldiers' council:

The release of all military and political prisoners. Complete freedom of speaking and writing. Released prisoners must not be punished.

Officers who acknowledge and comply with the measures of the council shall be permitted to remain or to leave the service.

Work Stops at Hamburg

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Wolff bureau of Berlin announces that all work has stopped at Hamburg owing to a strike and that undisciplined acts and outrages have taken place. The news agency reports similar occurrences from Lubeck.

Deserters Rush to Kiel

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A number of German garrisons on the south Baltic coast have deserted and are going to Kiel, says a Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. The red flag has been hoisted at Warnemunde, a seaport of northern Germany and the port of Rostock-on-the-Baltic sea.

The German authorities have decided to suppress the revolution, according to a despatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Co. Several thousand soldiers from Wehmar Island have been ordered to Kiel. The workers' and soldiers' council, these advances state has decided to make a stubborn resistance.

RULES ON SENDING GIFTS OVERSEAS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Parcel post packages of Christmas gifts for American soldiers and members of the Red Cross and other civilian organizations serving with the British, French or other armies in the field against Germany, will be accepted by postmasters for shipment overseas up to Nov. 10 and the senders will not be required to furnish a war trade export license for their mailing. Postmaster General Burleson today announced this ruling which does not affect the special regulations made for Christmas shipments to the American Expeditionary Force.

MOUSTAFA CAUSES RIOT

Dracut Officer Saves Alleged Disloyalist From Workers at Beaver Brook Mills

What looked like the beginning of a serious riot was averted yesterday afternoon at the Beaver Brook mills in Colchester by Officer William Cullinan.

of the Dracut constabulary, when he placed under arrest a man who gave his name as Mohamed Moustafa. It is alleged Moustafa had uttered very unpatriotic remarks. The prisoner was taken to the local police station and this morning he was taken to Boston by Officer Cullinan and turned over to Judge Dewey, special United States attorney in Boston.

Moustafa was employed in one of the departments of the Beaver Brook mills and late yesterday afternoon while at his work, it is claimed he made remarks about the United States government and the American army, that were not of a very pleasing nature, particularly to a few of the patriotic residents of the town, who were present. It is also claimed that Moustafa was very abusive in his language in relation to some women workmen. Officer Cullinan, who is employed as an overseer in the mill, was quickly notified and when he arrived in the department where Moustafa is employed, Moustafa was being roughly handled by the men folks. The officer took Moustafa into custody and brought him to the police station, where he gave his age as 45 years and stated he was married. He was booked for obstructing enlistment and recruiting.

WAS A MERE SKELETON FROM LUNG TROUBLE

Gained 28½ Pounds in 28 Days, and Completely Recovered Health.

"When my health failed a few months ago, several physicians told me I had consumption and refused to take my case. That I might last longer in a higher climate but that it was only a question of time with me. I was soon reduced to a mere skeleton, weighing only 90 pounds, and was hardly able to walk."

"Finally a friend told me that Mike Emulsion had cured him and persuaded me to try it. By the time I had used two bottles, I noticed a decided improvement. I began to grow stronger. In 28 days I had gained 28½ pounds. I have now taken 22 bottles and am happier than words can tell to think I have regained my health. I weigh more, am stronger and in better health than I have been in the past 10 years. Mike Emulsion saved my life."—Chas. W. Byers, 201½ Chestnut St., Terre Haute, Ind.

When success has been achieved in hundreds of cases just as hopeless as this, it seems unwise for any victim to deny himself a trial of Mike Emulsion. It can do no harm in any case. And it costs nothing to try.

Mike Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritious food and a powerful medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physic. It promotes appetite and promptly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Mike Emulsion is strongly recommended to all who are suffering from chronic stomach trouble and indigestion. It works like magic on coughs and colds.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Mike Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you. Use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Mike Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Fred Howard.

arsenal had not arrived. It is possible that he may arrive later in the day, and in this case he may be found at the local United States employment bureau, 119 Merrimack street by anyone desiring information on this matter.

Capt. Thompson, to quote from a recent statement given out by him in this connection, states that while appearances point to an early ending of the war, the government is not letting up at all. Increased production is the appeal from Washington and at every arsenal and munition plant the work is being speeded up.

He stated that in the estimation of military men the production of guns and ammunition will not stop with the ending of the war. "Considerable ordnance will have to be replaced," he said, "and it is probable that there will be abnormal production at the government arsenals for several years to come."

At the Watertown arsenal he said there is need for upwards of 1500 tool-makers, machinists and machine operators. To fill the vacancies he stated in an appeal to better made to men there are many in this vicinity. Good wages and excellent shop and living conditions await those fitted for the positions.

MRS. SPERO IS SET FREE

Law Says Local Woman Was

Not Criminally Responsible for John Lynch's Death

Katherine Spero, who was charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of John Lynch of Nashua, was arraigned in police court this morning and after the finding of Judge Pickman, who presided over the inquest, was read, Judge Enright ordered the case dismissed.

According to the evidence presented at the inquest, Mrs. Spero was operating her automobile through Middlesex street on the evening of Oct. 10. When a spot was reached near the corner of South street, Lynch, who was standing on the sidewalk, jumped right into the path of the machine and was struck by the midwheel. He was removed to St. John's hospital, where he died the following day from cerebral hemorrhage. It was claimed that when the accident happened Lynch was under the influence of liquor and that he made a statement exonerating Mrs. Spero from all blame.

Judge Pickman in his finding states that he finds that the death of Lynch was not due to any criminal negligence on the part of the operator of the car. Mrs. Spero, nor to any criminal negligence on the part of any other person or persons.

OF FIUME

ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS IN VENETIA, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—(By The Associated Press.) The Hungarian port of Fiume, southeast of Trieste, has been taken over by the Italians and Admiral Cagni has been named governor. The occupation of Fiume was military to the Italian entrance into Trieste. A citizens' committee was formed at Fiume on October 25. The committee signed a declaration of rights and declared themselves free from Hungary, expressing a desire to be united with Italy.

CONTROL OF SENATE IS STILL IN DOUBT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Control of the United States senate continued to remain in doubt early today on the face of returns from three states where contests between the democratic and republican candidates continued close as the count progressed. The republicans further increased their majority in the house of representatives when two of the three seats from South Dakota were conceded to them. Three seats, one each in South Dakota, New Mexico and Montana, still remain in doubt.

The standing of the two parties in the next house without the three missing districts is: Republicans 236 and democrats 195. In the senate without the three doubtful seats there are 47 republicans and 46 democrats.

Newberry Leads Ford
Of the senate races yet to be decided Truman H. Newberry, republican, appeared to be maintaining his lead over Henry Ford, the democratic candidate in Michigan. With 272 precincts to hear from, Newberry was leading his opponent by 4992 votes. The Michigan state republican committee claimed Newberry's election, declaring that the remaining districts were normally republican.

Supporters of Senator Fall of New Mexico continued to claim his election on the basis of scattering returns. As these reports came from unofficial sources, the contest continued to be placed in the doubtful class.

In Idaho, Frank H. Gooding was making deep inroads into the majority credited to Senator John F. Nugent, democrat. Early today, Nugent's lead was only 114 with 55,000 of the state's estimated vote of 95,000 counted.

CLAIMS ELECTION OF
REPUBLICANS IN N. M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 7.—Chairman Craig of the republican state committee today claimed the election of Albert B. Fall, republican, to the senate by a majority of 2500 over W. B. Walton, democrat, and the election of B. C. Hernandez, republican, to congress, over G. A. Richardson, democrat, by a majority of 1000.

SEN. NUGENT'S LEAD
CUT DOWN TO 446

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 7.—Late returns reduced the lead of Senator John F. Nugent, democrat, over Frank R. Gooding for the short term in the United States senate. With 55,000 votes counted Nugent now leads by only 114. The state's vote is estimated at 95,000.

JUNEAU, Alaska, Nov. 7.—Based on scattering returns, another close contest in the matter of delegate to congress from Alaska, may be the result of Tuesday's voting. James Wickersham, republican, is believed to be slightly in the lead.

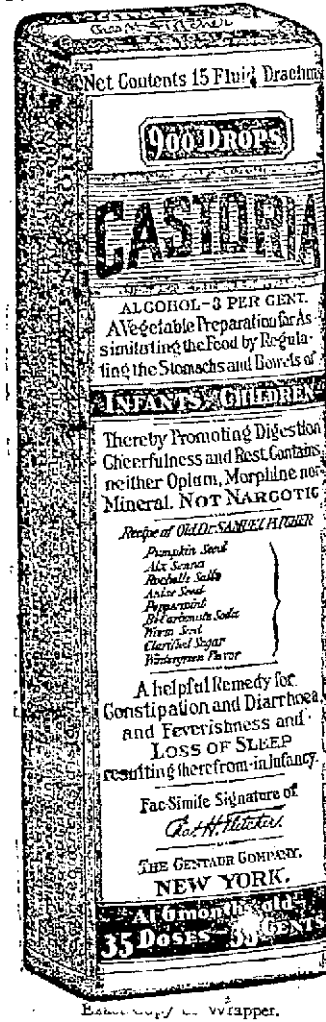

A severe storm and rapid spread of the influenza epidemic caused the smallest vote ever cast.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and A FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. Dr. Agnes V. Swetland, of Omaha, Neb., says: "Your Castoria is the best remedy in the world for children and the only one I use and recommend."

Dr. J. A. McClellan, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I have frequently prescribed your Castoria for children and always got good results. In fact I use Castoria for my own children."

Dr. J. W. Allen, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I heartily endorse your Castoria. I have frequently prescribed it in my medical practice, and have always found it to do all that is claimed for it."

Dr. C. H. Glidden, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "My experience as a practitioner with your Castoria has been highly satisfactory, and I consider it an excellent remedy for the young."

Dr. H. D. Benner, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria as a purgative in the cases of children for years past with the most happy effect, and fully endorse it as a safe remedy."

Dr. J. A. Boardman, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children."

Dr. J. J. Mackey, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I consider your Castoria an excellent preparation for children, being composed of reliable medicines and pleasant to the taste. A good remedy for all disturbances of the digestive organs."

SUFFRAGISTS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Suffragists are now confident that there will be votes enough in the 46th congress to pass the Anthony amendment to the federal constitution enfranchising the women of the United States, according to a statement issued here today by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Women Suffrage association.

EDDIE FAY, NOTED CROOK, FOUND MURDERED

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Edward Joseph Fay, a world notorious crook and bank robber known as "Eddie" Fay, was found shot to death in an alley here yesterday. There was a bullet wound in his head just below the right ear. The police believe he was slain by a member of his own gang, following an argument over the division of loot.

Fay's career of crime extends all over America and parts of Europe. He became internationally known 15 years ago, when he was arrested in Paris with "Mickey" Gleason, also of Chicago, for robbery of a Paris bank.

They were sentenced to Devils Island, a French prison surrounded by cliffs, but Fay later escaped. He was the first criminal to make a successful break for freedom from that prison.

The police estimate that Fay has stolen more than $2,000,000 from banks throughout the country.

REFUSE TO CONCEDE
NEWBERRY'S ELECTION

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 7.—Although unofficial returns almost completely indicate that Lieut. Commander Truman H. Newberry, republican, defeated Henry Ford, democrat, for United States senator by 5000, democratic headquarters here this forenoon refused to concede Newberry's election.

"The official county will be necessary to determine the result," said Ray Canfield, secretary of the democratic state central committee, "and the situation now stands, I believe we will be justified in demanding a recount."

Republican headquarters insisted the final count would show Newberry's election by 10,000, and claimed to have figures complete with the exception of one county to show a lead of 4000 for him.

A tabulation by the Associated Press this forenoon of figures from 2100 of the 2282 precincts in the state gave Newberry a lead of 5339. The figures were Newberry 205,864; Ford 201,525.

The majority of Governor Sleeper and the remainder of the republican state ticket of the final count will be approximately 50,000, or one-half the normal republican majority in Michigan.

Suffrage will have an affirmative majority of 25,000.

Henry Ford himself has no intention of asking a recount of the votes cast for United States senator in Michigan Tuesday.

He authorized this announcement today: "We believe that the campaign has been clean—as far as campaign goes—and therefore are willing to abide by the return sheets." Mr. Ford's secretary announced in his behalf.

RED CROSS WILL MOVE

Cartridge Company Needs
Room—Trinitarian Church
Property Secured

After a year's stay at the Bigelow-Hartford plant, the North Middlesex Chapter of the American Red Cross in the course of a week's time will be located at new headquarters on Dutton street, in the First Trinitarian church, now unoccupied.

The present quarters, which have proven excellent for this organization, were made possible through the generosity and patriotism of the Bigelow-Carpet company, who placed this two-story well-renovated brick mill at the disposal of the chapter, rent free. Since the time when the government took over the plant, the Cartridge company has done everything possible to aid the Red Cross.

Government officials have lately been considering the feasibility of using the mill for welfare work or for some use in connection with the Cartridge shop. No definite steps were taken, however, until a few days ago, when Gen. Butler Ames, now treasurer of the Cartridge company, notified the Red Cross that owing to the enormous production which is being contemplated, the space will be needed by the company.

The next step taken by the Red Cross was to place its case before the committee in charge of the First Trinitarian church property. The committee met at the First Congregational church as trustees of that church and as present owners of the old Trinitarian church and voted unanimously to give the use of the Dutton street church property to the Red Cross as tenants at will and without rent. The ground floor will be occupied by the Red Cross, as well as a portion of the basement, and the arrangements are that the Red Cross will defray its own heating and lighting expenses.

By the valuable aid rendered the chapter, from the First Trinitarian church trustees, it is expected that by the end of next week the Red Cross will be completely settled in its new quarters.

Although the new rooms will not be as spacious and comfortable as those at the big mill, still it is hoped that they will meet the immediate and future needs of the Red Cross and unless there comes a far greater expansion of fabricating work, the new quarters will answer the purpose very well.

For the benefit of inquirers, desiring definite information as to the probable immediate activities of the Red Cross, it might be stated that there will not be so much of the surgical dressing work as heretofore, in fact it may soon be over altogether. There will be, however, a great expansion in the work of preparing and providing refugees garments as the Red Cross anticipates a tremendous task for the war broken people in the Balkans and in Siberia. This will require surely the space allowed by the church ground floor location. Just now the surgical dressing work is far from all done. Knitting of sweaters and socks will continue at a lively rate. A big order for socks being now in process of arrangement for this chapter.

The important feature just at the present time in connection with Red Cross activities deals with the matter of the Christmas box work for the soldiers overseas. Labels have been sent home by each soldier overseas to some person here and that person, by presenting the label at the Red Cross rooms in Market street (until the removal to Dutton street) can get the carton to be filled with Christmas gifts. When the carton is filled, bring it back to the Red Cross, where it will be inspected in accordance with the war department order, and will be mailed by the Red Cross. Lowell and each town has its duly appointed committee to handle the Christmas carton work.

Another important feature is the civilian relief, and as the well established war production lines of the Red Cross shift to meet the changing conditions of impending peace, this work is to go on without relaxation.

As the well established war production lines of the Red Cross shift to meet the changing conditions of impending peace, the work of the civilian relief and information committees will also shift but will hardly relax.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING WON, SAYS O'MALLEY

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—"Newspaper advertisements won the election," is the opinion of Charles J. O'Malley, president of the O'Malley Advertising and Selling company, who had considerable to do with the campaign just closed. "Heretofore," continued Mr. O'Malley, "the politicians believed that the spellbinder was invincible. The old-timer learned that people were moved more by the voice than the written word, but these are as obsolete as the old-fashioned fortress against modern artillery."

"The newspaper advertisement today is read almost as carefully as the news story, and certainly more critically than the editorials. Politicians are unable to gather crowds into poorly ventilated halls in the same number as they did, say 10 years ago. People read the views of these men through the paid medium of advertising columns, and have not the time nor inclination to attend rallies. This was evidenced in the last campaign."

"There have been few instances in state politics where there was so much money spent in legitimate advertising as in the campaign just ended. The newspaper columns throughout the state were utilized to their fullest capacity in telling the merits or demerits of candidates, amendments, etc. I fully believe approximately $500,000 was sent in the newspapers by all parties, and that, in most cases, meant cash with order. This latter plan was inaugurated recently by the newspaper management and it worked to the benefit of all concerned. Heretofore many newspapers and advertising agents were the innocent victims of political credit, and all were glad of the new plan to pay cash for such advertisements when ordered."

"I am fully convinced that in the future political campaigns the candidates for office will use more newspaper space than in the past, and it will certainly be more dignified, more enlightening, and will make for cleaner politics in the city, state and nation."

TO REDUCE WHEAT SUBSTITUTES JAN. 1

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Plans to diminish by January 1 the percentage of substitutes used in wheat bread in allied countries and the United States are being discussed by the inter-allied food council in London. The reduction if decided upon, a statement issued by the food administration last night said, will be a direct result of the Austrian armistice.

"The change in the war situation, however, does not alter the totals of food demands upon the United States," said the food administration, "but in fact will increase our load and therefore there will be increased demands for economy."

LIMIT PROFITS ON EGG PRICES

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The price-fixing division of the state food administration yesterday announced that retailers must not henceforth charge more than seven cents above the cost of their eggs. The cash-and-carry stores cannot charge more than six cents above the cost of their eggs. The seven-cent margin affects those stores that carry charge accounts. Within two weeks a maximum price that may be charged for cheese, butter and eggs will be quoted. This statement was made yesterday by Chief Everett of the price division of the food administration.

LIBERAL SUBSCRIPTIONS TO LIBERTY LOAN BY INDUSTRIES AND EMPLOYEES

The industries of Lowell and their employees subscribed $2,977,600, or nearly one-half of the city's total, in the recent Liberty loan campaign. According to complete figures which have just been compiled, 12 industries were "in on" the Fighting Fourth loan and 19,112 of their employees took part in the big drive.

The grand total for the entire city has now gone beyond the $5,200,000 mark and the total number of subscribers is more than $21,000.

GERMAN TROOPS RAZE CIVILIAN TOWNS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—German forces in their retreat from Belgium are bombarding defenceless towns, using especially gas shells, and devastating the countryside, according to an eyewitness account made public yesterday by the Belgian legation.

"The Belgian government has been informed," said the statement, "by a reliable eyewitness who follows closely the operations at the Belgian front that at the very moment that the German government has announced her protest against inhuman acts, and while Germany offers to stop aerial bombardment in the interest of the civil population of the occupied territory, the Germans have bombarded the villages and towns which they were obliged to abandon during their retreat. They have used especially gas shells for this purpose."

"Indescribably heartrending scenes have occurred, the unfortunate population having no gas masks or means of protection against these death spreading fumes. A Belgian soldier entering Wynghe, his home town, found his wife dying and his little daughter dead, victims of the poison gas, and his home a heap of ruins. The country all around Ghent, the rich and beautiful cultivated fields and pastures, the picturesque villages of Hunsbeke, Lathem, Nevele, Lathem, St. Martin, Tronchiennes, present a horrible sight of devastation and havoc. Not a church was spared from destruction."

"Among the civilian population hiding in the cellars there have been a great many deaths from gas. 27 in the village of Hunsbeke alone. A portion of the population who had fled from their homes during the fighting and bombardment found their return more ruin and debris. Trees had been cut down, houses ransacked, furniture smashed to pieces, fields devastated."

"From these facts one may appreciate how hypocritical are the humanitarian propositions and protestations of the German government."

The legation also made public a captured order of a Bavarian division commander as further evidence that the Germans are robbing and looting Belgium. The order says: "Regrettable as is the situation of the Belgian populace, the question of supplies for our troops, heavily engaged at the front, must remain for us of paramount importance. For this reason the last draft horse, the last vehicle must be requisitioned and used to the greatest advantage."

"Commanders of the various units and men must take into account that the attitude of the population toward us has been completely modified. Since the situation has been altered and must not expect to find in the Belgian the same docility that has characterized them through the past years of our warfare. They must be considered strictly as the population of an enemy state with which we are at war. Therefore it is particularly forbidden to assist the civilian population in any way. Military interests alone should be considered. The products of the country must be utilized solely in our own interest."

BRITISH CASUALTIES IN PAST WEEK 27,648

The manufacturers have been asked to reply to the request not later than Nov. 20.

MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE EXTENDS ALLTMENT IN WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

SOUTH HADLEY, Nov. 7.—Mount Holyoke college has extended its allotment in the United War Work campaign. The drive opened yesterday, the young women students setting $10,000 as their goal. Tabulation of the first day's contributions showed a total of $16,314. The college campaign was started in advance of the general country-wide drive in order that Fred B. Smith of New York, international secretary of the Y.M.C.A., could be present to address the students on the first day.

DANGER AFTER SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIPPE

How it Can Be Avoided and Treated. Simple Rules to Be Followed. No Occasion for Panic

No need of anyone being afraid of the after effects and slow recovery from Spanish influenza, hard colds or Grippe, if they will use common sense and start in building up their health and strength the right way. The main thing is to get the blood rich, red, and pure, so it can carry life-giving oxygen and strength to every part of the body. Impure blood is the cause of so many slow recoveries and set-backs.

Doctors say: "Get the blood right and the rest is easy, that nine-tenths of all sickness is due to lack of iron and phosphates; the healthy strong, vigorous man or woman's blood is always loaded with these two life-giving elements."

Physicians also claim with fresh air and nourishing food nothing equals Phosphated Iron as a blood tonic and health builder. Phosphat-

ed Iron takes hold from the first dose. Results are seen and felt; strength returns, food digests, appetite picks up, sleep is restful, there is a color in the cheeks and a sparkle to the eye that only blood charged with iron and phosphates can give.

It is the duty of everyone who has had Spanish influenza, Grippe or a hard cold to build up their system with nature's tonic, Phosphated Iron. It sure is health protection. Safety first. The results will repay you many times. Give yourself a show. Special notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules. Do not take pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

WASTE OF SUGAR

THE following bulletin was among the most forceful and effective bits of conservation propaganda at the New York Food Show last month. It was put out by the National Sugar Refining Company of New Jersey:

"Save the waste!"

"One hundred million cups coffee used daily in United States."

"Seventy million cups tea used daily in United States."

"One hundred and seventy million cups tea and coffee."

"If even an average of half a teaspoonful of sugar per cup is left undissolved at the bottom of cups of tea and coffee the waste would be 1,700,000 pounds of sugar daily."

"Stir your sugar" until it dissolves. It's estimated that one-third to one-half of all sugars used in homes is used in tea and coffee. Think it over—how is it in your home? Isn't there a chance for saving?"

HON. DAVID I. WALSH

Hon. David I. Walsh, United States senator elect, has one great benefactor to whom he owes his political success, more perhaps than to any other cause, more indeed than to any inherent quality of his own. That benefactor is Theodore Roosevelt, who also helped to elect President Wilson to the high office he now holds and thereby rendered the country a most inestimable service. David I. Walsh came into office as lieutenant governor in 1913, having been elected as the result of the republican split, due to Roosevelt's bolt of the republican convention in Chicago in 1912. He was nominated and elected governor of Massachusetts in the fall of 1913, also as a result of the republican split, so that he has much for which to be thankful to Col. Roosevelt.

In his present triumph his providential luck has followed him. He was the logical candidate for the United States senate, and had little trouble in getting the nomination. Governor McCall announced himself as a candidate for the senate before the primaries, but for some reason which Tom Lawson designates as the "murderous influence of big business and boodle interests," the governor dropped out of the contest before the primaries. Then Mr. Lawson announced himself as a candidate and ran on an independent ticket. He secured votes enough to cut down the republican majority so as to let Hon. David I. Walsh secure the victory and thus was Senator John W. Weeks defeated.

But Senator Weeks could never have been defeated by any political combination had he not on many important occasions fought openly for the selfish interests such as the steel trust, leading their battles against the interests of the government. Weeks is a reactionary republican whose displacement by David I. Walsh will be a benefit to state and nation.

Col. Roosevelt also helped the democratic candidate to some extent by making a direct appeal in behalf of Senator Weeks. It appears, therefore, that Mr. Walsh has reason to be grateful, first to Col. Roosevelt and in the present instance, to Thomas W. Lawson while of course his own magnetic qualities as a vote getter and his record as a clean, able and honorable man had due weight with the electorate. Mr. Walsh deserves the congratulations that are being poured upon him today, and The Sun adds its voice to the great chorus that wishes him success in the most dignified body in our government. His election removes a bitterly partisan republican and gives President Wilson a staunch supporter.

RICHARD H. LONG'S DEFEAT

The demerits of the state, with the exception of a certain sure-headed element, will regret the defeat of Richard H. Long, democratic candidate for governor. Mr. Long made an excellent run, in the face of certain defection and the failure of the state committee to do its duty. It is about time that members of the state committee should keep neutral in the primary contests, so that after the nominations they could consistently support the candidate and help to secure his election. That is what the state committee is for. As it has been conducted for some years past, however, the committee has attempted to usurp the right of the electorate in selecting candidates. This has been going on so long that it is about time to call a halt and to let it be understood that members of the state committee who wish to lead primary fights, should first resign their positions on the committee. Otherwise they are simply causing party dissension that leads to defeat at the polls. That is what happened in this last contest, but it has happened also on previous occasions. The democratic voters of this state should take the matter in hand and see that it is stopped. Every candidate in the primaries should have a fair chance regardless of the wishes of the state committee and the man who is nominated by the people should receive loyal support from every member of the committee.

The convention system of making nominations is a thing of the past and the state committee should not attempt to constitute itself a convention for the purpose of giving the voters of the state a candidate of its special selection. A candidate who is bitterly opposed in the primaries by the chairman of the state committee, may be excused if he refuses to hand over the management of his campaign to that particular gentleman, who has already lined up with his political enemies.

Democratic newspapers cannot render effective support to their party if they take part in the anti-primary fights. The paper that denounces a man before the primaries cannot consistently support him if he happens to be nominated. Members of the state committee are in the same position and they should follow the same policy in keeping neutral in the primary fights. They should leave the selection of candidates to the people, or at least avoid any bitter attacks that cause soreness which cannot be healed after the primaries. There is much need of reform in the state committee and its methods, and it is time the democratic organization should set about the work of making the necessary change.

The Boston machine is also responsible for much discord in the ranks of the democratic party. Unless the democratic candidates bow to the will of the Boston machine they are pretty sure to be knifed at the polls. This is particularly the case in reference to candidates who live outside Boston, and it has been true of Mr. Long's candidacy. It is not unlikely, however, that Mr. Long will be heard from again. He is not the kind of man who drops out of a fight on meeting his first real reverse.

Our gain by the war. In this war the United States had no aim beyond vindicating our own rights and those of our citizens on the high seas and thereafter aiding the entente in the laudable work of stamping out pan-Germanism. The end of the war is now in sight. It seems that the surrender or the defeat of Germany is but a matter of a very short time so that we may with full confidence look at the results as they appear in prospect.

Germany has now her choice of surrendering forthwith, or waiting until she is compelled to capitulate when her forces are surrounded and the victorious armies of the allies begin their march to Berlin.

The question already has been raised in this country as to what we have gained by the present war. Among the things gained may be mentioned the following:

First, a position of power and leadership among the nations that no other nation will dare question or oppose.

We have gained the leadership of the world as the disinterested friend of human freedom among the nations of the earth and this, through the statesmanship of President Wilson in standing for the principles of American freedom, as provided for in our constitution.

By our course in the war, the danger of the yellow peril, so-called, has been laid away for all time.

We have won the respect and confidence of the Latin American nations, which can no longer suspect us of having selfish designs upon them.

By our achievements in this war we have convinced Mexico that for her own interests, she had better be less unruly along the border and had better also improve her behavior in general if she wishes to prevent a visit of Uncle Sam's marines to her capital or a sally from a squadron of airships despatched across the border to wipe out Villa and his gang of Bolshevik followers.

We have secured a vindication of American rights on sea and land and as a result the absolute freedom of the seas for all nations will be assured.

We have demonstrated to the world something that was before deemed very doubtful and that is that a democracy such as the United States, can conduct a war quite as well as any monarchial form of government, and in some respects a great deal better, as shown by the marvellous achievements of our government since we entered the war.

We have as a result of the war, established a merchant marine that will take our flag to every important port in the world and bring us into closer commercial intercourse with every country with which we can conduct a commercial business.

With these steps forward toward making the world safe for democracy and with the prospect of a league of nations to enforce universal peace, it would seem that we are on the eve of a new era in the history of the world, when the laws of justice and humanity will form the basis of every government on earth.

Surely, if these changes characterize the governments that are to rise on the ruins of the present Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey, then the war, terrible as it has been, will not be without its compensations for the future of the world and the benefit of all mankind.

We have had no selfish motive in the war; and though we have aided in saving France and Belgium and helped to reverse the situation in which we found Germany threatening to dominate the world, yet, we want no additional territory, no new colonies, nothing but the satisfaction of seeing a reign of justice and freedom established to remain undisturbed, let us hope, forever.

Evidently Wakefield is soon to take upon itself the responsibilities of a city inasmuch as on Tuesday her citizens voted favorably on accepting a city charter, this to make her the 39th city in Massachusetts. Wakefield, home of good people and fine citizens, has always conducted her home affairs as if she had a high civic conscience. Her neighbors, some of them less fortunate in charter matters, will wish that the city of Wakefield have fair weather and strong sails when she embarks on her new career.

We hear all kinds of things in connection with and that apply to the expression, "poetic justice." The best exemplification of it we have heard of in a long time was in the case of the allies appointing Foch as the of-cial to whom the Germans must apply for relief from the terrible beating they are now receiving. It is one of those things that to the French mind, shows a sincere desire on the part of the allies to give France satisfaction for the German barbarities of 1870.

There has been some talk to the effect that all the suspenders factories in the country may have to close down because the government needs the webbing they use. If this were done it would reduce the number of cases of men hanging themselves by their suspenders and be hard on the men whose hips are not such that a belt satisfactorily keeps the pants up.

The German government has called former American Ambassador Bernstorff home from Turkey to give it the benefit of his knowledge of conditions in America, to help guide the government in armistice and peace negotiations. Truthful Americans could tell the German government that Bernstorff, even after living here many years, subsequently showed he had a vague idea of American democracy.

Now that the people of New Hampshire have decided to have a Moses lead them, either out of or into the wilderness, as his future acts in congress shall certify, it might be appropriate for his constituents to learn why it was that President Taft summoned him home from Greece where he was minister plenipotentiary, before his term of office expired. A modern Moses ought to be willing to explain that.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, alleges that the defeat of Senator Weeks in Massachusetts was one of the most regrettable events of the election. A broader minded man, who views the nation's interests from other than republican standpoints might have congratulated Bay Staters for sticking so firmly by President Wilson.

The allies, when the Kaiser does finally hold his hands up in surrender, will not fail to note that the blood of Belgian women and children he ordered murdered, will be seen dripping from his hands for not in his lifetime can he find soap or abrasive keen enough to completely wash away this evidence of his crimes.

A republican paper commenting on the election of Cal Coolidge to the governorship says that the expected happened. Well not quite. We don't think many republicans expected Richard H. Long to cut into the republican majority as he did.

Perhaps an autocrat sat down to the breakfast table yesterday morning but he probably wasn't autocratic as he might have been if he hadn't been licked for the United States senate the day before.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

Persons buying a ticket to go to Boston, I find, should use all possible safeguards against being out of pocket in connection with buying their ticket because, new rules of the railroad administration, for which no explanation is given, the way, are of such a nature that if you do not have your wits about you, you will be out of pocket. Formerly, buying a ticket, the railroad guaranteed it was worth what had been paid for it, to travel on, no matter how long the purchaser kept it. A different rule prevails now. If you buy a ticket you must make up your mind that you have a use for it and that you can use it within 48 hours because if the ticket hangs around your pocketbook longer than 48 hours after being bought, you lose it. It cannot be used and the government will not redeem it. Many persons going on a trip to Boston from Lowell have bought two tickets reading from Lowell to Boston, expecting that on the return trip one ticket could be used. But the very exact and unscrupulous railroad administration will not allow this. You must travel in the direction your ticket indicates. I heard of one Lowell man who got stuck to the extent of three or four tickets in this very way.

The Lowell Fish and Game association has not let up in its campaign to have the Massachusetts fish and game commission build a suitable fish ladder in the Merrimack river for the protection of river fish. I hear the fish and game commission is sort of acting as though this fish ladder proposition was something that it would be at right to attend to at any time within the next two or three hundred years. The Lowell sportsmen feel different about it. At a meeting held Tuesday night one member of the local association volunteered to go to Maine at his own expense and bring back pictures of the fishway for salmon in a certain part of that state the local association knows would be adaptable for local conditions, so as to submit these pictures to the Massachusetts fish and game commission and see if they cannot be made to "get going" and having something done in this vicinity.

I think most of us who know about it will envy Arthur Steiner, representative of the Houdrills Film company of New York, who has made quite a few friends here since he has been here in behalf of his company putting on the Romance of Lowell' stunt. He tells me that next Tuesday evening he leaves New York for California where he and his men working with him have a number of contracts to go into different cities and towns in southern California and on up the coast, making this "Romance of Lowell" picture. Steiner says it has never been done before in California. When I suggested that southern California folks see the making of so many photographs I should not think they would be interested in something of this kind, he said that his company believed there were just as many ambitious embryo motion picture players in the southern California cities as every place else and his company figured these young folks would be glad to have parts in the romance of their home towns and after the picture was made, be in a position to hurry over to the nearest motion picture studio with the film and show the directors what they could do. This was an explanation that seemed to fit the situation. Steiner is lucky to be able to make the trip to California. Sometimes the advantage of spending your fuel money for a railway ticket to a warm climate lies among other things, in getting out of sifting and moving ashes.

SEEN AND HEARD

Some people are pests and others are just plain darn fools.

It isn't a question of what the Kaiser will do. The question is: What will be done to the Kaiser?

Regardless of what the weather prognosticator may say, the first of July is going to be dry.

Let George Do It

On the range a party of recruits were firing their first course. The sergeant in charge noticed that one of them—a man named Smith—was missing the target every time.

At last, quite fed up with the man's bad firing, the sergeant went across to him and told him to go and shoot himself.

The man disappeared. A few seconds later a report was heard from the spot where Smith had gone to. The sergeant hurried to the spot and shouted, "Are you there, Smith?"

"Yes, sergeant," came the reply. "I've missed again."

Now They're Wedded

Private McGuire, lying in a hospital, was very fractious. He pointedly refused to take a second dose of medicine, which was inordinately nasty. Several smiling nurses bent over him and urged him to be good.

"Come," pleaded one, "drink this and you'll get well."

"And rosy, too!" chimed in a second. McGuire visibly brightened, and actually sat up in bed.

After surveying the pretty group he inquired, eagerly, "What one of you is Rosy?"

Waiting for the Squeal

"I want to have a tooth drawn," announced the small boy with the steel gray eye, "and I want gas."

"You're too young to have gas, my little man," said the dentist. "Besides, I'm sure you aren't afraid of being hurt. Sit still and be a man."

"It isn't that at all," said the boy, "but I'm afraid I shall not be able to help giving a bit of squeal when it comes out."

"Well, that won't matter at all," said the dentist. "I'm sure I shall not mind."

"No, but I shall. Look out of that window."

The dentist looked out and saw a lot of grinning lads standing on the sidewalk.

"They're all the kids I've fought and whacked," said the small patron, "and they've come to hear me holler."—Baltimore Evening Sun.

and a share, and declares that all the love of money is the root of all evil.

There are few men of meagre incomes who have not dreamed time and again of all the good they would do if they only had as much money as somebody of whom they have heard. Sometimes such a one gains riches and really sets out to build in fact the structure of his dreams; but many another attaining riches forgets the dreams of his poorer days in the cares of wealth and the desire to add to it which always accompanies money. There seems to be no point at which humanity can be satisfied with the things which it possesses. The greater the struggle to secure riches, the more certain it is that the soul of the struggler will be to a greater or less degree torn from its anchorage of faith. Money easily becomes a god, and after that a tyrant. There is no doubt that it is easier to be good when poor, for riches untouched by grace bring temptations. There is also no doubt that it is easy, if we will, to do good with this world's goods. It is not necessary, possessing some wealth, to yield to the ever-present temptation to add to it by unworthy means. It is only necessary to keep the wealth in its proper place as a possession and not permit it to possess us. The trouble with the young man who went away sorrowful was that his "much goods" owned him rather than he them.—Christian Herald.

Courage

Pluck's a most precious thing found in commander and king. It's not the heritage of any class. There's the courage of the fool. There's the kind that's calm and cool. No matter what disaster comes to pass.

There are men who love to fight. When they're wrong or when they're right. The lust of battle finds them undimmed. Reasoning won't make them stop. They will struggle till they drop. They do not understand the word afraid.

There are men whom dreams of fame Will inspire and inflame To plucky deeds they've never dared to do. But the bravest men of all Are the men who heed the call And, smiling, do the thing they're scared to do.

PRICES STILL GO UP SAYS

RESERVE BOARD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Despite prospects "prices generally throughout the United States are showing a tendency toward a further upward movement," according to the Federal Reserve board's monthly review yesterday of business conditions as reported by agents in each federal reserve district. Increases are particularly noticeable in commodity lines not affected by the government's price-fixing program.

Many manufacturers and other producers are reported following a conservative course by keeping only small stocks on hand, in preparation for new business conditions after the war.

Rising prices and credit inflation, the board says, must be opposed by strict personal economy. Despite war economy propaganda, it appears, says the board, "that many classes of the population are still spending their current incomes as freely as ever, notwithstanding the fact that prices today are at a record figure, because they have not yet embraced the national duty to save as a personal obligation."

The board's explanation goes into detail to show that bank loans for purposes other than short-time commercial transactions are becoming steadily greater in volume and in proportion to reserves causing inflation and resultant increases in prices.

General business activity throughout the country is reported by practically all reserve agents.

The market reduction in the recent output of clothing materials, shoes and other articles of personal use indicate, the board said, that civilians in a few months may have great difficulties in getting these goods.

Ranking conditions are reported "about as satisfactorily as could be expected under the circumstances." Building operations are practically stationary.

RED BLOODED MEN FIGHTERS

THEY RULE THE WORLD

Red blooded men are born leaders in every walk of life and fight intelligently with both brain and muscles. They are always live wires, smiling and full of ginger; keen, alert on their toes and ready for anything that comes their way. Work is a pleasure and they lead on top every time.

You will not find a strong successful man or woman trying to plug along with poor health or weak nerves. They know better; they are wise and see to it that their blood has plenty of good fresh iron and their nerves at all times loaded with Phosphatized Iron Food.

A leading doctor says, "Show me a strong, healthy successful man or woman and you can bet he or she has plenty of iron in his or her blood."

Another prominent physician says, "There is no need of anyone going through life sickly, miserable, played out, fagged and nervous when Phosphatized Iron will always put energy and vigor into the body, mind and nerves."

This same doctor also said, "With the system loaded with Phosphatized Iron you can fight life's battle at any stage of the game and be a winner at every turn."

Mr. Run Down man or woman in any stage of life, if you feel all in your nerves are all shot, and life seems like one continual drag and drudgery from day to day, get next to yourself, wake up, take a brace, lay in a supply of Phosphatized Iron and take a new lease on life. You will once again feel like a live one and face the world with the smile that wins.

To insure physicians and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphatized Iron, it has been put up in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to give you tablets or pills. Insist on capsules.

TERRIBLE SCENE

Destruction and Starvation in
Trent Beggar Description
—Many Starving

Horrors of Napoleon's Retreat
Trifling Compared With

WITH THE ITALIAN ARMY AT
TRENT, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Amid the rejoicings of this re-deemed city, destruction and starvation are common as one passed over the roads over which the Italian troops are trying to pass the thousands of Austrian prisoners who were cut off by the Italians southwest of Trento. Every road leading up to this city is crowded with men and on every hand there are evidences of the collapse of one of Europe's mightiest armies.

The horrors of Napoleon's retreat from Russia, it is said, by military observers, were trifling compared with the suffering of the Austrian troops in this region. Great masses of men wait for long hours to move a few feet, or a few hundred yards, to halt on a road littered with the carcasses of horses and with cannon pieces of shells, pistols, rifles, broken down automobile trucks and machine guns. There is no swarming among these men. There are even moments of profound quiet, broken by snatches of songs. Italian soldiers seem positively sorry that the end of the war is approaching. They say: "What's a few months more now that we are sure of victory?"

Austrians Die of Starvation
Many Austrians are dying from sheer fatigue and starvation, and not wounds. The Italians are doing all they can to hurry up food supplies. This is difficult and in the meantime dead horses are eaten, the flesh being cooked by the roadside by fires kindled by the soldiers.

Large bodies of Austrians are helpless. The correspondent passed between Rovereto and Trento, a distance of 16 miles, an unending column of men marching none knew whither. They asked orders from an officer who was with the writer. When asked if they knew about the armistice, they said: "We want food. Food is the only thing we are interested in. We are indifferent to war and peace and death—everything but food." Strange tales are told of the exploits of Italian prisoners returning home. Above Trento a group of Italian prisoners broke out and ordered the chauffeur of a truck to drive them to the Italian lines, and the man obeyed. Another Italian prisoner, mounted on horseback at the head of a regiment of Austrians, announced smilingly: "These are my captives."

Nine Enemy Divisions Taken
It is estimated that nine Austrian divisions were taken with their staffs. Thirty-nine divisions were partially disorganized and 15, although in bad condition, are retreating from the advancing Italians. These troops while equipped for their retreat, are without orders and no traveling here and there like droves of sheep. It is a common thing to see an entire brigade without

SET NEW RECORD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—American shipyards again established a new record in October by delivering 77 ships of 398,100 dead-weight tons. The shipping board also received during the month two ships of 17,300 tons built for its account in Japan. The deliveries by American yards included 45 steel ships of 233,400 dead-weight tons, 30 wooden vessels of 107,200 dead weight tons and two composite ships of 7600 tons dead-weight tons. The Pacific coast led in completed ships, with 30 vessels of 190,400 tons. Atlantic coast yards turned over 17 of 102,000 tons; the Lake 21 ships of 73,000 tons and the Gulf finished nine of 32,200 tons. October deliveries bring the total of completed ships since Aug. 30, 1917, up to 487 vessels of 2,793,510 dead-weight tons. Of these, 2,338,855 have been delivered in the present year.

TO EXTEND THE LABOR RECRUITING SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—With the country facing a shortage of farm labor next year, due to the demands of the draft and the inroads made by war industries, the United States employment service announced today that plans were being formulated to extend the labor recruiting service to farm workers.

In each state an assistant to the federal director will be named to have charge solely of farm labor. Special examiners will be attached to branch offices of the employment service to recruit labor for farm needs. The workers thus obtained will be assigned as far as possible to the state within which they are recruited, although any surplus that exists will be sent to other states where the need is urgent.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, hollow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, indigestive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

TO SIGN ARMISTICE

GERMANY DONE DEFENDERS' DAY

News That White Flag Party
Deep Impression in France

Last Doubts of Germany's Sincerity in Asking Terms
Removed—War Near End

PARIS, Nov. 7.—News that a German white flag had left for the front, made a deep impression in France, where the prompt action of the German government took the public by surprise. The last lingering doubts as to Germany's sincerity in asking for the allied terms for an armistice, still held in certain quarters, seem to be removed.

On the contrary the impression now held is that Germany is really worse off than generally believed.

In the meantime the allied troops are giving the enfeebled enemy no rest. The Germans have been deserted by their last remaining ally, the weather—the rain fell in sheets yesterday—and the retreat verges perilously near a rout. British forces are within a few miles of Maubeuge, the fall of which is imminent. The French army is converging on Hirsch. The enemy is falling back on the Meuse before the French Fourth and Fifth armies, which are driving in his rear guard and capturing many machine guns. The German white flag party may hear of the fall of the German emperor's former headquarters at Charleville and Metz before they conclude their business with Marshal Foch.

Near the Meuse, the American army, working in close touch with General Gouraud's forces, is demolishing the German defenses on the west bank of the river. The German army is in a state of disintegration. The hostis side of the Rhine. Indeed, it is not too much to say that the Germans are doomed to defeat without hope of recovery.

Plans Completed for Big Army and Navy Day Celebration Saturday

Admiral Woods Accepts Invitation to Attend—Other Notables Coming

The biggest military spectacle ever witnessed in Lowell will be staged here next Saturday, when the Lowell war camp community service will put on its postponed Army and Navy day, and from the program as outlined today, there is every indication that Lowell people will be privileged to see one of the most interesting exhibitions and entertainments that have ever come to this city.

Invitations to be present on the big occasion have been telegraphed to Gov. Samuel W. McCall, Governor-elect Calvin Coolidge, Col. George L. Byrond, of Camp Devens and his adjutant, Maj. Meis, Gen. H. P. McCain, commander Continued to Page Nine

Outbreaks and Strikes in Hamburg—Artillery Firing in Streets—10,000 Strike

(By The Associated Press)
Internal conditions in Germany apparently are far from satisfactory. In addition to the outbreak in Kiel, the German naval base, which is reported to have placed the Schleswig in the hands of the revolutionists, outbreaks are reported in Hamburg. The chancellor also has issued an appeal to the people to maintain calm while the armistice negotiations are in progress.

Prince Max Makes Appeal

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.—Chancellor Maximilian, says an official despatch from Berlin, has issued an appeal to the German people, saying that "in order to make an end of the bloodshed" a deputation has left for the front, and that "the negotiations will be seriously endangered by disturbances and lack of discipline."

LOWELL READY

"When Victory Bells Are Heard, Let All Start for City Hall," Says Mayor

No Matter What Hour Great News Comes, Parade and Celebration to Be Held

Lowell was in the throes of a miniature explosion of excitement about 2.30 this afternoon when a premature report was spread by Boston papers that the German envoys, forming an armistice delegation had signed the terms for peace laid down by General Foch and that consequently Germany had surrendered unconditionally to the allies.

However, there was no truth to the report and any jubilation indulged in was wholly premature. The Associated Press sent a despatch to The Sun this afternoon saying that there was no truth to the report that the armistice had been signed, because every effort to confirm the rumor had proved fruitless.

The German delegation was supposed to have started negotiations at 12 o'clock this noon, Lowell time, and will have 18 hours in which to reject or accept the terms of surrender laid down by General Foch. This means that they will not have to decide until Saturday noon, although, of course, the decision may be reached at any time before the final hour of grace.

Lowell is all prepared to welcome the news of peace with a rip-bang celebration that will outlive anything of its kind ever seen here.

When Mayor Thompson learned this afternoon from The Sun that there was a possibility of the war being terminated at any minute, he postponed an engagement in Boston and set to work at once to make plans for the Spindle City's celebration of the great moment.

His Honor shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon gave out the following informal proclamation which should be headed by every man, woman and child in Lowell as part of his or her patriotic duty:

The Mayor's Proclamation

"The minute word is received that German envoys have signed the armistice laid down by General Foch, every bell and mill whistle in Lowell will beat forth in one great clamor of noise. That will be the unmistakable signal for every man, woman and child in Lowell to leave his or her home and reach city hall at the earliest possible moment."

"It will also be a signal for the members of the local companies of the state guard to assemble at the Westford street armory in uniform at once to await further orders."

"The state guard companies will then march to city hall and with this organization in the lead a grand parade of practically the entire population of Lowell will wind its way from city hall to the South common where a mass meeting of victory will be held."

"No matter what time of day or night the news is received, arrangements have been made so that the bells will be rung and whistles blown, and at this signal everybody should get to city hall at the earliest possible moment."

The mayor's statement sums up the preparations made for the local receipt of the news of peace and it is up to everybody to follow out His Honor's instructions to the letter so that Lowell's victory celebration may be just as enthusiastic and spirited as any in the entire United States. The orders are simple but they must be obeyed to the letter.

"This afternoon it was thought that the Germans had surrendered and it was stated that at the Batteries car shops whistles were blown for fully 15 minutes. In Washington, New York and Boston celebrations were under way for several hours, in some instances, before it was officially denied that the armistice had been signed."

German White Flag Envoys Meet Foch

Unofficial Reports of Signing of Terms Spread Throughout Country—Lansing Ends Big Washington Celebration by Officially Announcing That Terms Had Not Yet Been Signed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—It was officially announced at the state department at 2.15 o'clock this afternoon that the Germans had not signed armistice terms. Secretary Lansing authorized the statement that the German armistice delegation would not be received by General Foch until 5 o'clock this afternoon. The secretary's announcement came after Washington had been celebrating for two hours on the strength of an unofficial report that the armistice terms had been accepted. In spite of the fact that officials did not accept the report as true, demonstrations persisted. President Wilson left the lunch table to see from the veranda what was going on outside and waved his napkin to the crowd before the White House gates.

The state department was advised that General Foch would receive German envoys at 6 p. m., French time (noon, eastern time). The unofficial report which started celebrations had said the armistice had been signed at 11 o'clock, French time, or an hour before the time set for the meeting.

BIG CELEBRATION IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—New York went wild today on the unconfirmed report that Germany had signed the armistice terms.

The Associated Press did not carry the report. On the contrary, its correspondents in London and Paris continued to file despatches reporting the progress of events respecting the probable armistice which controverted definitely the rumor that peace had been declared.

Although at the hour the report appeared on the streets the government at Washington had received nothing to support it and officials did not accept it as true, the city went out for a regular New Year's eve demonstration on an enlarged scale.

At the time the demonstration was going on, radio despatches were coming in from London and Paris which had been filed three hours after the report of the armistice and although they made no mention of it the demonstration was not stayed.

The demonstration began when extra editions of newspapers appeared on the streets bearing despatches purporting to have been sent from London and Paris, saying the armistice terms had been signed and would become effective at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

As late as 1.20 o'clock this afternoon in Paris, according to despatches received by the Associated Press, crowds were gathered around the war office there awaiting news of the German application for an armistice and it was generally believed there that several days might pass before a truce would be granted.

At 2.34 o'clock this afternoon, it was officially announced at the war department in Washington, that the Germans had not signed the armistice terms.

Later Secretary Lansing made an announcement that the German commission would not be received by Marshal Foch until 6 o'clock this evening and then the Associated Press received another despatch filed in Paris at 2.35 this afternoon, saying that four German officers bearing the white flag, would arrive at Marshal Foch's headquarters tonight.

Whistles throughout the city joined in the din and the harbor craft rang their bells and blew their whistles in a chorus unprecedented in the history of the metropolis.

The stock exchange, the consolidated exchange and the curb market all suspended business and closed their doors at 2.30 o'clock. The reports that the war was over had no perceptible effect on the markets.

WALSH BOUND TO WIN

Weeks Didn't Have Chance

Against Greatest Vote Get-
ter in History, Says McCall

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Senator Weeks was defeated by the "most remarkable vote-getter in our history," declared Governor Samuel W. McCall, in a statement issued yesterday. "The difficulties at the moment were insuperable," he thought, and although Tom Lawson entered the contest against the wishes of the governor, there were not "wild horses enough in Christendom to pull him off."

While many republicans expressed the belief yesterday that Lawson's candidacy was one of the chief factors in the defeat of Weeks, Governor McCall believes that Walsh's victory over the junior senator would have been even more positive with Lawson out of it.

The governor's statement follows: "Some weeks ago when the president decided one of the most momentous problems ever put up to mortal man, I commended him twice in public interviews. I thought it unfortunate and issue should have been made against him."

"The sublime march of events since that time led us on electric day in sight of the goal, and the whole world was yearning, and sentiment in that short time acquired almost the force of a revolution. In a week the tide would have been more sweeping, in striking contrast with the apathy in the democratic primaries in September. That explains the general result in Massachusetts."

Weeks Didn't Have Chance
"As to the senatorship—Mr. Walsh is one of the most remarkable vote-getters in our history. Believing that a personal contest between Mr. Weeks and myself for the nomination would leave the nomination of win especially with an antagonist like Walsh, I withdrew and gave him the advantage of an unopposed nomination. In the safe wisdom that follows the event it may fairly be said that with such a powerful candidate against him, confronted by a direct statement from the president himself, and in a tidal wave, although he made a thorough and stubborn fight, his election was not in the range of possibility."

"The difficulties at the moment were unsufferable. I think under the circumstances he did pretty well."

"As to Mr. Lawson, if he had followed my wishes he surely would not have run. One does not relish being pictured as a crushed and even murdered man. As brilliant a man as I ever knew, wonderfully tender in his family and to his friends, Mr. Lawson is wholly implacable when in pursuit of what he believes to be a wrong, and there are not wild horses enough in Christendom to pull him off."

"We have only to remember how he stirred up two continents by his frenzied finance, his insurance campaign and his fight for the right to race for the 'America' cup. But his support would not naturally include many lovers of Mr. Weeks, and if he had not been a candidate a suspect Walsh's plurality would have reached a much greater figure."

LEVINSKY KNOCKED OUT BY DEMPSEY

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight, knocked out Battling Levinsky of New York here last night in the third round of what was to have been a six-round bout.

Dempsey, who was the aggressor, throughout, stopped Levinsky with a right hook to the jaw. The blow sent the New Yorker down for the count and he had to be assisted to his corner by his seconds. It was the first time that Levinsky was ever knocked out.

In the first two rounds Dempsey followed his opponent all over the ring, trying to land hard blows. His blows seemed to shake Levinsky from head to foot. In the second round Dempsey nearly had the New Yorker out from a series of hard body punches which made him close in and hold on until the bell came to his rescue.

ENTERTAIN GOV. M'CALL AT HALIFAX, N. S.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Gov. McCall today is on his way to Halifax, N. S., where he is to be entertained for several days as a mark of appreciation of the aid given by Massachusetts last winter when an explosion in Halifax harbor devastated a large part of the city. He was invited by high officials of the province whose guest he will be. The governor will address students at Dalhousie university and be honored with a degree. The visit was arranged several weeks ago, but was postponed because of the outbreak of influenza in Massachusetts.

SOLVE LABOR PROBLEM IN WAR PLANTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Manufacturers of munitions, airplanes and all kinds of war supplies met here last night to discuss plans for solving labor problems and means of increasing their output by preventing the "turnover" of employees. The meeting was called by the aircraft production board.

United War Work Fund

Workers Today Send Invitation to Lowell Industries

The preliminary and special gifts committee of the local united war fund drive went into executive session this morning, afterward sending out an appeal to all the industries in the city for co-operation in the coming campaign. The latter follows:

Dear Sir: The preliminary and special gifts committee of the united war fund drive earnestly requests your utmost co-operation toward the success of the drive, and asks you to take into consideration making a special gift from your firm, corporation or concern.

Every firm, corporation and concern is to organize and use the furnished cards within its own industry, giving each worker the opportunity to contribute. All cards required will be sent immediately upon request, and are now being supplied to the teams.

Telephone 4165.

Yours for the united war work campaign,
The preliminary and special gifts committee.

S. H. THOMPSON, Chairman.
HUMPHREY O'SULLIVAN.
FRANKLIN NOURSE.
D. CARTER.
GEORGE S. MOTLEY.
FRANK E. DUBAR.
O. POLLARD.
GEORGE M. HARRIGAN.
FRANK HANCOCK.
OTTO HOCKMEYER, ex-officio.

Everything is in readiness for the opening banquet tomorrow night at Memorial hall, at which the final arrangement will be outlined, and every member prepared for his or her part in the big drive which will open on Monday, Nov. 11. Albert Edmund Brown will be on hand for the occasion, and this means harmony and then some.

Mr. Brown is going to put the workers through some of his now patriotic songs, so that when the united workers march in the parade Saturday they will be well rehearsed in the melodies which they will sing as they march.

About 700 invitations have been issued to the team workers of the organization for the banquet by the general committee which is composed of the following:

Mayor Perry D. Thompson, L. A. Olney, J. B. Casey, Add. E. W. Clark, A. S. Goldman, I. Green, F. A. Chase, H. J. Molloy, S. H. Thompson, E. J. Flannery, J. F. Sawyer, Franklin Nourse, W. S. Southworth, Robert Friend, William A. Wilkison, George E. King, Joseph A. Legare, Mrs. J. H. Carmichael, J. E. Harrington, George M. Harrigan, C. F. Cunningham, Mrs. J. H. Boardman, S. S. Pouzner, Bennett Silverblatt, David Ziskind, Solomon Baker, Frank Goldman, Dr. Samuel Horowitz, Fred C. Weld, Mrs. W. B. Jackson, Edward B. Carney, John B. Kenney, Mrs. J. H. Leighton, Mrs. L. A. Olney, Mrs. Charles W. Morey, Miss Elsie Brad, Mrs. Wm. S. Marshall, J. A. Hunnewell, Mrs. H. A. Smith, R. B. Thomas, D. L. Page, James F. Owens, C. S. Lilley, C. S. Proctor, Rev. W. F. Enklesh, Jr., J. J. Mahoney, J. E. O'Donnell, Arthur Gaudente, Patrick O'Hearn, Dr. J. B. O'Connor, John E. Golden, Thomas J. Corbett, Raymond Welch, Joseph Quinn, P. S. Madden, S. B. Harris, Charles L. Knapp, Mgr. William O'Brien, A. G. Pollard, George Motley, F. B. Pitt, B. Brown.

Otto Hockmeyer, chairman of the local drive, again stated today that the "hands off" rule in the coming campaign will be strictly observed. This means, the chairman said, that no one is to be approached by any team worker unless he or she has first secured the card for that individual from the campaign headquarters. Any worker wishing to secure any particular subscription will be given a card for that person unless some one has "beat him to it." In that case as aforesaid, the order is "Hands off."

In this great country-wide campaign for a fund of $170,500,000 with an over-subscription of 50 per cent., which is to be spent for our boys "over there," so that when they come in from the front line trenches wrecked in mind and spent in body, they may find a welcome and a home in this land of bloody war, the quotas for the seven organizations which have in this campaign been welded into one, are as follows:

Young Men's Christian Ass. $100,000,000

Young Women's Christian Ass. 15,000,000

National Catholic War Council 30,000,000

War Relief Board 3,500,000

American Library Ass'n. 3,500,000

War Camp Community Service 15,000,000

Salvation Army 3,500,000

MEETING POSTPONED

The meeting of the Ladies auxiliary to the 101st Regiment, which was to have been held tomorrow evening in Associate hall, has been postponed until next week, owing to the fact that Miss E. M. Barr of Boston, who was expected to be in Lowell to outline the fall work of the organization, will be unable to be present on account of sickness.

DEMERS TO QUIT NAVY AFTER 21 YEARS

Chief Gunner Eugene Demers, U.S.N., who is aboard the U.S.S. Delaware and who has a wife and child living in White street, is home on a brief furlough. When the war broke out Mr. Demers was stationed at the Charleston navy yard as an instructor, but shortly afterward he was assigned to the U.S.S. Delaware as chief gunner, and since that time he has been away on long cruises, but is not allowed to tell to what places.

connected with the navy 19 years and 6 months, enlisting as an ordinary seaman. He has gradually worked himself up to the post he is now holding, that of chief gunner, and during his career he has had some exciting experiences, one of which he will never forget. This was during the Boxer revolution in China, where he was slashed in the face by one of the rebels. Mr. Demers has made up his mind to retire on a pension if the war is over when his 21 years of service expire. He came to Lowell a few days ago when he was called to the bedside of his wife, who was seriously ill from influenza. He expects to return to his naval duties within a few days.

DEMANDS HALF FARE FOR BOSTON PUPILS

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—"Half fares on the Boston Elevated for all Boston children going to and from school," is a demand to be made on the trustees, of the road by the executive committee of the United Improvement association, which is empowered to present to the next legislature a bill compelling the road to grant the reduction.

The association, at its meeting at the City club, last evening so instructed its committee, after a general discussion, in which the demand was justified on the ground that policemen ride free and that school children in every town and city in the state save Boston, have long enjoyed the half fare.

Owing to an opinion among members that there is to be a severe coal shortage, delegates were requested to investigate the supplies on hand in their districts and to report at the December meeting.

The special committee on housing was authorized to act as delegates at the conference of the National Housing association at the Copley-Plaza November 26 and 27.

It was voted that the public works department be urged to do light repair work and make other street preparations for the winter.

Owing to the absence on war work of George W. Coleman, president of the association, Walter R. Meins of Roxbury, ex-councilman and ex-representative, was chosen president for the day. He has been acting president since remainder of the term.

Parker D. Morris, who as vice president, resigned his membership in the association on account of pressure of private business.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—An Italian steamship came jubilantly into an Atlantic port last evening flying all the flags the law allows to celebrate the surrender of Austria. Her passengers, including a score of American travelers, many of Uncle Sam's bluejackets from the Mediterranean American destroyer flotilla and folk of other nationalities, got word by wireless of the Austrian collapse when the merchantman was three days from port and all hands held an international festival of thanksgiving. A note of sadness pervaded the company because of the death from Spanish influenza of the ship's surgeon, Dr. Antonio Onato, who gave his life in attending tirelessly thirty-five patients aboard, including passengers, who were stricken while the vessel was detained at Gibraltar.

Dr. Onato himself finally was taken down with the disease. He believed he had recovered sufficiently to resume his duties. The skipper and other officers urged him to rest, but he said he regarded it as much his duty to attend to his patients as it would be if he were ministering to soldiers on the field of battle. He fell dead after dancing in the ship's saloon just before she sailed for Gibraltar. He was born in Genoa thirty-nine years ago. His body was sent to his wife and mother in Genoa. He had been six years in the service of the line. Among the five aboard the vessel who died were two assistant engineers and three steerage passengers. The ship arrived at an American port with a clean bill of health.

Some of the passengers who rejoiced in Austrian defeat were Giulio Rossi, bass of the Metropolitan Opera, forester Mario Murebora, conductor, rector Loynas del Catillo, Cuban vice-consul at Genoa, and his wife, who is

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work in a hurry. Easy to make, and costs about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup. And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly soothes the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

the daughter of Gustavo Navaroto, Cuban consul-general at Genoa, who has been away from Cuba, her native land, more than twenty years and has spent years in Germany, France, Italy and England, has a little girl of 3, Victoria, who understands French and English and speaks Spanish and Italian.

JONES FREED ON MURDER CHARGE

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 7.—Charles H. Jones, 58, formerly a Lynn, Mass. shoe cutter, who was arrested here charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Gertrude Stoddard Jones, formerly a wealthy Boston woman, on Oct. 11, was acquitted here yesterday on his preliminary hearing. It was shown positively that the woman committed suicide, by shooting herself through the head. The first husband of Mrs. Jones, Mr. Stoddard, committed suicide in Boston several years ago, it appeared in the testimony.

CEMETERY BOARD MAKES NEW RATES

The cemetery commission approved the following schedule of rates to obtain at all the local public cemeteries from now on at its regular meeting held yesterday afternoon.

The charge for single adult graves is changed from $4 to $5. Graves over 29 inches are $1 extra. The old rate for graves for children under 12 years was $3. The new rate is $5 for a grave for a child under 6 years. Those over five are to be considered adults.

The charge for lining graves is advanced from $7 to $8. For the service of state vaults in case of rain from $6 to $8. Tomb charges are changed from $2 the first month to $5 with a rebate of $2 if the body is taken out during the first month. A charge of $2 extra for digging graves to be used on Sundays and holidays was also advocated. This would have a tendency to discourage the holding of funerals on Sundays or holidays. For the filling of graves the advance is from $1 to $2. For filling urns and beds the charge goes up from $2 to $3 and $5 according to the size. For watering of beds and urns filled by owners or others the charge of 50 cents to $1 was advocated. For top dressing the charge is kept at $1; also for regrading the charge was kept at $2. For the use of the chapel the charge will be from $3 to $5.

It was also voted that $3 extra be charged for funerals which take place in the winter after 4 p. m.

It was explained that the increase in rates was made necessary if labor treaties are to be lived up to. Other business transacted at the meeting included the approval of monthly bills, and all were approved except one from the Hanson Co., which was referred to the purchasing agent.

NEW ZEALAND TO BE REPRESENTED AT THE PEACE CONFERENCE

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Nov. 7.—(via Montreal).—The definite understanding here is that New Zealand will be represented at the peace conference. The ministers are momentarily expecting an urgent call in this connection.

COURT WAS BRIEF

Gabby Carl Holstrom Gets Off Very Easy

This morning's session of the police court was very brisk, there being but six offenders brought before Judge Enright. Carl Holstrom, who was arrested a few days ago on a charge of having made unpatriotic remarks, and also of being drunk, and whose case was continued, was called on continuance this morning. The court informed Holstrom that he was very fortunate that those who heard his remarks did not wish to testify against him. He imposed a fine of $10 for drunkenness. Catherine Martin and George Sauvageau, charged with drunkenness, were each given a suspended sentence to the state farm. Frank Fadden was assessed $5.

Morris Marmer was brought in on a complaint charging him with receiving stolen property and at the request of his counsel his case was continued until next Thursday. Anthony Kozlow, charged with a violation of the city jitney ordinance, failed to put in an appearance and he was ordered defaulted.

REPORT COL. LOGAN HAS BEEN REPLACED

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Colonel Edward L. Logan of Boston has been relieved of command of the 101st Infantry Regiment because of ill health, and succeeded by Colonel Horace P. Hobbs, formerly attached to the department of the northeast in this city, according to report current here last evening. No verification of the reported change has been received by members of Colonel Logan's family. The report came overseas from Bert Ford, International news correspondent.

Know of No Ill Health

Through all of the hard fighting in which the 101st took part at Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel and other famous battlefields, Colonel Logan was in active command of the 101st Regiment. He was gassed once, but other than that has not suffered in health since going overseas, so far as the members of his family know.

Word was received indirectly from the South Boston commander last Monday by Mrs. Lawrence J. Logan of 560 East Broadway, South Boston, the colonel's mother. She received a letter from her son, Lieutenant Francis Logan, a member of the staff of General Cole, in which she learned that "Colonel Ed" was in "the best of health."

Do Not Credit Report

Because of such reports Mrs. Logan and other members of the family are

OLD AGE STARTS
WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs.

This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs clean and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disabilities due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is included in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 3 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a little swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. Now life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three slices. But remember to use the original, imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.—Adv.

A Loss to Understand the Present Report

Theodore Logan, brother of Colonel Logan, said: "I do not credit the report of the change in command if one had been made."

The devotion which the Boston officer paid to the men of his regiment was a byword with every member of the unit who has returned to this country on wounded or instructor leave. It was generally reported a short time ago that Colonel Logan had declined promotion to the rank of brigadier-general which would detach him from his men. The comrade him from the officers and men of the "old Fighting Ninth" was recently attested to by Chaplain Lyman Rollins of the 101st Regiment in a letter to Mrs. Logan.

"Speculation among the colonel's friends seems to be," said Theodore

Logan last night, "that my brother has been relieved either temporarily for the purpose of getting a needed rest or has been promoted. However, I have not heard anything that would give any definite information."

Colonel Logan has been in command of the 101st, which is made up of the old Ninth and Tenth Regiments, for many years, succeeding Colonel John J. Sullivan, retired as brigadier-general, as colonel of the Ninth. His father, Brigadier-General Lawrence J. Logan, was colonel of the Ninth Regiment, and led that body during the Spanish American trouble.

Colonel Hobbs, reported successor of Colonel Logan, is a Pennsylvania man, and was graduated from the army school of the line, 1901-1902. He was assigned to the 17th Infantry as first lieutenant, and was made captain and assigned to the 23d Infantry in 1908. Later he was sent back to the 17th, and still later attached to the adjutant's office in the department of the northeast in this city. He went overseas with General Edwards, and has been inspector on the staff of the 26th Division commander.

U. S. CONSUL SLAIN IN CHARLEROI

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.—The American consul and seven British war prisoners have been killed by the bombardment of Charleroi, southwest of Namur, in Belgium, according to Berlin despatches received here.

Charleroi is a fortress. It lies some 20 miles east of the British positions on the Valenciennes sector.

The name of the consul is given as Eugen Davens.

FRENCH HONOR
AMERICAN DEAD

NANCY, Sunday, Nov. 3. (By the Associated Press)—The memory of the three first American soldiers to fall in France under the American flag was honored today, the anniversary of their deaths, by the government of Lorraine, where they fell.

The towns in the department of Meurthe-Moselle erected a monument in the village of Bathelmont, but the heavy bombardment the village is still undergoing leaves it still evacuated. The military authorities were unwilling to allow any procession or gathering at the monument, so it was a small party, consisting of Leon Milman, prefect of the department; William G. Sharp, the American ambassador; M. Lohrin, minister of blockade; Gen. Leroy Ellinge, representing Gen. Pershing, and the mayor of Nancy, who inaugurated the shaft by placing flowers on it this morning.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE
If you haven't seen Jane Salisbury as "Sis Hopkins," the original role of Rose Melville, at the Lowell Opera House, you should avail yourself of the opportunity that remains. Miss Salisbury has been seen to particular advantage in powerful dramatic interpretations, but never before in anything just like this one. You will like her and the character. "Sis Hopkins" is a rural comedy drama of the better type that was only recently released from the stock, and which has been contracted for every high-class stock company in the country. The supporting cast is also unusually good, particularly Julian Nov. Joseph C. Smith, Miss Hamilton, Miss Cleopatra and George Buchanan. Next week the offering will be that big Boston and New York success, "Cheating Cheaters."

R. E. KEITH'S THEATRE
Minstrel songs of the long ago, and some of the "hit" melodies of today, are splendidly given at the R. E. Keith theatre, this week, by the Seven Honey Boys. Theirs is an act that will

Good News: Lots of Brer Rabbit at Your Grocers

BRER RABBIT real New Orleans Molasses is a real War-time food, and a delicious one.

For the Table

BREAKFAST. Pancakes, waffles, or fried rice, with a hearty spread of GOLD LABEL Brer Rabbit.

LUNCH. Hot biscuits or rolls and GOLD LABEL Brer Rabbit—and as a spread on bread for the little folks any time of the day.

DINNER. Brer Rabbit in war-time recipes, in all kinds of cooking and baking. Write us for free Brer Rabbit Cook Book of Southern recipes. Tells you how to make delicious desserts without sugar.

Forget Sugar Troubles

Sugar only sweetens—it gives no flavor. Brer Rabbit not only sweetens—it flavors. Instead of sugar use Brer Rabbit Molasses for cooking and baking; for stewing prunes, dried peaches, apricots, apples; for baking apples. You will find that Brer Rabbit gives a rich, wholesome flavor in addition to its sweetening qualities.

There Are Two Kinds of Brer Rabbit—Both Are Pure New Orleans Molasses

The GOLD LABEL is delicate and sweet in flavor and light in color. It is for table use and especially fine for cooking and baking.

The GREEN LABEL is stronger in flavor, slightly darker in color, and costs less. It is splendid for cooking and baking.

Both kinds sold by all grocers.

exert a wide appeal. Manuel Romaine, the famous tenor, is singing with the septet and his voice is still in splendid trim. For comedy that has all sorts of variations to it, even to a touch of the macabre, let us commend you to Madison & Winchester. They are prime makers of fun, and never fail to draw laughter. "Handkerchief, No. 5" is likewise a funny comedy, with unusual lines and situations. It is played by Fremont Benton & Co. Other acts on the bill are: Ed Morton, singer of modern songs; White's circus; Simmons & Deval in singing and chatter; and Raymond Wilbert, hoop roller. The Keith pictorial news is also shown at every performance.

THE STRAND
An entire change of program will be given the patrons of The Strand today, with William Farnum, America's most popular player, appearing in one of the latest Fox releases, a picture of Zane Gray's famous novel, "Riders of the Purple Sage," a great American drama of the man who was not afraid. "Lawson" is a picture of "Queen of Hearts," a baffling, mysterious detective romance, will be the other big hit feature. Besides these there will be a new Mutual screen telegram and one of those amusing Mutt and Jeff Christie comedies. Octavia, the double-voiced wonder, will be heard in a new repertoire of songs and Miss Margaret McQuade will play some of her latest violin numbers.

Heroes of the popular Zane Gray novels are divided in their verdict as to which is his greatest, but undoubtedly the first to catch the general public and the latest to retain its vogue is "Riders of the Purple Sage." This book has recently been pictured by the Fox Film Corporation and will be seen and enjoyed by local patrons. Zane Gray is a typical American novelist, who knows his country and characters from personal experience, and William Farnum is the film type of the American pioneer, ranger, rider and all round man pictured in the hero of the book. "Lawson" is the principal character interpreted by Farnum. It is known as the "two-in-one" and is one of the most vivid and impressive dramas in fiction. This role offers the star greater opportunity to display his wonderful talent on the screen than any of his other big film triumphs.

presented in the most tremendous drama of sudden death, deep mystery and clever discovery ever shown on the screen—the greatest detective story of a generation! Around a simple, clearly defined plot has been woven a perplexing web of baffling clues and enticing problems that keep the spectator interested and guessing until the final unexpected solution and happy conclusion. See the whole bill and be amazed.

LICENSE COMMISSION

The license commission held its regular meeting last evening and transacted routine business. A finding of not guilty, was announced in the case of John J. Gilley, a liquor dealer at 123 Fayette street, who was charged with violating the seventh section of his license, it being claimed that on a recent holiday one of the employees of Mr. Gilley called at the saloon with a couple of friends and that one of the friends helped himself to a couple of glasses of beer. Gilley was represented by Hon. James E. O'Donnell.

Ten jitney drivers between Lowell and Lawrence were to be given a hearing by the commission last evening on charges of overloading their machines, but owing to the fact that one of the drivers was not present, the matter was continued for a week. These jitney drivers were before the commission a short time ago to answer similar charges and after a hearing was held they were found guilty and ordered to suspend business for three days.

News From Camp Devens

GREAT ATHLETIC MEET AT AVER- CANTONMENT—SOLDIER VOTING SYSTEM NOT SUCCESSFUL

CAMP DEVENS, Nov. 7.—Five minutes after the last event in the division field meet had been run off yesterday afternoon Maj. Gen. McCain leaned over the railing of the stand from which he and a gathering of distinguished visitors had watched the sports, and presented two huge silver cups to officers of the 212th Engineers and the 7th Infantry, the winners of the meet. As each cup was accepted two military bands crashed triumphantly into music, several thousand campaign hats went high in the air and a yell that sent cold shivers running up and down the spine went up. It was a yell the American doughboy knows well—the yell of victory.

Yesterday's meet was the biggest single event of its kind that has ever been staged at this camp. The meet lasted all day and included not only regular athletic events, but special military contests. Standing on all sides of a rectangle a quarter of a mile long by 200 yards wide, fully 25,000 soldiers and several thousand visitors watched the events, and never at any interval, legislative meet ever held, was greater spirit displayed.

On the special stand erected for Gen. McCain, his staff officers and their wives, the enthusiasm was almost as great as it was among the soldiers themselves. It was a chilly day, but the General, Mrs. McCain and their daughter, Mrs. Emory Smith, sat there all afternoon watching the meet. With them sat Brig. Gen. and Mrs. B. C. Ladd of Boston, their daughter, Mrs. MacMillan, and just before 3 o'clock Rear Admiral Spencer H. Wood arrived with

Scored 42 Points

For the entire meet the 212th Engineers were the victors, scoring 42 points. But there was a side contest on between the four infantry regiments in the division, and this was won by the 7th Infantry with 22 points in the contest between the infantry regiments the 36th Infantry and the 73d Infantry were tied for second place with 24 points each and the 42d Infantry was third with 22 points.

The standing for the entire meet was as follows: 212th Engineers, first, 42 points; 7th Infantry, second, 22 points; 36th Infantry, third, 24 points; 42d Infantry, fourth, 22 points; Trains, fifth, 10 points; 73d Infantry, sixth, 8 points; Machine Gun Battalions, seventh, 5 points; Field Signal Battalion, eighth, 5 points.

Brig. Gen. J. E. Woodward, commander of the 24th Infantry Brigade, was in charge of the meet and he had as assistants Lieut. Col. S. G. Talbot, 73d Infantry, and Major Royce of the 12th Headquarters Train and Military Police, Lieut. A. W. Marsh, 43d Infantry, was reluctant, and Maj. A. R. Hitchcock of the 73d Infantry was the senior judge.

Plenty of Music
Every regimental band in the division was out and music was in the air continuously. An Gen. McCain left the field he expressed his pleasure at the showing made by the men.

"It would take a hushier outfit than can be found in these parts to lick the winners of yesterday's events. For the winners in a contest in the best division ever formed are quite some able people. That, in effect, is what the general said.

There were many soldiers out of camp, too. Late Tuesday night orders were received from Washington to permit all soldiers who had not had a chance to do so to go home and vote, providing they could manage it in 24 hours.

Massachusetts officers here were surprised at the order and it is taken to mean that the system for soldier voting in this state is a complete failure.

Official word from Washington regarding the outcome of the Liberty loan in the camps of the country was also received yesterday by Maj. Barrett O'Hara, assistant camp judge advocate, who put Camp Devens over the top in the Liberty loan and gave her the greatest per capita subscription of any camp in the country. The soldiers of America subscribed for $76,013,200 worth of Liberty bonds. Of this $2,400,500 was subscribed by the soldiers of the American Expeditionary Forces in France and $263,100 by the American Expeditionary Force in Siberia. The remainder was given in this country. The order of the first six camps in the country is as follows:

Camp Lee, $1,814,550; Camp Devens

$1,253,350; Camp Hancock, Georgia

$1,104,300; Camp Grant, Illinois, $962,

000; Camp Custer, $724,800; Camp Humphreys, $517,150.

Lieut. R. E. Grohinger, chemical warfare service, assistant to Capt. Lyon, division gas officer, yesterday was made a first lieutenant.

Morale Is Winning the War!

AN American is capturing a Hun—not because he is any heavier or stronger or older or bigger, but just because he has the fighting spirit which his enemy is losing.

That's morale.

"Where are those Germans? Let's get at 'em!" yelled an American before Chateau-Thierry. He was going under fire for the first time. He was wild to get there!

"We are constantly on the alert and are afraid the Americans are going to attack," wrote a German to his wife. He was captured before he could mail the letter.

"The men are so embittered," wrote another Hun, "that they have no interest in anything, and they only want the war to end, no matter how. We are only slaves of the Government." Now he is a prisoner, too.

Every despatch from France brings new proof of American fighting spirit—stories of individual valor. Morale makes Americans glad to fight for freedom. The lack of it makes Germans hate to fight for Prussia.

Our soldier knows he is a free-born fighter. He is no slave of any Government. He is part of a nation waging war. He wants to fight. He needn't be driven into battle. He yells: "Let's go!"

That's morale! Let's let them keep it! Let's keep them keen and fit and confident!

General Pershing finds that 900 men who have a hut to spend their evenings in are more effective than 1000 men without it. Napoleon called morale three times as important as other factors in war.

The strain comes with the first swift change from civil to military life, when these organizations give your man a place to meet his family, books to read and study, the hospitality of American homes, when whole cities are re-adjusted to the new conditions created by having a cantonment nearby.

It comes later, too, when a man has been off in some lonely camp for weeks, when the war itself seems miles away, when letters are irregular and home seems somewhere in another world, when a man has lived out in a gun-pit or a dug-out, has slept in filthy straw, when the bodies of his friends lie just beyond him, out in No Man's Land.

That's when the men and women of your organizations overseas can show our fighters that they aren't forgotten, that home is following them up to the guns. Sports, entertainment, education, religion, warmth, and cheer and friendship—these are the forces that are working to keep morale up to a victory pitch.

On you, this week, depends this question of morale. These are the seven recognized activities through which the Government enables you to stand behind your fighters. Their value depends on just how much you, as an individual, will give to help them hasten victory. Give as you never gave before! Give for morale!

Why you should give twice as much as you ever gave before!

The need is for a sum 70% greater than any gift ever asked for since the world began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000.

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their:

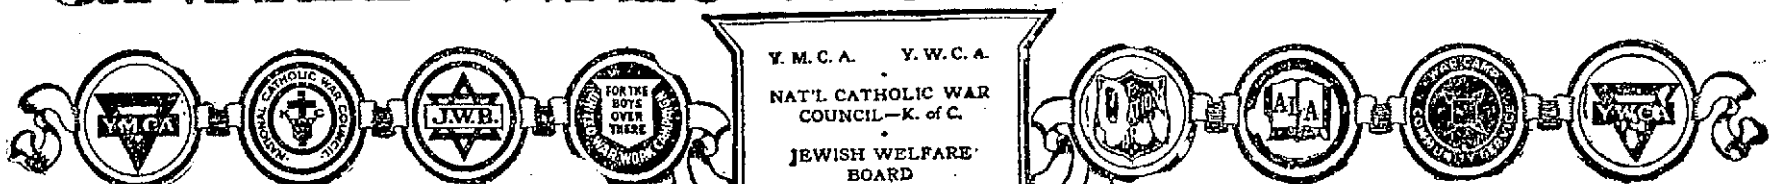

3,600 Recreation Buildings	2,500 Libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
1,000 Miles of Movie Film	85 Hostess Houses
100 Leading Stage Stars	15,000 Big-brother "Secretaries"
2,000 Athletic Directors	Millions of dollars of home comforts

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comforts of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theatre, a cheerful home, a store, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul!

You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs.

Now give to maintain the Morale that is winning the war!

The Observant Lady

If one had time to ferret out the large number of cases where men and women, especially in these days, are striving to make this world a more kindly and pleasant place to live in, they would need a long sheet of paper to jot them all down. A certain business man in our city is in charge of a lot of girl clerks, which has been augmented recently with the arrival of young women from out of town, to such an extent that one might suppose that whatever interest he might have previously taken in regard to those under him, would diminish to practically a state of indifference. However, this is not the case, for he evidently is not the man who balks at big things. Every now and then his wife sends an invitation to a girl working in this office, to come and enjoy a home cooked supper and spend a pleasant evening with her. The next week some other girl will receive a similar invitation, and so on, and for these strangers in the city it is a rare treat. It is not at all unlikely that the man submitted the plan first to his wife, and that she entered into it with hearty good-will. I have seen these same clerks willingly respond to requests to work overtime in busy periods and so this spirit prevails and grows from day to day.

To Celebrate End of War

That the Worcester people are optimistic is shown by the fact that in The Evening Gazette is published the information that the Worcester fire alarm will whistle and ring the news of the German surrender, no matter what hour the glad tidings shall arrive. The word may come at noon or at 2 o'clock in the morning, but no matter when, Worcester folk will know about it. They will have the chance to celebrate a victory, the like of which history has never known. Churches, factories, locomotive engineers, and everyone else having control of a bell or a whistle will be asked to join in the joyous sound when they hear the signal. I don't think we people in Lowell had looked ahead to such an extent as being in readiness for Fourth of July noises; nevertheless, it tends to wake within us, joyous anticipations.

War Work Campaign

The celebration on Saturday, of the war work campaign and the Army and Navy day leaders who have planned a long parade with many interesting features, will certainly be a great success if the enthusiasm and interest displayed by those who are in charge of the day's events are to be considered as favorable indications. The Lowell women participating in the affair have every reason to feel proud of their boys in service. I am sure that we shall all be filled with renewed courage to stand behind our men "over there," to speed the war to a victorious end, when we witness this gathering of people, who, by setting apart this day for illustrating their purpose of seeing the horrible skirmish through to a final day of reckoning, will manifest to the people that they want them to help in this drive, so that when the Lowell fire bells and factory whistles sound forth the glad tidings, every man and woman will feel that he or she has done at least a small part in bringing this thing to pass.

War Service Song

"The Long Long Trail," "K-k-katy," "Come on America," or any of the war songs now receiving such popularity, were never rendered better in any gathering than they were last Saturday at the opening night of the industrial war service centre. During the half hour "sing" it was apparent that there were some very clear, sweet voices in this girl's chorus and one can easily predict that concerts and entertainments at the club house in the Ruelle building, this winter will be well supported by music lovers.

Red Cross Rooms

The women of the local Red Cross chapter have put forth another effort in making arrangements to have the rooms open Saturday nights and Sunday mornings, this step being taken so as to enable employed women and girls to call here and leave the Christmas packages which are to be sent across the water to the soldiers. There are letters urging that sweaters and still more sweaters be made by the people connected with this chapter and the yarn is on hand ready for volunteer workers.

CHELMSFORD RED CROSS

Mrs. M. V. Boulter, secretary of the Chelmsford Red Cross unit, has made her report on the work of the organization for the months of August, September and October, which follows: Fifty-six pairs of boys' and men's flannel drawers, 28 sets boys' wash suits, 15 pillows, 20 layettes, 30 kit bags, 22 pajama suits, 256 pairs knitted socks, 107 army sweaters, 33 navy sweaters, two afghans and 70 property bags. There has been an average of 36 members at these meetings and in addition a large amount of the work has been done in the homes of the members.

STOP DANDRUFF! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

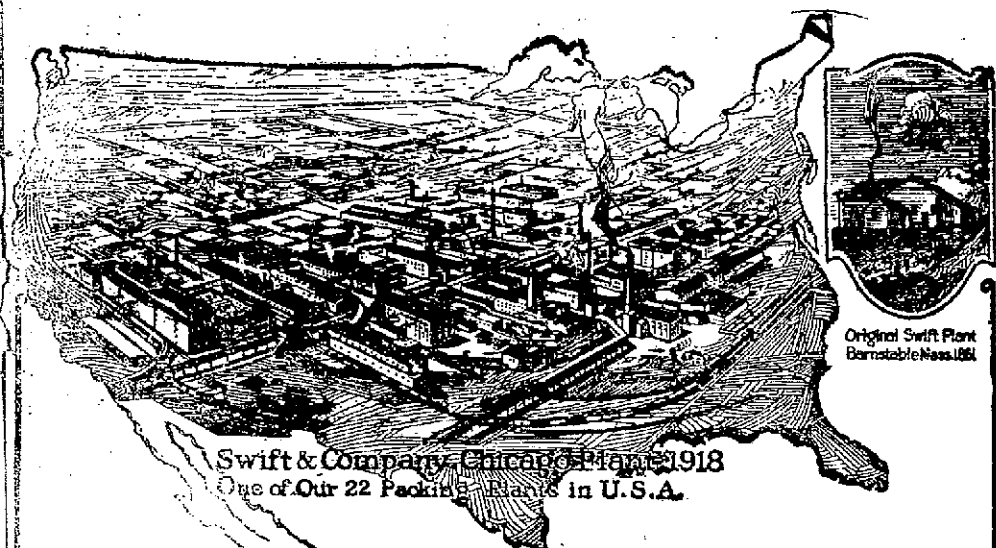

Girls! Draw a cloth through your hair and double its beauty.

Spend a few cents! Dandruff vanishes and hairs stop coming out.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff, is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair, but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

Unlike Topsy— Swift & Company Has Not "Jest Grown"

Swift & Company, in fifty years of well ordered growth, has become one of the great national services because it has learned to do something for the American people which they needed to have done for them, in the way in which they preferred to have it done.

It has met each successive demand, in the changing conditions of national life, by getting good meat to increasing millions effectively, efficiently, economically, and expeditiously.

The Swift & Company packing plants, refrigerator cars, car routes, branch houses, organization, and personnel of today are the practical solutions, born of practical experience, to the food problems of a half a century.

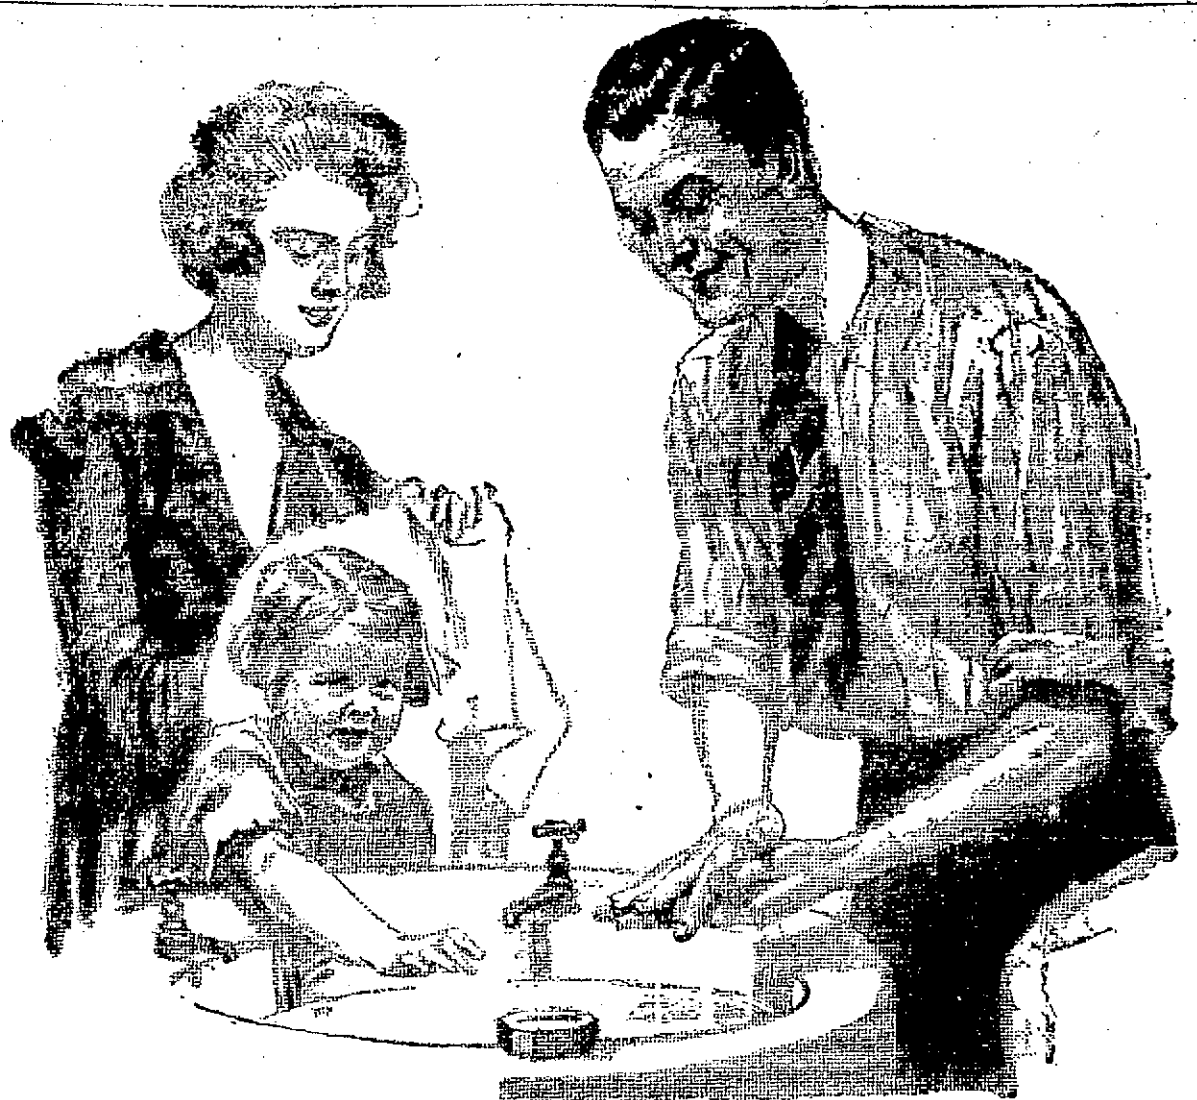

Because of all of these elements working in correlation and unison, Swift & Company is able to supply more and better meat to more people than would have been possible otherwise, at a net profit per pound of meat so low (a fraction of a cent) that the consumer price is practically unaffected.

Strip away any portion of this vast, smooth-running human machine, and you make a large part of the meat supply uncertain, lose the benefit of half a century of fruitful experience, and scatter the intelligent energies of men who have devoted a life work toward meeting the needs of a nation in one vital field.

The booklet of preceding chapters in this story of the packing industry will be mailed on request to Health authorities in the present epidemic are urging everybody to do two things—gargle throat twice a day, and wash hands frequently, especially before eating.

They say that the disease is spread by the breath and secretions of the body, especially of the nose and throat. Hands are constantly exposed, and it is surprising how often they are put up to the mouth and other parts of the face. For this reason:—

Before you eat,
After the day's work,
Whenever you come in
from the street,
Wash with Lifebuoy—the
Health Soap

When you wash with Lifebuoy Health Soap, its rich, creamy lather cleanses the skin thoroughly. At the same time, the healthful antiseptic which it contains is carried right into the pores of the skin, leaving it refreshed, antiseptically clean.

Get a cake of Lifebuoy at any grocery, drug or department store.

(Special to The Sun.)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, November 7.—A proclamation urging the people of Massachusetts to devote every energy next week to the collection of funds for the united war work campaign was issued last night by Governor McCall. The governor said:—

"In order that the attention of our people may at this time be more particularly directed to the needs of our men in the service, I hereby set aside the week beginning November 10th as a week to be devoted to the collection of funds for the work of the various organizations authorized by the war department to care for our soldiers and sailors.

"The united war work campaign is one of the most important activities that we now have before us. The war clouds are breaking and the welcomed rays of peace are likely soon to be shining upon us. The needs of the soldiers and sailors will continue to be great, however, for some time after hostilities shall have ceased. We must not slacken our efforts in their behalf now that victory, which they have contributed so mightily to win, at last smiles upon us.

"The government does not provide many comforts for our men in the service, and only through these organizations can such things be secured for them.

"I earnestly urge upon all our citizens during this week to apply their energies to the collection of funds for what is now a thank offering; and upon all a prompt and generous response to the request, to the end that the amounts sought for may be speedily obtained, and thus assure the comfort of our brave men upon the battle line or wherever they may be."

LOWELL MAN OF 93 WAS TOO MUCH FOR THUGS

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—David Movitz is 93 years young, fit to give battle to two thugs, save most of his $400 roll and turn one of his assailants, Joseph Keller of Brooklyn, over to the police. Although he was fired by a long walk through Boston streets, lured into a "doctor's" office, stripped of his clothing and put to bed, Movitz kept a sharp eye out for his money, and in the "show-down" was too much of a match for the men who tried to rob him.

Lured Into City

The old man, who came to this country 40 years ago after serving many years in the Russian army, now lives at 100 Harvard street, Lowell. He conducts a lodging house, and Keller once was one of his roomers. He hurried to Boston yesterday, arriving at North station about 1 o'clock, when told that his son, whom he had not seen in a long time, was seriously ill in a local hospital. Keller broke the sad news to him and was at the station to meet him.

Then Keller plotted the old man through many streets until they arrived at Harrison avenue near Massachusetts avenue. There the marauder stopped when a man, stepping out of a building, was greeted by Keller.

Bad, Says Doctor, Bad

"Hello, doctor," exclaimed Keller, addressing the newcomer. "This is Mr. Movitz, who has come to visit his son." "I'm sorry," replied the supposed medico. "His condition—not very good—really bad. Can't be seen until 3 o'clock."

The "doctor" sympathized with the old man, remarked that Movitz looked tired, exhausted and in urgent need of rest. He would call a taxi, conduct the worried father to his office and let him rest there until the hour would arrive when he might see his son.

Movitz agreed he was fatigued and in an automobile went with Keller and the "doctor" to a room at 118 Huntington avenue, which the police say was rented by the supposed medical man only a few hours before. Movitz was prevailed upon to submit to an examination, his clothes were taken off and he was directed to a cot.

Doctor Praises Eczema Remedy

The cure of skin diseases (eczema) and diseases of the scalp is known to be difficult even with the best efforts of intelligent and discriminating physicians. However there is one remedy that is entirely dependable in this distressing and troublesome disease, that is D. D. D. Prescription, manufactured by the D. D. D. Company of Chicago, Ill. I take much pleasure in recommending it to the entire confidence of all sufferers with any form of skin disease, as a medicine they can rely upon with perfect confidence.

around his neck next to his skin, and in this bag was $400. That was placed on a table near the cot on which Movitz was resting. He kept it in sight always, was a bit suspicious when the "doctor" tried several times to cover his head with the bed coverings, and was ready to jump when he saw Keller take the bag.

The struggle which followed roused occupants of neighboring rooms. These were assured by Keller and the "doctor" that "the old man is insane; we're trying to calm him." The proprietor of the building, however, sensed something wrong and telephoned to the police. The fight continued and increased in fury. The little bag dropped to the floor, the money fell out and the "doctor" snatched it up and escaped.

$400 Left Behind

But Keller could not get away. Movitz held him in a grip of iron, and even though Keller bit a chunk of flesh out of the old man's wrist, he could not break the hold before Sergt. Murphy of the Back Bay police station came and arrested him.

The old man's victory was made more complete before he left the room by finding $400 of his money still secure in the little bag, which the "doctor" had left behind.

PENITENTIARY FOR

JOHN THIBEAULT

John Thibault of Salem, the young man, who was arrested in this city a few weeks ago on a charge of larceny and impersonating an army officer, was arraigned before the federal court in Boston yesterday and after being found guilty of obtaining money under false pretences from relatives of soldiers and impersonating an army officer, was sentenced to the penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for a term of six years.

BOOTLEGGERS ARRESTED

Antonis Konstantakos of Nashua, N. H., was arrested by Officers Cooney and O'Neill of the vice squad last evening on a charge of bootlegging. It is claimed that Antonis, who was driving an automobile, gave five half-pints of whiskey to soldiers and that 11 empty beer bottles were found in his car. Thomas McGrath of Boston was also arrested on a charge of furnishing a half-pint of liquor to a soldier. Both men were taken to Ayer today.

COMMUNITY SING

The park commission will conduct a "Thanksgiving" community sing at the state armory in Westford street, on Sunday evening, Nov. 17, if the plans discussed at the regular meeting of the body last night are brought to completion.

Albert Edmund Brown will direct, and an orchestra will be engaged to accompany the songsters.

At last night's meeting, a plan was also adopted providing for the flooding of a section of the area at the old fair grounds for skating this winter. It is also planned to install a permanent system of lighting on the North and South commons.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 117 E. Marlborough avenue, Massachusetts, N. J. Better cut this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation. —Adv.

ONE REASON

People never shopped earlier for Christmas was that holiday stocks were not shown in the stores until after Thanksgiving. This practically forced everybody to do all their holiday buying in one month. All is changed this year. Holiday stocks are ready now. They are at their best in size, in variety, in values. When the stores are crowded and thousands see these attractive displays of gift things they are going to buy and buy early and save money and get what they want and have it on time. Are you going to wait until stocks are possibly depleted or replenished with merchandise at higher prices?

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Stocks opened strong today and buying was general. Kalls of the investment class were most in favor at average gains of a point. Oils, motors, copper and some of the heavy industrial rose 1 to 2 1/2 points. Marine preferred was the only important stock to register an initial loss.

Peace prospects were heightened during the morning by reports of revivals in the German army and navy. There was also much discussion regarding further cancellation of war orders. Moderate selling of popular munitions and specialties resulted at reactions of 1 to 4 points. Leaders among calls and industrials also fell back 1 to 1 1/2, but the heaviness of shipplings was ascribed to rumors of another batch in the German Marine deal. The noon rally was led by oils, Mexican Petroleum showing a gain of 3 points.

The market became active and unsettled shortly after midday on reports that armistice with Germany had been signed. War shares made further gains and the market was fully backed by additional in calls and peace stocks.

In the afternoon progressed, and hereafter the Associated Press announced that the armistice had not been signed and that the peace rumors were premature and untrue, business offices began to be deserted.

By special act of the governing committee the stock exchange closed in session at 3:30 o'clock, but during quotations were not registered until 2:45 because of the heavy volume of buying. The closing was buoyant.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Final prices on Liberty bonds today were: 3 1/2% 1938, first convertible 48 3/32; second 48 1/32; third 48 1/32; 4 1/2% 1938, first 50 1/32; second 50 1/32; third 50 1/32; 4 1/2% 1938, first 50 1/32; second 50 1/32; third 50 1/32.

Call money strong, high 1/2, ruling rate 1/2, closing bid 3/4, offered at 5/8; last loan 6, bank acceptances 4 1/2.

MARY PICKFORD LOSES

Court Orders Her to Pay $108,339 to Mrs. Cora C. Wilkenling

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Mary Pickford, the moving picture actress, will have to pay $108,339 to Mrs. Cora C. Wilkenling, a literary and theatrical agent, by order of a supreme court jury which has been hearing evidence in a suit brought against the actress by the literary agent.

Mrs. Wilkenling claimed she had been responsible for obtaining for Miss Pickford an advance in her income to $10,000 weekly, with a bonus of $150,000 a year.

BRIEF BUT IMPORTANT WIRE DISPATCHES

PARIS, Nov. 7, 3:35 p. m. (By the Associated Press).—Four German officers bearing white flags, it is officially announced, probably will arrive at the headquarters of Marshal Foch tonight.

GOVERNMENT THANKS COUNCIL FOR LAND

Mayor Thompson has received a letter of appreciation from Irving E. Macomber, assistant manager of the United States Housing corporation, thanking the municipal council for its recent vote allowing the corporation to use the high school site for dormitory purposes.

"CHICK" EVANS IN AIR SERVICE

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Charles "Chick" Evans of Chicago, national amateur and open golf champion, today received word that he had been accepted for aviation service. He is 28 years of age and had been placed in deferred classification because of dependent parents, but he only recently succeeded in adjusting his affairs so he could enter the service. He was the originator of the Red Cross golf matches and during his exhibitions throughout the country, raised approximately $230,000 to aid that organization.

STRIKE WILL CLOSE 100 N. Y. HOTELS

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Proprietors of 100 leading hotels have agreed, in the event of a general strike of waiters, to close their public restaurants until an efficient force of waitresses can be procured, the New York City Hotel-men's association announced today. Stating that there would be no compromise with waiters who quit their posts in four large hotels, the proprietors declared they had tried to co-operate in every way with the food administration and the attitude of the waiters and cooks had been a hindrance in carrying out this policy.

THE PHILIPPINES AND PORTO RICO TO RAISE TWICE QUOTAS FOR WAR WORK FUND

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Philippines and Porto Rico have volunteered to raise more than twice the quota allotted to them in support of the United War Work fund, it is announced by Dr. John R. Mott, director general of the fund. The Philippines were asked to subscribe $150,000 and Porto Rico $50,000 and cablegrams have been received here assuring $250,000 and $125,000, respectively. Americans in south China and north China have cabled promises that the quotas will be subscribed.

GEN. MCCAIN WRITES TO MAYOR THOMPSON

Mayor Thompson has received a letter from Major Charles C. Quigley, U.S.A., adjutant of the 12th division at Camp Devens, in which he says that Gen. McCain, commanding general of the camp, wishes to acknowledge receipt of a letter from his honor stating the health conditions in Lowell and the right for the entertainment of soldiers in this city. The letter says that the restriction of passes for members of the Devens command to go to towns and cities surrounding it had been lifted Oct. 25.

CORP. AGGELAKOS GAVE LIFE FOR U. S.

Corp. Constantinos Aggelakos of one of the regular army units of the American Expeditionary forces in France, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Aggelakos of Lewis street, has been killed in action in France, according to a telegram just received by his parents from the war department.

The Lowell soldier had been in the national service about a year and a half, having volunteered for the regular army shortly after the entrance of the United States into the war. He was 28 years old and had formerly been employed in the milk business in this city. He had been in the United States 13 years.

DEATHS

BAIRD.—Mrs. Margaret Keough Baird, formerly of Lowell, died in Toronto, Ont., Nov. 5. Besides her husband, she leaves three children: two sons, Mrs. Susan Mullen of Lowell and Mrs. Mary McDermott of Quincy, Mass., and three brothers.

10,000 LIVES SAVED

Endicott Praises Grippe Fighters—Gov. McCall Thanks Cardinal O'Connell

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Praise and appreciation of the work done by the various agencies and people of the state in stamping out the influenza epidemic was voiced by Henry B. Endicott, chairman of the emergency health committee, in a statement issued yesterday. Fully 10,000 lives were saved, he declared, by the "splendid work of doctors, nurses and helpers."

Special tribute is paid the state board of health, federal health officials, Cardinal O'Connell, doctors, nurses and women workers. "Everybody wished to be helpful and those actively engaged were helpful," he said. Of the state guard work the statement says:

"When the epidemic first started and before any of us dreamed of its disastrous possibilities, Dr. William A. Brooks, surgeon general, organized a mobile open-air camp at Corey Hill, Brookline, and established mobile camps and surgeons, placing in under military control. Other camps subsequently were established at Gloucester, Ipswich, Haverhill, Waltham, Barre and Springfield, where the epidemic had gained a strong foothold. Dr. Brooks' methods were wonderfully effective, so much so that the federal authorities recommended that they be adopted by other states where the disease had spread."

"Dr. Brooks was helped in every way by Adj. Gen. Stevens, Dr. Kelley, commissioner of health, and Dr. Draper, the federal health officer, also co-operated in a splendid manner. Massachusetts is particularly fortunate in having such an efficient department of health as Dr. Kelley guides."

"The work of the nurses will never be forgotten. And when I say nurses I mean in addition to the professional nurses, nurses aids, sisters of the various Catholic orders, school teachers, and many well known Massachusetts women. Now, I believe that nothing more heroic ever happened in the history of our state than the work that was done by these women. To it there was no romance—only hard work. Spanish influenza, I am told, is the most infectious disease that has ever visited us. Nearly 10 of our nurses died. Those who stand the strain were worn and tired. Yet in no case was a single despondency recorded. Just when we called for volunteers to take the places of those sick, the response was instantaneous."

"The volunteer doctors, many of whom left lucrative practices and went into the afflicted districts without any remuneration whatever, deserve a special mention. They gave up their whole time and risked their lives to save others. Throughout this trying time also His Eminence, Cardinal O'Connell, has extended help that has been of tremendous value."

"At the beginning of the epidemic I was told by the doctors that we must expect to lose at least 20,000 persons. We have not reached the final figures, but we believe they will not exceed half that amount."

"We have been aided greatly throughout the state by the mayors, boards of aldermen, boards of health and public safety committees. The women of the state also responded nobly. Under the leadership of Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer and Mrs. F. S. Mead, with the splendid assistance of Miss Billings, in charge of the nursing work; Miss Ross of the Red Cross and Miss Board of the District Nursing association, which association alone took care of 1000 patients, the campaign conducted by the women was as expeditiously conducted as it was effectively carried out."

"All these men and women may well be proud of their record. I am sure that Massachusetts will honor them."

GOV. MCCALL THANKS CARDINAL O'CONNELL FOR AID DURING EPIDEMIC

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Gov. McCall yesterday wrote Cardinal O'Connell thanking him for the aid given in the recent epidemic of influenza, and asking him also to express the gratitude of the state to the clergymen, sisters and other Catholic organizations which gave their services. The letter follows:

"Your Eminence: Please accept my sincere appreciation for the aid which you have, since its appointment by me, supported the Massachusetts committee on public safety in its work."

"Mr. Henry B. Endicott, executive manager, has repeatedly informed me that you have at all times fully heartily responded to every call for aid and assistance made upon you on many occasions."

Continued

Meuse are pushing the Germans from the small section of France they still occupy. Important gains are chronicled by the British in the north and the French in the center of the advancing allied lines, which moved forward six miles Wednesday.

Foch's Order to Hun Envoys

Marshal Foch informed Germany that her official delegation must enter the French line of the rose between Chimay, Belgium, and Guise, which runs between Vervins and Avesnes. The lines are within ten miles of the Belgian frontier.

Germans Evacuate Ghent

The British have smashed further through the enemy lines defending Mons and Maubeuge and are cutting the German positions in Belgium while the German commander at Ghent is evacuating the city.

East and southeast of the Mormal forest the British also have made a series of attacks towards the Franco-Belgian border.

French Cavalry in Action

The French armies from north of the Oise to southeast of Mezieres maintain contact with the retiring enemy all along the front. The first natural obstacles west of the Belgian frontier have virtually all been cleared and the terrain before the French is admirable for maneuvering. On the extreme right where the French lines join the American, French cavalry are riding toward the Meuse between Mezieres and Sedan.

Big Victory for Yanks

In reaching the Meuse at Sedan, General Pershing's men had achieved an advance of four miles since last Wednesday night. Germany's main line communication from Metz westward goes through Sedan and it is no longer of use to the enemy. In rapid advance northward to Sedan since last Friday, the Americans have captured 6000 prisoners. Sedan is seven miles from the French frontier and the fall of the town, which is mostly at the east bank of the Meuse, would mean a definite turning of the Meuse line northward into Belgium and would force the Germans back almost to the Rhine if hostilities should continue. East of the Meuse the Americans press forward toward Montmedy.

Formidable Task for Huns

Germany's troops west of the Meuse, because of the great progress of the French and Americans, must now retreat, if they can, through Belgium. The task of moving this large force of soldiers through the narrow Liege gap, is a formidable one.

Germany's hold on the Alsine from Reims eastward to above Vouziers, which has remained firm while the rest of the enemy front crumbled, was broken yesterday. French troops have thrown bridges across the river and are in close pursuit of the foe, who is abandoning vast quantities of munitions and material of war as he flees toward the ever-narrowing gap that leads through Belgium to comparative safety.

Vervins Captured; Reims Evacuated

Vervins has been captured. Reims has been evacuated by the Germans while the French are rapidly approaching the vital railroad center of Hirson from the west. British forces are moving up toward Maubeuge from the southwest and the Americans in the Meuse sector have now reached Sedan, where on Sept. 1, 1917, the decisive battle of the Franco-Prussian war was fought and Napoleon III was taken prisoner by the Germans.

Sledge-Hammer Blows

The approach of German emissaries to meet Marshal Foch today for discussion of an armistice brought no abatement in the pressure against the enemy. Everywhere along the front the converging forces of the allies increased the weight of their sledge-hammer blows in a battle which promises to be decisive.

of Camp Devens, and his adjutant, Col. Lot; Gen. Crozier, commander of the department of the northeast, Admiral Woods and Chaplain Henry Van Dyke of the first naval district.

This morning Admiral Woods telegraphed Mayor Thompson that he had accepted the invitation and other acceptances are expected momentarily.

Miss Margaret Romaine of the Metropolitan Opera company will be the soloist at the big mass meeting to be held at the Westford street armory Saturday night, assurance of his fact being received by Secretary B. S. Pouzner today from the national headquarters of the war camp community service.

The speaker of the evening will be Rev. Howard R. Williams who has just come back from overseas and who will speak on his experiences "over there."

Julian B. Keyes has undertaken to organize a women's section for the big parade to be held in the afternoon. Mrs. Keyes is anxious that the mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts of all Lowell men in the service turn out in the parade. Various women's organizations have received invitations to parade as organizations and they are accepting every hour.

Mrs. Keyes has appointed the following aides to assist her in carrying out the work of the women's section: Miss Thelma Coburn, Mrs. Thomas B. Doe, Miss Elizabeth Eastman, Miss Barbara Martin, Miss Frances Redway, Mrs. James C. Reilly and Mrs. Tyler Stevens.

The following ladies are organizing platoons which will be devoted to the work of regular organizations: Mrs. Charles Stevens, Miss Beryl Streeter, Mrs. Joe V. Meigs, Mrs. Herbert E. Benton, Mrs. George Rundles, Miss Cora Buckland, Mrs. Joseph Foley, Mrs. David Dewar and Mrs. Frederick Lamoureux.

Owners of automobiles who have volunteered the use of their machines to bring soldiers from Camp Devens to this city will meet at city hall at 11 a. m. Saturday instead of 10 o'clock. They are urged to be on time so that there may be no delay in carrying out the day's program. They will be met at every gate at Camp Devens by starters who will see that they are admitted without any hitch.

A Big Battle

"And then the Tanks advanced. In wave formation, protected partially by their barrage, but nevertheless, exposed to the hostile fire of the enemy."

No, this wasn't taken from an account of a battle "over there," nor was it culled from some graphically written soldier's letter.

As a matter of fact, every man, woman and child will have an opportunity to see just such action as has been described and the opportunity is not farther away than next Saturday afternoon. A trip to Europe will not be necessary, either, for the "battle" is to be staged on the South common.

Yes, Sir, Lowell is going to have a little scrap all of her own in connection with the big army and navy day which is to provide Lowell with a panorama of thrills and events next Saturday that will far outshine any previous affair of its kind.

OWNERSHIP HERE

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Asserting that "perpetual peace is to follow this war," Germany must be made to understand that the plan has failed in the industrial field as well as in the military. A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian, called on the bankers of America, in an address at the Metropolitan club here yesterday, to aid him in "Americanizing the great German-controlled industries in this country until every iota of enemy ownership has been wiped out."

Mr. Palmer declared that he was now holding about $300,000,000 worth of enemy property; that he expected soon to have more than $1,000,000,000, and that he hoped to be empowered claim of American citizens against the German government, due to its illegal use of this money "to pay the just warfare."

"ROMANCE OF LOWELL"

The "Romance of Lowell" film being shown at the Owl theatre, with Lowell men, women and children, appearing in the film as actual picture actors, and Mayor Thompson and Commissioner Warrick also taking part, is drawing big audiences at every performance so far this week.

Manager Averill and Director Arthur Thelma Coburn, Mrs. Thomas B. Doe, Miss Elizabeth Eastman, Miss Barbara Martin, Miss Frances Redway, Mrs. James C. Reilly and Mrs. Tyler Stevens.

Deserters in Berlin

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 7.—Continuous demonstrations are taking place in Berlin, according to the Social Democrats. Twenty thousand deserters from the army are marching through the streets of the capital.

Kiel Governed by Soldiers

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The entire German navy and a great part of Schleswig is in the hands of the revolutionists, according to reports received in Copenhagen from Kiel and transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph Co.

Kiel is governed by the mariners, soldiers and workers council. All the workshops have been occupied by Red troops. The street car lines and railways are under the control of the workmen's council. There have been no demonstrations.

O'DONOGHUE IS CAPTAIN

Lieut. W. F. O'Donoghue Receives Captain's Commission for Bravery in Action

Friends of former Lieut. William F. O'Donoghue, brother of John O'Donoghue, formerly chairman of the Lowell fuel committee and now in the national service, will be glad to hear that the young man, who is a former Lowell boy, has been promoted to a captaincy.

He has been a member of our overseas force for nearly a year and before his promotion was first lieutenant in the 51st Infantry. At the present time he has been assigned to an officers' training camp behind the lines, where he expects to spend the next few weeks in instructing ambitious applicants for commissions.

Two of his brothers, James F. and Michael P., are also in France, the former being first lieutenant of a Machine Gun company in the 301st Infantry, and the other serving with the 145th Company, 3d Replacement Battalion, United States Marines.

FIRST BAY STATE ROAD MAN TO FALL

The first employee of the local division of the Bay State Street Railway Co., to give up his life in the service is William Gallagher, a private with one of the American expeditionary machine gun battalions "over there."

Private Gallagher died October 2 from wounds received in battle, according to a telegram received by his uncle, Philip Barley of 6 Crosby street, yesterday. The telegram comes from the war department officials at Washington.

MOUSTAFA CAUSES RIOT

Dracut Officer Saves Alleged Disloyalist From Workers at Beaver Brook Mills

What looked like the beginning of a serious riot was averted yesterday afternoon at the Beaver Brook mills in Collinsville by Officer William Cullinan.

Moustafa was employed in one of the departments of the Beaver Brook mills and late yesterday afternoon while at his work, it is claimed he made remarks about the United States government and the American army, that were not of a very pleasing nature, particularly to a few of the patriotic residents of the town, who were present. It is also claimed that Moustafa was very abusive in his language in relation to some women workmen. Officer Cullinan, who is employed as an overseer in the mill, was quickly notified and when he arrived in the department where Moustafa is employed, Moustafa was being roughly handled by the men folks. The officer took Moustafa into custody and brought him to the police station, where he gave his age as 49 years and stated he was not married. He was booked for obstructing enlistment and recruiting.

PREVENT INFLUENZA

If you are "run down" or out of condition, if sluggish lowells have allowed untimely impurities to accumulate in your system you are liable to suffer severely with the grip. Dr. True's Elixir, the famous household remedy of 47 years reputation, may ward off the grip or make an attack light and easily thrown off. Why? Because is a vegetable medicine that puts the system in good condition, prevents and relieves constipation, stimulates the appetite and improves the digestive power. It can do no harm. It is purely vegetable. Ask your druggist for it or write DR. J. P. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me. 40c, 80c, $1.00.

LABOR RECRUITER HAS NOT YET COME

Up to this noon Captain Charles H. Thompson of the ordnance department in Washington, who was scheduled to visit this city today in an endeavor to procure mechanics for the Watertown arsenal had not arrived. It is possible that he may arrive later in the day, and in this case he may be found at the local United States employment bureau, 115 Merrimack street by anyone desiring information on this matter.

Capt. Thompson, to quote from a recent statement given out by him in this connection, stated that while appearances point to an early ending of the war, the government is not letting up at all. Increased production is the appeal from Washington and at every arsenal and munition plant the work is being speeded up. He stated that in the estimation of military men the production of guns and ammunition will not stop with the ending of the war. "Considerable ordnance will have to be replaced," he said, "and it is probable that there will be abnormal production at the

WAS A MERE SKELETON FROM LUNG TROUBLE

Gained 28½ Pounds in 28 Days, and Completely Recovered Health.

"When my health failed a few months ago, several physicians told me I had consumption and refused to take my case—that I might last longer in a higher climate but that it was only a question of time with me. I was soon reduced to a mere skeleton, weighing only 100 pounds, and was hardly able to walk."

"Finally a friend told me that Milks Emulsion had cured him and persuaded me to try it. By the time I had used two bottles, I noticed a decided improvement. I began to grow stronger. In 28 days I had gained 28½ pounds. I have now taken 23 bottles and am happier than words can tell to think I have regained my health. I weigh more, am stronger and in better health than I have been in the past 10 years. Milks Emulsion saved my life!"—Chas. W. Byers, 201½ Chestnut St., Terre Haute, Ind.

When success has been achieved in hundreds of cases just as hopeless as this, it seems unwise for any victim to deny himself a trial of Milks Emulsion. It can do no harm in any case. And it costs nothing to try.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and laxatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to rundown, nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It works like magic on coughs and colds.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles honestly and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.25 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Fred Howard.

GOVERNMENT ARSENALS FOR SEVERAL YEARS TO COME

At the Watertown arsenal he said there is need for upwards of 1500 tool-makers, machinists and machine operators. To fill the vacancies, he stated, an appeal is being made to men in non-essential industries of which there are many in this vicinity. Good wages and excellent shop and living conditions await those fitted for the positions.

MRS. SPERO IS SET FREE

Law Says Local Woman Was Not Criminally Responsible for John Lynch's Death

Katherine Spero, who was charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of John Lynch of Nashua, was arraigned in police court this morning and after the finding of Judge Pickman, who presided over the inquest, was read, Judge Enright ordered the case dismissed.

According to the evidence presented at the inquest, Mrs. Spero was operating her automobile through Middlesex street on the evening of Oct. 10. When a spot was reached near the corner of South street, Lynch, who was standing on the sidewalk, jumped right into the path of the machine and was struck by the mudguard. He was removed to St. John's hospital, where he died the following day from cerebral hemorrhage. It was claimed that when the accident happened Lynch was under the influence of liquor and that he made a statement exonerating Mrs. Spero from all blame.

Judge Pickman in his finding states that he finds that the death of Lynch was not due to any criminal negligence on the part of the operator of the car. Mrs. Spero, nor to any criminal negligence on the part of any other person or persons.

ITALIANS TAKE OVER PORT OF FIUME

ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS IN VENETIA, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—(By The Associated Press)—The Hungarian port of Fiume, southeast of Trieste, has been taken over by the Italians and Admiral Caghi has been named governor. The occupation of Fiume was military to the Italian entrance into Trieste. A citizens' committee was formed at Fiume on October 23. The committee signed a declaration of rights and declared themselves free from Hungary, expressing a desire to be united with Italy.

CONTROL OF SENATE IS STILL IN DOUBT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Control of the United States senate continued to remain in doubt early today on the face of returns from three states where contests between the democratic and republican candidates continued close as the count progressed. The republicans further increased their majority in the house of representatives when two of the three seats from South Dakota were conceded to them. Three seats, one each in South Dakota, New Mexico and Montana, still remain in doubt.

The standing of the two parties in the next house without the three missing districts is: Republicans 236 and democrats 195. In the senate without the three doubtful seats there are 47 republicans and 46 democrats.

Newberry Leads Ford
Of the senate races yet to be decided, Truman H. Newberry, republican, appeared to be maintaining his lead over Henry Ford, the democratic candidate in Michigan. With 222 precincts to hear from, Newberry was leading his opponent by 4083 votes. The Michigan state republican committee claimed Newberry's election, declaring that the remaining districts were normally republican.

Supporters of Senator Fall of New Mexico continued to claim his election on the basis of scattering returns. As these reports came from unofficial sources, the contest continued to be placed in the doubtful class.

In Idaho, Frank H. Gooding was making deep inroads into the majority credited to Senator John F. Nugent, democrat. Early today, Nugent's lead was only 446 with 55,000 of the state's estimated vote of 95,000 counted.

CLAIMS ELECTION OF REPUBLICANS IN N. M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 7.—Chairman Craig of the republican state committee today claimed the election of Albert B. Fall, republican, to the senate by a majority of 2360 over W. B. Walton, democrat, and the election of B. C. Hernandez, republican, to congress, over G. A. Richardson, democrat, by a majority of 1000.

SEN. NUGENT'S LEAD CUT DOWN TO 446

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 7.—Late returns reduced the lead of Senator John F. Nugent, democrat, over Frank R. Gooding for the short term in the United States senate. With 55,000 votes counted Nugent now leads by only 446. The state's vote is estimated at 95,000.

STORM AND "INFLU" CUT DOWN VOTE

JUNEAU, Alaska, Nov. 7.—Based on scattering returns, another close contest in the matter of delegate to congress from Alaska, may be the result of Tuesday's voting. James Wickersham, republican, is believed to be slightly in the lead.

A severe storm and rapid spread of the influenza epidemic caused the smallest vote ever cast.

These drugs will produce sleep, and A FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." # EDDIE FAY, NOTED CROOK, FOUND MURDERED

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Edward Joseph Fay, a world notorious crook and bank robber known as "Eddie Fay," was found shot to death in an alley here yesterday. There was a bullet wound in his head just below the right ear. The police believe he was slain by a member of his own gang, following an argument over the division of loot.

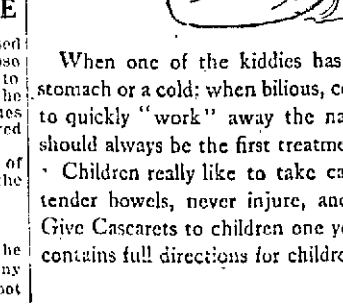

Fay's career of crime extends all over America and parts of Europe. He became internationally known 15 years ago, when he was arrested in Paris with "Mickey" Gleason, also of Chicago, for robbery of a Paris bank.

They were sentenced to Devil Island, a French prison surrounded by cliffs, but Fay later escaped. He was the first criminal to make a successful break for freedom from that prison.

The police estimate that Fay has stolen more than $2,000,000 from banks throughout the country.

REFUSE TO CONCEDE NEWBERRY'S ELECTION

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 7.—Although unofficial returns almost completely indicate that Lieut. Commander Truman H. Newberry, republican, defeated Henry Ford, democrat, for United States senator by 5000, democratic headquarters here this forenoon refused to concede Newberry's election.

"The official county will be necessary to determine the result," said Ray Canfield, secretary of the democratic state central committee, "and as the situation now stands, I believe we will be justified in demanding a recount."

Republican headquarters insisted the final count would show Newberry's election by 10,000, and claimed to have figures complete with the exception of one county to show a lead of 8984 for him.

A tabulation by the Associated Press this forenoon of figures from 2100 of the 2232 precincts in the state gave Newberry a lead of 5339. The figures were Newberry 206,984; Ford 201,645.

The majority of Governor Sleeper and the remainder of the republican state ticket on the final count will be approximately 50,000, or one-half the normal republican majority in Michigan.

Suffrage will have an affirmative majority of 25,000.

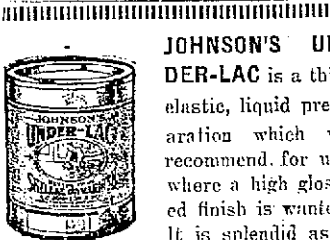

Henry Ford himself has no intention of asking a recount of the votes cast for United States senator in Michigan Tuesday.

He authorized this announcement today: "We believe that the campaign has been clean—as far as campaign go—and therefore are willing to abide by the return sheets." Mr. Ford's secretary announced in his behalf.

RED CROSS WILL MOVE

Cartridge Company Needs
Property Secured

After a year's stay at the Bigelow-Hartford plant, the North Middlesex Chapter of the American Red Cross in the course of a week's time will be located at new headquarters on Dutton street, in the First Trinitarian church, now unoccupied.

The present quarters, which have proven excellent for this organization, were made possible through the generosity and patriotism of the Bigelow-Cartridge company, who placed this two-story well-renovated brick mill at the disposal of the chapter, rent free. Since the time when the government took over the plant, the Cartridge company has done everything possible to aid the Red Cross.

Government officials have lately been considering the feasibility of using the mill for welfare work or for some use in connection with the Cartridge shop. No definite steps were taken, however, until a few days ago, when Gen. Butler Ames, now treasurer of the Cartridge company, notified the Red Cross that owing to the enormous production which is being contemplated, the space will be needed by the company.

The next step taken by the Red Cross was to place its case before the committee in charge of the First Trinitarian church, property. The committee met at the First Congregational church as trustees of that church and as present owners of the old Trinitarian church and voted unanimously to give the use of the Dutton street church property to the Red Cross as tenants at will and without rent. The ground floor will be occupied by the Red Cross, as well as a portion of the basement, and the arrangements are that the Red Cross will defray its own heating and lighting expenses.

By the valuable aid rendered the chapter, from the First Trinitarian church trustees, it is expected that by the end of next week the Red Cross will be completely settled in its new quarters.

Although the new rooms will not be as spacious and comfortable as those at the big mill, still it is hoped that they will meet the immediate and future needs of the Red Cross and unless there comes a far greater expansion of fabricating work, the new quarters will answer the purpose very well.

For the benefit of inquirers, desiring definite information as to the probable immediate activities of the Red Cross, it might be stated that there will not be so much of the surgical dressing work as heretofore, in fact it may soon be over altogether. There will be, however, a great expansion in the work of preparing and providing refugees garments as the Red Cross anticipates a tremendous task for the war broken people in the Balkans and in Siberia. This will require surely the space allowed by the church ground floor location. Just now the surgical dressing work is far from all done. Knitting of sweaters and socks will continue at a lively rate, a big order for socks being now in process of arrangement for this chapter.

The important feature just at the present time in connection with Red Cross activities deals with the matter of the Christmas box work for the soldiers overseas. Labels have been sent home by each soldier overseas to some person here and that person, by presenting the label at the Red Cross rooms in Market street (until the removal to Dutton street) can get the carton to be filled with Christmas gifts. When the carton is filled, bring it back to the Red Cross, where it will be inspected in accordance with the war department order, and will be mailed by the Red Cross. Lowell and each town has its duly appointed committee to handle the Christmas carton work.

Another important feature is the civilian relief, and as the well established war production lines of the Red Cross shift to meet the changing conditions of impending peace, this work is to go on without relaxation.

As the well established war production lines of the Red Cross shift to meet the changing conditions of impending peace, the work of the civilian relief and information committees will also shift but will hardly relax.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING WON, SAYS O'MALLEY

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—"Newspaper advertising won the election," is the opinion of Charles J. O'Malley, president of the O'Malley Advertising and Selling company, who had considerable to do with the campaign just closed. "Heretofore," continued Mr. O'Malley, "the politicians believed that the spellbinder was invincible. The old-time learned that people were moved more by the voice than the written word, but these are as obsolete as the old-fashioned fortress against modern artillery."

"The newspaper advertisement today is read almost as carefully as the news story, and certainly more critically than the editorials. Politicians are unable to gather crowds into poorly ventilated halls in the same number as they did, say 10 years ago. People read the views of these men through the paid medium of advertising columns, and have not the time nor inclination to attend rallies. This was evidenced in the last campaign."

"There have been few instances in state politics where there was so much money spent in legitimate advertising as in the campaign just ended. The newspaper columns throughout the state were utilized to their fullest capacity in telling the merits of democratic candidates, amendments, etc. I fully believe approximately $500,000 was spent in the newspapers by all parties, and that, in most cases, meant cash with order. This latter plan was inaugurated recently by the newspaper management and it worked to the benefit of all concerned. Heretofore many newspapers and advertising agents were the innocent victims of political credit, and all were glad of the new plan to pay cash for such advertisements when ordered."

"I am fully convinced that in the future political campaigns the candidates for office will use more newspaper space than in the past, and it will certainly be more dignified, more enlightening, and will make for cleaner politics in the city, state and nation."

TO REDUCE WHEAT SUBSTITUTES JAN. 1
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Plans to diminish by January 1 the percentage of substitutes used in wheat bread in allied countries and the United States are being discussed by the inter-allied food council in London. The reduction if decided upon, a statement issued by the food administration last night said, will be a direct result of the Austrian armistice.

"The change in the war situation, however, does not alter the totals of food demands upon the United States," said the food administration. "But, in fact will increase our load and therefore there will be increased demands for economy."

LIMIT PROFITS ON EGG PRICES

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The price-fixing division of the state food administration yesterday announced that retailers must not henceforth charge more than seven cents above the cost of their eggs. The cash-and-carry stores cannot charge more than six cents above the cost of their eggs. The seven-cent margin affects those stores that carry charge accounts. Within two weeks a maximum price that may be charged for cheese, butter and eggs will be quoted. This statement was made yesterday by Chief Everett of the price division of the food administration.

LIBERAL SUBSCRIPTIONS TO LIBERTY LOAN BY INDUSTRIES AND EMPLOYEES

The industries of Lowell and their employees subscribed $3,577,600, or nearly one-half of the city's total, in the recent Liberty loan campaign.

According to complete figures which have just been compiled, 42 industries were "in on" the Fighting Fourth loan and 18,112 of their employees took part in the big drive.

The grand total for the entire city has now gone beyond the $5,230,000 mark and the total number of subscribers is more than 321,000.

GERMAN TROOPS RAZE CIVILIAN TOWNS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—German forces in their retreat from Belgium are bombarding defenceless towns, using especially gas shells, and devastating the countryside, according to an eyewitness account made public yesterday by the Belgian legation.

"The Belgian government has been informed," said the statement, "by a reliable eyewitness who follows closely the operations at the Belgian front that at the very moment that the German government has announced her protest against inhuman acts, and while Germany offers to stop aerial bombardment in the interest of the civil population of the occupied territory, the Germans have bombarded the villages and towns which they were obliged to abandon during their retreat. They have used especially gas shells for this purpose."

Indescribably heartrending scenes have occurred, the unfortunate population having no gas masks or means of protection against these death spreading fumes. A Belgian soldier entering Wynghe, his home town, found his wife dying and his little daughter dead, victims of the poison gas, and his home a heap of ruins. The country all around Ghent, the rich and beautiful cultivated fields and pastures, the picturesque villages of Hansbeke, Landeghem, Nevele, Luthem, St. Martin, Tronchiennes, present a horrible sight of devastation and havoc. Not a church was spared from destruction.

"Among the civilian population hiding in the cellars there have been a great many deaths from gas, 27 in the village of Hansbeke alone. A portion of the population who had fled from their homes during the fighting and bombardment found on their return mere ruins and debris. Trees had been cut down, houses ransacked, furniture smashed to pieces, fields devastated."

"From these facts one may appreciate how hypocritical are the humanitarian propositions and protestations of the German government."

The legation also made public a captured order of a Bavarian division commander as further evidence that the Germans are robbing and looting Belgium. The order says:

"Regrettable as is the situation of the Belgian populace, the question of supplies for our troops, heavily engaged at the front, must remain for us of paramount importance. For this reason the last draft horse, the last vehicle must be requisitioned and used to the greatest advantage."

"Commanders of the various units and men must take into account that the attitude of the population toward us has been completely modified. Since the situation has been altered one must not expect to find in the Belgian the same docility that has characterized them through the past years of our warfare. They must be considered strictly as the population of an enemy state with which we are at war. Therefore it is particularly forbidden to assist the civilian population in any way; military interests alone should be considered. The products of the country must be utilized solely in our own interest."

DANGER AFTER SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIPPE

How it Can Be Avoided and Treated. Simple Rules to Be Followed. No Occasion for Panic

No need of anyone being afraid of the after effects and slow recovery from Spanish Influenza, hard colds or Grippe, if they will use common sense and start in building up their health and strength the right way. The main thing is to get the blood rich, red, and pure, so it can carry life-giving oxygen and strength to every part of the body. Impure blood is the cause of so many slow recoveries and set-backs. Doctors say: "Get the blood right and the rest is easy, that nine-tenths of all sickness is due to lack of iron and phosphates; the healthy strong, vigorous man or woman's blood is always loaded with these two life-giving elements."

Physicians also claim with fresh air and nourishing food nothing equals Phosphated Iron as a blood tonic and health builder. Phosphated Iron takes hold from the first dose. Results are seen and felt; strength returns, food digests, appetite picks up, sleep is restful, there is a color in the cheeks and a sparkle to the eye that only blood charged with iron and phosphates can give.

It is the duty of everyone who has had Spanish Influenza, Grippe or a hard cold to build up their system with nature's tonic, Phosphated Iron. It sure is health protection. Safety first. The results will repay you many times. Give yourself a show. Special notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules. Do not take pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

WASTE OF SUGAR

THE following bulletin was among the most forceful and effective bits of conservation propaganda at the New York Food Show last month. It was put out by the National Sugar Refining Company of New Jersey:

"Save the waste!"

"One hundred million cups coffee used daily in United States."

"Seventy million cups tea used daily in United States."

"One hundred and seventy million cups tea and coffee."

"If even an average of half a teaspoonful of sugar per cup is left undissolved at the bottom of cups of tea and coffee the waste would be 1,700,000 pounds of sugar daily."

"Stir your sugar until it dissolves. It's estimated that one-third to one-half of all sugars used in homes is used in tea and coffee. Think it over—how is it in your home? Isn't there a chance for saving?"

HON. DAVID I. WALSH

Hon. David I. Walsh, United States senator elect, has one great benefactor to whom he owes his political success more perhaps than to any other cause, more, indeed than to any inherent quality of his own. That benefactor is Theodore Roosevelt, who also helped to elect President Wilson to the high office he now holds and thereby rendered the country a most inestimable service. David I. Walsh came into office as lieutenant governor in 1915, having been elected as the result of the republican split, due to Roosevelt's bolt of the republican convention in Chicago in 1912. He was nominated and elected governor of Massachusetts in the fall of 1913, also as a result of the republican split, so that he has much for which to be thankful to Col. Roosevelt.

In his present triumph his providential luck has followed him. He was the logical candidate for the United States senate, and had little trouble in getting the nomination. Governor McCall announced himself as a candidate for the senate before the primaries, but for some reason which Tom Lawson designates as the "murderous influence of big business and boodle interests," the governor dropped out of the contest before the primaries. Then Mr. Lawson announced himself as a candidate and ran on an independent ticket. He secured votes enough to cut down the republican majority so as to let Hon. David I. Walsh secure the victory and thus was Senator John W. Weeks defeated.

But Senator Weeks could never have been defeated by any political combination had he not on many important occasions fought openly for the selfish interests such as the steel trust, leading their battles against the interests of the government. Weeks is a reactionary republican whose displacement by David I. Walsh will be a benefit to state and nation.

Col. Roosevelt also helped the democratic candidate to some extent by making a direct appeal in behalf of Senator Weeks. It appears, therefore, that Mr. Walsh has reason to be grateful, first to Col. Roosevelt and in the present instance, to Thomas W. Lawson while of course his own magnetic qualities as a vote getter and his record as a clean, able and honorable man, had due weight with the electorate. Mr. Walsh deserves the congratulations that are being poured upon him today, and The Sun adds its voice to the great chorus that wishes him success in the most dignified body in our government. His election removes a bitterly partisan republican and gives President Wilson a staunch supporter.

RICHARD H. LONG'S DEFEAT

The democrats of the state, with the exception of a certain sore-headed element, will regret the defeat of Richard H. Long, democratic candidate for governor. Mr. Long made an excellent run, in the face of certain defection and the failure of the state committee to do its duty. It is about time that members of the state committee should keep neutral in the primary contests, so that after the nominations they could consistently support the candidate and help to secure his election. That is what the state committee is for. As it has been conducted for some years past, however, the committee has attempted to usurp the right of the electorate in selecting candidates. This has been going on so long that it is about time to call a halt and to let it be understood that members of the state committee who wish to lead primary fights, should first resign their positions on the committee. Otherwise they are simply causing party dissension that leads to defeat at the polls. That is what happened in this last contest, but it has happened also on previous occasions. The democratic voters of this state should take the matter in hand and see that it is stopped. Every candidate in the primaries should have a fair chance regardless of the wishes of the state committee and the man who is nominated by the people should receive loyal support from every member of the committee.

The convention system of making nominations is a thing of the past and the state committee should not attempt to constitute itself a convention for the purpose of giving the voters of the state a candidate of its special selection. A candidate who is bitterly opposed by the primaries by the chairman of the state committee, may be excused if he refuses to hand over the management of his campaign to that particular gentleman, who has already lined up with his political enemies.

Democratic newspapers cannot render effective support to their party if they take part in the anti-primary fights. The paper that denounces a man before the primaries cannot consistently support him if he happens to be nominated. Members of the state committee are in the same position and they should follow the same policy in keeping neutral in the primary fights. They should leave the selection of candidates to the people, or at least avoid any bitter attacks that cause soreness which cannot be healed after the primaries. There is much need of reform in the state committee and its methods, and it is time the democratic organization should set about the work of making the necessary change.

The Boston machine is also responsible for much discord in the ranks of the democratic party. Unless the democratic candidates bow to the will of the Boston machine they are pretty sure to be knifed at the polls. This is particularly the case in reference to candidates who live outside Boston, and it has been true of Mr. Long's candidacy. It is not unlikely, however, that Mr. Long will be heard from again. He is not the kind of man who drops out of a fight on meeting his first real reverse.

OUR GAIN BY THE WAR

In this war the United States had no aim beyond vindicating our own rights and those of our citizens on the high seas and thereafter aiding the entente in the laudable work of stamping out pan-Germanism. The end of the war is now in sight. It seems that the surrender or the defeat of Germany is but a matter of a very short time so that we may with full confidence look at the results as they appear in prospect.

Germany has now her choice of surrendering forthwith, or waiting until she is compelled to capitulate when her forces are surrounded and the victorious armies of the allies begin their march to Berlin.

The question already has been raised in this country as to what we have gained by the present war. Among the things gained may be mentioned the following:

First, a position of power and leadership among the nations that no other nation will dare question or oppose.

We have gained the leadership of the world as the disinterested friend of human freedom among the nations of the earth and this, through the statesmanship of President Wilson in standing for the principles of American freedom, as provided for in our constitution.

By our course in the war, the danger of the yellow peril, so-called, has been laid away for all time.

We have won the respect and confidence of the Latin American nations, which can no longer suspect us of having selfish designs upon them.

By our achievements in this war we have convinced Mexico that for her own interests, she had better be less untruly along the border and had better also improve her behavior in general if she wishes to prevent a visit of Uncle Sam's marines to her capital or a sally from a squadron of airships dispatched across the border to wipe out Villa and his gang of Bolshevik followers.

We have secured a vindication of American rights on sea and land and as a result the absolute freedom of the seas for all nations will be assured. We have demonstrated to the world something that was before deemed very doubtful and that is that a democracy such as the United States, can conduct a war quite as well as any monarchical form of government, and in some respects a great deal better, as shown by the marvellous achievements of our government since we entered the war.

We have as a result of the war, established a merchant marine that will take our flag to every important port in the world and bring us into closer commercial intercourse with every country with which we can conduct a commercial business.

With these steps forward toward making the world safe for democracy and with the prospect of a league of nations to enforce universal peace, it would seem that we are on the eve of a new era in the history of the world, when the laws of justice and humanity will form the basis of every government on earth.

Surely, if these changes characterize the governments that are to rise on the ruins of the present Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey, then the war, terrible as it has been, will not be without its compensations for the future of the world and the benefit of all mankind.

We have had no selfish motive in the war; and though we have aided in saving France and Belgium and helped to reverse the situation in which we found Germany threatening to dominate the world, yet, we want no additional territory, no new colonies, nothing but the satisfaction of seeing a reign of justice and freedom established to remain undisturbed, let us hope, forever.

Evidently Wakefield is soon to take upon itself the responsibilities of a city inasmuch as on Tuesday her citizens voted favorably on accepting a city charter, this to make her the 39th city in Massachusetts. Wakefield, home of good people and fine citizens, has always conducted her home affairs as if she had a high civic conscience. Her neighbors, some of them less fortunate in charter matters, will wish that the city of Wakefield have fair weather and strong sails when she embarks on her new career.

We hear all kinds of things in connection with and that apply to the expression, "poetic justice." The best exemplification of it we have heard of in a long time was in the case of the allies appointing Foch as the official to whom the Germans must apply for relief from the terrific beating they are now receiving. It is one of those things that to the French mind, shows a sincere desire on the part of the allies to give France satisfaction for the German barbarities of 1870.

There has been some talk to the effect that all the suspenders factories in the country may have to close down because the government needs the webbing they use. If this were done it would reduce the number of cases of men hanging themselves by their suspenders and be hard on the men whose hips are not such that a belt satisfactorily keeps the pants up.

The German government has called former American Ambassador Bernstorff home from Turkey to give it the benefit of his knowledge of conditions in America, to help guide the government in armistice and peace negotiations. Truthful Americans could tell the German government that Bernstorff, even after living here many years, subsequently showed he had a vague idea of American decency.

Now that the people of New Hampshire have decided to have a Moses lead them, either out of or into the wilderness, as his future acts in congress shall certify, it might be appropriate for his constituents to learn why it was that President Taft summoned him home from Greece where he was minister plenipotentiary, before his term of office expired. A modern Moses ought to be willing to explain that.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, alleges that "the defeat of Senator Weeks in Massachusetts was one of the most regrettable events of the election." A broader minded man, who views the nation's interests from other than republican standpoints might have congratulated Bay Staters for sticking so firmly by President Wilson.

The allies, when the kaiser does finally hold his hands up in surrender, will not fail to note that the blood of Belgian women and children he ordered murdered, will be seen dripping from his hands for not in his lifetime can he find soap or abrasive keen enough to completely wash away this evidence of his crimes.

A republican paper commenting on the election of Cal Coolidge to the governorship says that the expected happened. Well not quite. We don't think many republicans expected Richard H. Long to cut into the republican majority as he did.

Perhaps an autocrat sat down to the breakfast table yesterday morning but he probably wasn't as autocratic as he might have been if he hadn't been licked by the United States senate the day before.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

Persons buying a ticket to go to Boston, I find, should use all possible safeguards against being out of pocket in connection with buying their ticket because new rules of the railroad administration, for which no explanation is given, by the way, are of such a nature that if you do not have your wits about you, you will be out of pocket. Formerly, buying a ticket, the railroad guaranteed it was worth what had been paid for it, to travel on, no matter how long, the purchaser kept it. A different rule prevails now. If you buy a ticket you must make up your mind that you have a use for it and that you can use it within 48 hours because if the ticket hangs around your pocketbook longer than 48 hours after being bought, you lose it. It cannot be used and the government will not redeem it. Many persons going on a trip to Boston from Lowell have bought two tickets reading from Lowell to Boston, expecting that on the return trip one ticket could be used. But the very exact and punctilious railroad administration will not allow this. You must travel in the direction your ticket indicates. I heard of one Lowell man who got stuck to the extent of three or four tickets in this very way.

The Lowell Fish and Game association has not let up in its campaign to have the Massachusetts fish and game commission build a suitable fish ladder in the Merrimack river for the protection of river fish. I hear the fish and game commission is sort of acting as though this fish ladder proposition was something that it would be at right to attend to at any time within the next two or three hundred years. The Lowell sportsmen feel different about it. At a meeting of the local association volunteered to go to Maine at his own expense and bring back pictures of the fishway for salmon in a certain part of that state the local association knows would be adaptable for local conditions, so as to submit these pictures to the Massachusetts fish and game commission and see if they cannot be made to "get going" and having something done in this vicinity.

I think most of us who know about it will envy Arthur Steiner, representative of the Houdini Film company of New York, who has made quite a few friends here since he has been here in behalf of his company putting on the "Romance of Lowell" stunt. He tells us that next Tuesday evening he leaves New York for California where he and his men working with him have a number of contracts to go into different cities and towns in southern California and on up the coast, making this "Romance of ——" picture. Steiner says it has never been done before in California. When I suggested that southern California folks see the making of so many photoplays I should not think they would be interested in something of this kind, he said that his company believed there were just as many ambitious embryo motion picture players in the southern California cities as every place else and his company figured these young folks would be glad to have parts in the romance of their home towns and after the picture was made, be in a position to hurry over to the nearest motion picture studio with the film and show the directors what they could do. This was an explanation that seemed to fit the situation. Steiner is lucky to be able to make the trip to California. Sometimes the advantage of spending your fuel money for a railway ticket to a warm climate lies among other things, in getting out of sitting and moving ashes.

It isn't a question of what the kaiser will do. The question is: What will be done to the kaiser?

Well, anyway, Tom Lawson seemed to get a whole lot of fun out of it, including a broken collar-bone and a few fractured ribs.

It isn't the least reassuring to have the waitress serving your meal tell you that she has just recovered from a severe attack of influenza.

Let George Do It

On the range a party of recruits were firing their first course. The sergeant in charge noticed that one of them—a man named Smith—was missing the target every time.

At last, quite fed up with the man's bad firing, the sergeant went across to him and told him to go and shoot himself.

The man disappeared. A few seconds later a report was heard from the spot where Smith had gone to. The sergeant hurried to the spot and shouted, "Are you there, Smith?"

"Yes, sergeant," came the reply. "I've missed again!"

Now They're Welded

Private McGuire, lying in a hospital, was very fractious. He pointedly refused to take a second dose of medicine, which was inordinately nasty. Several smiling nurses bent over him and urged him to be good.

"Come," pleaded one, "drink this and you'll get well."

"And rosy, too," chimed in a second. McGuire visibly brightened, and actually sat up in bed.

After surveying the pretty group he inquired, eagerly, "What one of you is Rosy?"

Waiting for the Squeal

"I want to have a tooth drawn," announced the small boy with the steel gray eye, "and I want gas."

"You're too young to have gas, my little man," said the dentist. "Besides, I'm sure you aren't afraid of being hurt. Sit still and be a man."

"It isn't that at all," said the boy, "but I'm afraid I shall not be able to help giving a bit of squeal when it comes out."

"Well, that won't matter at all," said the dentist. "I'm sure I shall not mind."

"No, but I shall. Look out of that window."

The dentist looked out and saw a lot of grinning lads standing on the sidewalk.

"They're all the kids I've fought and whacked," said the small patron, "and they've come to hear me holler."—Baltimore Evening Sun.

and a snare, and declares that all the love of money is the root of all evil.

There are few men of meagre incomes who have not dreamed time and again of all the good they would do if they only had as much money as somebody of whom they have heard. Sometimes such a one gains riches and really sets out to build in fact the structure of his dreams; but many another attaining riches forgets the dreams of his poorer days in the cares of wealth and the desire to add to it which always accompanies money.

There seems to be no point at which humanity can be satisfied with the things which it possesses. The greater the struggle to secure riches, the more certain it is that the soul of the struggler will be to a greater or less degree torn from its anchorage of faith. Money easily becomes a god, and after that a tyrant. There is no doubt that it is easier to be good when poor, for riches untouched by grace bring temptations. There is also no doubt that it is easy, if we will, to do good with this world's goods. It is not necessary, possessing some wealth, to yield to the ever-present temptation to add to it by unworthy means. It is only necessary to keep the wealth in its proper place as a possession and not permit it to possess us. The trouble with the young man who went away sorrowful was that his "much goods" owned him rather than he them.—Christian Herald.

Courage

Pluck's a most peculiar thing. Found in commoner and king.

It's not the heritage of any class. There's the courage of the fool: There's the kind that's calm and cool. No matter what disaster comes to pass.

There are men who love to fight. When they're wrong or when they're right.

The lust of battle finds them undimmed. Reasoning won't make them stop. They will struggle till they drop.

They do not understand the word afraid.

the board says, must be opposed by strict personal economy. Despite war economy propaganda, it appears, says the board, "that many classes of the population are still spending their current incomes as freely as ever, notwithstanding the fact that prices today are at a record figure, because they have not yet embraced the national duty to save as a personal obligation."

The board's explanation goes into detail to show that bank loans for purposes other than short-time commercial transactions are becoming steadily greater in volume and in proportion to reserves causing inflation and resultant increases in prices. General business activity throughout the country is reported by practically all reserve agents.

The market reduction in the recent output of clothing, materials, shoes and other articles of personal use, indicates, the board said, that civilians in a few months may have great difficulties in getting these goods.

Banking conditions are reported "about as satisfactorily as could be expected under the circumstances." Building operations are practically stationary.

DONOVAN AND SACCO ARE READY FOR BOUT

Johnny Donovan of South Boston and Young Sacco of East Boston, rival boxers from rival sections of the Hub, are in fine fettle for their 12-round bout at the Crescent A.A. tonight. Both boys have trained hard for the match and each is confident of settling the claim of supremacy. Tonight will mark the first local appearance of this season of this pair and the members of the C.A.A. look and expect a very fast bout. Tommy Flanagan of New Bedford, who will meet Young Sacco of Newport in the semi-final of eight rounds, is a very popular performer in Lowell. He can always be counted upon putting up a good battle, and as he is up against a very aggressive opponent in taking on Suggs, his number looks like a hummer. Frank Molins, a

Destruction and Starvation in

Trent Beggar Description

—Many Starving

Horrors of Napoleon's Retreat

Sufferings of Austrians

WITH THE ITALIAN ARMY AT TRENT, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Amid the rejoicings of this redeemed city, destruction and starvation are common as one passed over the roads over which the Italian troops are trying to pass the thousands of Austrian prisoners who were cut off by the Italians southwest of Balzano. Every road leading up to this city is crowded with men and on every hand there are evidences of the collapse of one of Europe's mightiest armies.

The horrors of Napoleon's retreat from Russia, it is said, by military observers, were trifling compared with the suffering of the Austrian troops in this region. Great masses of men wait for long hours to move a few feet, or a few hundred yards, to halt anew on a road littered with the carcasses of horses and with cannon pieces of shells, pistols, rifles, broken down automobiles and machine guns.

There is no swarming among these men. There are even moments of profoundest quiet, broken by snatches of songs. Italian soldiers seem positively sorry that the end of the war is approaching. They say: "What's a few months more now that we are sure of victory?"

Austrians Die of Starvation

Many Austrians are dying from sheer fatigue and starvation, and not wounds. The Italians are doing all they can to hurry up food supplies. This is difficult and in the meantime dead horses are eaten, the flesh being cooked by the roadside by fires kindled by the soldiers.

Large bodies of Austrians are helpless. The correspondent passed between Rovereto and Trent, a distance of 16 miles, an unending column of men marching none knew whither. They asked orders from an officer who was with the writer. When asked if they knew about the armistice, they said: "We want food. Food is the only thing we are interested in. We are indifferent to war and peace and death—everything but food."

Strange tales are told of the exploits of Italian prisoners returning home. Above Trent a group of Italian prisoners broke out and ordered the chauffeur of a truck to drive them to the Italian lines, and the man obeyed. Another Italian prisoner, mounted on horseback at the head of a regiment of Austrians, announced smilingly: "These are my captives."

Nine Enemy Divisions Taken

It is estimated that nine Austrian divisions were taken with their staffs. Thirty-nine divisions were partially disorganized and 15, although in bad condition, are retreating from the advancing Italians. These troops while equipped for their retreat, are without orders and go traveling here and there like droves of sheep. It is a common thing to see an entire brigade with-

AMERICAN SHIPYARDS SET NEW RECORD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—American shipyards again established a new record in October by delivering 77 ships of 238,100 dead-weight tons. The shipping board also received during the month two ships of 17,500 tons built for its account in Japan.

The deliveries by American yards included 45 steel ships of 238,400 dead-weight tons, 30 wooden vessels of 107,200 dead-weight tons and two composite ships of 7500 tons dead-weight tons.

The Pacific coast led in completed ships, with 30 vessels of 130,400 tons. Atlantic coast yards turned over 17 of 102,000 tons; the Lake 21 ships of 73,000 tons and the Gulf finished nine of 33,200 tons.

October deliveries bring the total of completed ships since Aug. 30, 1917, up to 437 vessels of 2,793,510 dead-weight tons. Of these, 2,386,835 have been delivered in the present year.

TO EXTEND THE LABOR RECRUITING SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—With the country facing a shortage of farm labor next year, due to the demands of the draft and the inroads made by war industries, the United States employment service announced today that plans were being formulated to extend the labor recruiting service to farm workers.

In each state an assistant to the federal director will be named to have charge solely of farm labor. Special examiners will be attached to branch offices of the employment service to recruit labor for farm needs. The workers thus obtained will be assigned as far as possible to the state within which they are recruited, although any surplus that exists will be sent to other states where the need is urgent.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION
Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes
—Most Women Can Have
Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known
Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Carter's Little Liver Pills will set you right over night.
Purely Vegetable
Small Pill, Small Dose, Small Price

Carter's Iron Pills
Will restore color to the faces of those who lack iron in the blood, as most pale-faced people do.

MASS NOTICE.—The funeral of William and Frank Seabury, Thomas Gray and Clara Greene, at the grave Rev. James Kerrigan of St. Patrick's church, read the committal prayers and burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons.

MASS NOTICE.—Tomorrow, (Friday) morning at 8, the boys from the upper Gosham and Moore sts. are having a high mass celebrated at Sacred Heart church for the late Edward P. McFadden, who was fatally injured in a railroad accident at South Lowell a week ago Saturday. All friends and relatives of the deceased are invited to attend.

WE CAN HAVE ANOTHER POUND OF SUGAR.
Good news for Lowell housewives who have spent considerable time in the past few days devising means to make their sugar allotment of two pounds a month for each member of the family answer the requirements of the household, comes in the announcement by the local food administration that after Nov. 15 the allotment will be increased to three pounds a month per person and that beginning Dec. 1 the whole month's supply can be purchased at one time.

The following statement on the sugar situation was given to The Sun by the Lowell food administrator today:

"The food administration in co-operation with the Dealers War Service association, on Nov. 1, put into effect a system to obtain sugar through coupons which would give each person two pounds allowed by the food administration. This has been a tremendous task and then, like lightning from a clear sky, comes a change in the regulations, authorizing a person to receive three pounds instead of two and the full month's allotment could be purchased at one time.

"Unfortunately, there is not sufficient sugar available at the present time to give the three pounds, nor have the dealers been given certificates with which to secure this supply."

The bearers were William and Frank Seabury, Thomas Gray and Clara Greene. At the grave Rev. James Kerrigan of St. Patrick's church, read the committal prayers and burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons.

"Unfortunately, there is not sufficient sugar available at the present time to give the three pounds, nor have the dealers been given certificates with which to secure this supply."

These certificates will not be available until after the middle of the month, so that both the public and the dealers are asked to have further patience as at the present time the public can only receive two pounds per person and only this amount can be purchased at one time. After the 15th, it is expected that the sugar certificates and sugar itself will be available and a method will then be devised by which the public can after that date receive their extra pound and, beginning with Dec. 1, the consumer will have an opportunity to purchase their whole month's supply at one time.

"The food administration asks the support and hearty co-operation of both the public and the dealers in carrying out this program."

Warren P. Riordan, chairman of the local committee, requests that all dealers who have a supply of unused sugar registration cards will return them to the food control department at 117 Merrimack street, immediately.

ITALY WILL SEND GIFTS TO AMERICA
ROME, Nov. 7.—Francesco Nitti, minister of the treasury, who during the absence at Versailles of Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino, has been acting head of the government, has named a parliamentary mission to proceed immediately to the United States.

The mission is composed of Senator William Marconi, Senator Ruffini, president of the state-American union, Senator Gen. Dall'olio, who was for a time minister of munitions, and Prince Lanza di Sclavi, former under secretary for foreign affairs.

Wishing to show the appreciation of Italy for the part the United States is taking in the war, the mission will be the bearers of gifts for President Wilson, the American congress and the city of New York, consisting of rare and original codices of Christopher Columbus Amerigo Vesputi and Giovanni da Verrazzano.

The codices of da Verrazzano, who explored the coast of North America from North Carolina to New Foundland in 1521, discovering New York bay, are especially interesting as they refer to his American explorations. The codices will be presented in artistic cases with special inscriptions.

General Invitation to the People of Lowell and Out-Lying Districts—

You are cordially invited to attend a meeting at the State Armory, Saturday evening, Nov. 9th, at 8 o'clock. A program of unusual interest will be carried through.

Miss Margaret Romaine, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, will sing and the UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE will have a speaker there of national prominence whose name will be announced in the press.

The Depot Brigade Band of Camp Devens will furnish the music. Mayor Thompson will preside, and officers from Camp Devens will be present.

This meeting will be a supreme effort on the part of the city of Lowell to bring before its citizens and the citizens of Middlesex County the full story of the organizations participating in this campaign.

THE MEETING WILL BE ONE OF EXTRAORDINARY INTEREST AND WE ARE ESPECIALLY ANXIOUS TO HAVE YOU PRESENT.

A unique feature of the meeting will be the community singing led by Albert Edmund Brown. This is a movement which is now being inaugurated throughout the country and which has developed very strongly in Lowell.

This is all for the men who are defending us and our principles and we urge you most earnestly to be present.

The press will announce further particulars.

Please invite your friends to come, and ask them likewise to phone to their friends.

SPECIAL NOTICE FOR SATURDAY AFTERNOON:

Walk in the parade and get into the films which will show the boys the pictures of those they left behind them.

The entire UNITED WAR WORK organization is to march in the parade Saturday.

Opening banquet for the organization Friday night, at 6.45 in Memorial Hall.

Ladies who have men in the service! You can do very much for the happiness of the men of our fighting forces, by marching in the Army and Navy Day Parade next Saturday afternoon. Can you conceive the disappointment of your boy if he fails to find you in the photo when other men from our neighborhood will see their women folk? The ladies will wear small hats with dark suits or coats, and a band of red, white and blue ribbon from the right shoulder to the left hip. The parade will start about 2.30. For further information phone to Mrs. Julian B. Keyes, 3578 or 5007.

Food for the Army— and Yet Enough for You

MILLIONS of pounds of meats are being called for by the Government. More than one-third of the energies of all the Armour plants are being devoted to meet that demand—to help win the war.

This means that we must distribute the remainder of our available supply very carefully. One section must not be permitted to suffer from an under-supply of any particular kind of food when this might be avoided by simply preventing over-supply in some other locality.

In solving this problem the local Armour Branch House (and all our similar Branch Houses at other points) play an important part.

For each knows the needs of the community it serves. Our Branches all know what foods are available from outside sources—what alternative foods must be supplied—what "out-of-season" products are needed. And they also know how much less than the normal supply of shipped-in foods will be adequate at any time, so that the Army and the home folks may be sufficiently fed.

Some of my important duties here as the local Armour Manager are: To study the requirements of this territory; to be in constant touch with the sources of supply; where possible, to prevent shortages; to specify the foods most needed.

And the best way I can serve Armour and Company is to serve the merchants and the people of this community to the utmost of my ability.

THE ELECTRIC IRON

SAVES TIME

Moments are far too valuable today to be wasted or misspent.

Fully one-half of the time you now devote to ironing with old stove-heated sad irons is a sheer loss.

This amount of time could easily be saved for more urgent household requirements by using an Electric Iron.

In addition, an Electric Iron will do better work for you—will save your clothes, linens, doilies, etc.—will eliminate needless tramping about—will abolish dirt and muss—and will save fuel and expense.
